The Author’s Introduction

All praise to Allah, the Almighty for His open and concealed bounties, which He bestows at all times. May the peace and blessings of Allah be upon His final Messenger, his family and companions and all those who strive in the path of Allah until the Day of Judgment, as well as their followers who inherited their knowledge for indeed the scholars (Ulama’) are the heirs of the Prophets! May Allah, the Almighty bless them all and their followers.

This is a concise book comprising of Hadith, which are sources of the Shariah. I have made a meticulous compilation so that the one who memorizes it will excel among his peers. It may assist the beginner and the learned person who is seeking more knowledge.

I have indicated at the end of every Hadith the Imam who collected it. I used the following abbreviations:

The seven Imams refers to: Ahmd¹, Al-Bukhari², Muslim³, Abû Dawud⁴, At-Tirmidhi⁵, An-Nasa'i⁶ and Ibn Mâjah⁷.

The six Imams refers to: Al-Bukhari, Muslim, Abû Dawud, At-Tirmidhi, An-Nasâ‘i and Ibn Mâjah.

The five Imams refers to: Ahmd, Abû Dawûd, At-Tirmidhi, An-Nasâ‘i and Ibn Mâjah. They may also be referred to as: The four and Ahmd.

I have called this book: "Bulâgh al-Marâm min Adillat Al-Ahkâm" (Attainment of the Objective according to Evidence of the Legal Judgments); and I ask Allâh that what we have learnt may not be a calamity against us. May He guide us to act according to what pleases Him, the Almighty.

\(^8\) Agreed upon means: Ahâdîth accepted and agreed to by both Imâms Al-Bukhârî and Muslim.
Translator's Introduction

All praise is due to Allâh, the Lord of the Universe. We praise Him, seek His help, and ask His forgiveness. We seek refuge in Allâh from the evil of our souls, and the adverse consequences of our deeds. Whosoever Allâh guides, there is none that can misguide him, and whosoever He misguides, none can guide him.

I bear witness and testify that there is no deity that is worthy of worship except for Allâh, who is alone having no partners. I bear witness and testify that Muhammad ﷺ is His perfect slave and Messenger.

Bulûgh al-Marâm is a book, which was written by Imâm Ibn Hajar (773 H - 852 H) with the objective of compiling many of the Ahâdîth particularly related to the Ahkâm (judgments) of İslâmic Shari'ah, i.e. those related to worship, business transactions, laws of marriage and divorce, legal punishments etc. This illustrates the importance of this book for the Muslim reader, who is always in need to know the judgments of Shari'ah related to the essential elements of his life.

Due to the importance of this book, Imâm As-San’ânî wrote a very good interpretation of the Ahâdîth in Bulûgh al-Marâm in his famous book ‘Subul as-Salâm.” Needless to say that reading the Ahâdîth on their own as they are organized in ‘Bulûgh al-Marâm’, may be confusing sometimes as the reader may find that some of these Ahâdîth appear to be contradictory even though they may be of the same grade of authenticity. Therefore, we made use of some of the commentary of Imâm As-San’ânî, plus referring to some other books, which are relevant to the interpretation of Hadîth, in order to clarify any ambiguity that may arise. Hopefully these footnotes will make it easy for the reader to comprehend the essence of these Ahkâm in İslâmic Shari’ah and how they are deduced from the combination of these Ahâdîth and the relevant Qur’ânic verses.

A glossary has been included to clarify the meaning of some of the terminology used throughout it. Needless to say that this terminology is specifically related to İslâmic concepts of which there is no synonym in English. For this reason they were used in Arabic Transliteration so that the non-Arabic speaking Muslim reader will become familiar with them, and hopefully such words and expressions will be adopted into everyday speech. One English word could never convey the whole concept and depth of the Arabic term.

Bulūgh al-Maram was previously translated, with good effort by Dār al-Fikr in Syria, but the language of the book required some refining plus there is a need for explanatory footnotes to help in the comprehension and understanding of the Ahādīth as mentioned earlier.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. al-Khushū’ī Muhammad al-Khushū’ī, who is a scholar of Hadith and its sciences at Al-Azhar University, Faculty of ’Usūl ad-Din, for his great help with the commentaries included in this edition and his valuable guidance throughout the whole work.

I would like to express my deep gratitude and appreciation to my editor sister Selma Cook, as she is not just a language editor, she reads with the eye and heart of a Muslim who tries to understand, analyze and comment on what she is reading. Her valuable discussions over the content of the book are always a source of inspiration for more valuable additions in explanatory footnotes and in the Hadith text itself. This is very important for editors of such specialized books that could not be edited by someone who does not have a good background in Islamic knowledge and the interest and desire to understand what they are not familiar with.

Finally, I must say that this remains a human effort which can never achieve perfection, and any comments from the reader will be much appreciated and will be considered Inshā’ Allāh in coming editions. I would like to thank all who helped to publish this book. I pray that Allah, the Almighty accepts our efforts, as sincere deeds are done solely for His sake.

Indeed, any deeds performed without sincerity in Allah’s cause are lost and have no value. May Allah guide and keep us all on His straight path.

1. Abū Hurairah (RAA), narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Concerning the sea, its (the sea) water is pure (suitable for performing ablution) and its dead (animals) are lawful (Halāl to eat, without any prescribed slaughtering). It is related by the four Imāms⁹ and Ibn Abī Shaibah (the text mentioned above is his). Ibn Khuzaimah and at-Tirmidhi graded it as Sahih (authentic) [it was also reported by Mālik, Shāfi‘ī and Ahmad].

2. Abū Sā‘īb al-Khudrī (RAA), narrated that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Water is Tahur (i.e. pure in itself and it purifies other things) and nothing defiles it¹⁰.” Related by the three Imāms,¹¹ and Ahmad graded it as Sahih (authentic).

⁹- Abū Dawūd, at-Tirmidhi, an-Nasa‘ī and Ibn Mājah.
¹¹- Abū Dawūd, at-Tirmidhi, an-Nasa‘ī.

4. Imam al-Baihaqī reported (through his chain of narrators): “Water is Tahür except when its smell, taste or odor is changed by a Najāsah, which affects it.”

5. ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Umar (RAA), narrated that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Any amount of water that is sufficient to fill two pitchers, is not easily contaminated by impurity (Najāsah).” Another narration says: “It does not become impure.” Related by the four Imāms. Ibn Khuzaimah, al-Ḥākim and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

6. Abū Hurairah (RAA), narrated that the Prophet ﷺ said, “None of you should wash in stagnant water when he is...”
Junub (a state of major ritual impurity due to coitus). Reported by Imām Muslim.

7. In another narration by al-Bukhāri (of the previous Hadith): The Prophet ﷺ said, “None of you should urinate into stagnant (water that is not flowing), then wash in the same water.”

8. In an another narration by Imām Muslim and Abū Dawūd (of the same Hadith) the Prophet ﷺ said, “And should not wash in it because of being in a state of Janābah (major impurity due to sexual relations).

9. A man who accompanied the Prophet ﷺ narrated, “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ forbade that a woman should wash with the water left over by the man or that the man should wash with the water left over by the woman; and they should use the water (scoop it from the same vessel) together (i.e. at the same time).” Reported by Abū-Dawūd and an-Nasā’ī with a sound chain of narrators.

11. The authors of the Sunan transmitted that one of the wives of the Prophet washed from a bowl, and when the Prophet came to wash from it (perform ablution or ghusl) she said, "I was junub (sexually impure)." He replied: "Water does not become impure." At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Khuzaimah graded it as Sahih.

12. Abu Hurairah (RAA), narrated that the Prophet said, "If a dog laps the water from the utensil of anyone, purify it

14. The authors of the Sunan are: at-Tirmidhi, Abû-Dawūd, an-Nasâ'i, and Ibn-Majah. (Trans.)

15. Imâm ad-Dârquqî reported her to be Maimûnah (RAA).

16. Most scholars of Fiqh, are of the opinion that it is permissible for the men to use the water left over by a woman and vice versa whether for wudu' (ablution) or ghusl, as both al-Bukhârî and Muslim reported on the authority of 'A'ishah: "I used to wash with the Prophet from the same bowl," and also for the Hadith reported above (no. 11). This is also supported by the Hadith reported by Muslim that the Prophet used to wash with the water left over by Maimûnah (no. 10). As for Hadith no. 9 forbidding this act, the scholars said that it is not as strong as the other Ahâdîth, and even if they are equal in authenticity, it does not really indicate a strict prohibition. Imâm Khattâbî said that what is meant is forbidding men from using the water that she already used and not what is left over (i.e. clean), and some said that it is only preferable not to use what is left over and not actually prohibited, and Allâh knows best. (Trans.)
(the vessel) by washing it seven times, using earth\textsuperscript{17} for the first washing”. Reported by Muslim, with the addition: “He must spill it\textsuperscript{18}.” Imam at-Tirmidhi also related it with the addition: “The first or the last (washing).”

13. Abī Qatādah (RAA), narrated that Allah’s Messenger \textsuperscript{14} said concerning cats, “It is not impure (Najis), it is one of those who live among you.” Related by the four Imāms. At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Khuzaimah graded it as \textit{Sahih}.

14. Narrated Anas Ibn Malik (RAA), “A Bedouin came and started to urinate in one of the corners of the mosque and the people then rebuked him, but the Prophet \textsuperscript{15} stopped them. When the man had finished, the Prophet \textsuperscript{16} ordered them to pour a (large) bucket of water over the urine\textsuperscript{19}.” Agreed upon (Related by al-Bukhārī and Muslim).

\textsuperscript{17} What is meant by earth here is mixing water with earth until it becomes muddy, and then washing the vessel with this mud the first time, until he is sure that there is no trace of the dog’s saliva in the utensil.

\textsuperscript{19} It must be noted here that the floor of the mosque was sandy, i.e. there were no tiles, so when the water was poured over the urine, it became soaked into the sand and did not remain inside the mosque.
15. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, "Two types of dead animals and two types of blood have been made lawful for us. 16. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "If a housefly falls into the drink of anyone of you, he should dip it (all) in the liquid, for one of its wings has the disease, and the other has the cure." 17. Narrated Abī Wāqid al-Laithy (RAA): The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said, "Whatever (any part) is cut off from a live

20. Dead here refers to dying from "natural causes," i.e. without the prescribed Islamic slaughtering.

21. It is not meant in this Hadith that the person must drink the liquid in which the fly has fallen, the Prophet (ﷺ) is only guiding the Muslims to the way in which to protect themselves from being infected by microbes, should they want to continue drinking after throwing away the fly.

22. i.e. falls in the liquid with the wing containing the disease (the microbes) first.
animal is considered dead. Related by Abū Dawūd and at-Tirmidhî who graded it as Ḥasan and the wording is his.

Narrated Abū Hudhaifah Ibn al-Yamān (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Do not drink from gold and silver vessels, and do not eat from gold and silver dishes, for they (disbelievers) have them in this world but you will have them in the Hereafter.” Agreed upon (i.e. reported by al-Bukhārī and Muslim).

19. Narrated Umm Salamah (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said: “Whoever drinks from a silver vessel, is but filling his abdomen with Hell fire.” Agreed upon.

20. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “If the animal’s skin is tanned, it becomes pure (Tāhîr).” Reported by Muslim.

21. Narrated the four Imāms: “Tanning any skin (purifies it)

23. I.e. this part is considered like an animal, which has not been properly slaughtered, i.e. is dealt with as being Najāsah (impurity).

23. Narrated Maimûnah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ passed by a dead sheep being dragged along by (some people). Thereupon he said to them, "Why didn't you make use of its skin?" They told him, "It is a dead animal (i.e. had died a natural death, without being slaughtered)." He said to them ﷺ, "Water and the leaves of mimosa flava purify it." Related by Abû Dawûd and an-Nasâî.

24. Narrated Abû Tha'labah al-Khushani (RAA): I said, "O Messenger of Allâh, we are living in a land belonging to the people of the Book, so can we eat our meals with their utensils?" He replied ﷺ, "Do not eat from their utensils, but if you cannot obtain utensils other than theirs, wash them and eat out of them." Agreed upon.

25. Narrated Imrân bin Hugain (RAA): "The Prophet ﷺ and his companions performed ablution from a water-bag belonging to an unbelieving woman.” (This is a part of a long Hadith). Agreed upon.

26. Narrated Anas Ibn Malik (RAA): “The drinking cup of the Prophet ﷺ was broken, and he mended it with a silver chain...” Related by al-Bukhārī.

30. Narrated 'A'ishah (RAA): “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to wash the semen (off his clothes), and then go out to prayer in the same garment. I used to see the mark of the washing (on his clothes).” Agreed upon.

31. In another version narrated by Muslim she said: “I used to rub it (the semen) off the garment of the Prophet ﷺ, and then he would pray in it.”

32. In another version narrated also by Muslim, she said: “I used to scrape it with my nail from his garment, when it had dried.”
33. Narrated Abī as-Samh (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “The urine of a baby girl should be washed off (one’s clothes), while the urine of a baby boy needs only water to be sprinkled over it.” Related by Abū Dawūd and an-Nasā’ī; al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

27- This refers only to a male baby that has not yet begun to eat. If he eats food (besides breast milk) then the garment is to be washed.

34. Narrated Asmā’ bint Abī Bakr (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said concerning menstrual blood, “She should scrape it, rub it with water and sprinkle water over it, and then pray in it.” Agreed upon.

35. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): Khawlah asked, “Allāh’s Messenger, what if the blood of menses does not (completely) disappear?” He replied, “Water would be sufficient (to wash it) and there is no harm if a trace (of the blood) remains (on the clothes).” Related by at-Tirmidhī, with a weak chain of narrators.

37. Narrated Humrān Ibn Ibbān (RAA): ‘Uthmān (RAA) called for Wudū’ (water to perform ablution). He then washed his hands three times, rinsed his mouth and sniffed water up his nostrils and blew it out. Then he washed his face three times, followed by his right arm up to (and including) the elbow three times, then his left arm up to (and including) the elbow three times. He then wiped his head (with wet hands), and washed his right foot up to (and including) the anklebones three times and then his left foot in the same way. ‘Uthmān then said, “I saw the Prophet ﷺ make wudū’ (ablution) like this way of mine.” Agreed upon.

38. Narrated ‘Alī (RAA): regarding the ablution of the Prophet ﷺ, “He wiped his head once.” Related by Abū DAWŪD. at-

28. The Siwāk (or the Miswāk) is a root taken from a small tree or a shrub called “al-Arāk”.

Tirmidhi and an-Nasâ’î also reported it with a sound chain of narrators.

30- The purpose here is to wipe the entrance of the ear canal with the little finger.

31- In another narration by Ahmad, the Prophet ﷺ wiped the inner part of his ears with his index finger, and the outer portion with his thumb.
42. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “When one of you wakes up from sleep he must clear his nose three times, as the devil spends the night in the upper part of his nose.” Agreed upon.

43. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Whoever wakes up from his sleep, should not dip his hand into a bowl (containing water for ablution) until he has washed it three times, as he does not know where his hand was (during his sleep).” Related by al-Bukhārī and Muslim, and the wording is Muslim’s.

44. Narrated Laqīṭ bin Sabirah (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Complete and perfect the ablution, let the water run between the fingers. Use water freely while sniffing it up your nostrils, unless you are fasting.” Related by the four Imāms. Ibn Khuzaimah graded it as authentic.

46. Narrated ʿUthmān (RAA): the Messenger of Allāh سُلَيْمُهُ ﷺ would run his fingers through his beard, while making ablution. Related by at-Tirmidhī. Ibn Khuzaimah graded it as Sahīh.

48. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin Zaid (RAA): he saw the Prophet ﷺ (performing ablution and he) took new water for his ears, apart from that which he had taken for his head. Related by al-Baihaqī. Muslim reported it with the words: “and he wiped his head with water other than that left over after washing his hands (i.e. new water).”35

34. A measure of approximately 2/3 of a kilo.
35. It is permissible to wash the ears with the water used for the head, or to use new water for them. This is deduced from all the relevant Ahādīth, which were reported concerning this issue.
49. Narrated Abu Hurairah (RAA): The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “My nation will come on the Day of Resurrection with bright streaks of light on their foreheads, arms and legs due to the traces of ablution. So, if any of you can lengthen his streaks of light, he should do so.” Related by al-Bukhari and Muslim and the wording is Muslim’s.

50. Narrated ‘A’ishah (RAA): “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ loved to begin with his right side while putting on his sandals, combing his hair, purifying himself, and in all his affairs.” Agreed upon.

52. Narrated al-Mughirah Ibn Shubah (RAA): the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made ablution and wiped over his forelock, his turban and his socks. Related by Muslim.

36. This is due to washing more than what is obligatory of the face, arms and legs by washing above the elbows and ankles.

54. Narrated Jâbir Ibn ‘Abdullah (RAA): "Whenever the Prophet ﷺ performed ablution, he used to let the flow water abundantly over his elbows." Related by ad-Daraqutnî with a weak chain of narrators.

56. At-Tirmidhî reported a similar narration on the authority of Sa’îd Ibn Zaid, and Abû Sa’îd, but Ahmad said that it is not authentic.

57. Narrated Talhah bin Muṣrîf through his father, on the authority of his grandfather37 (RAA): “I saw the Messenger of Allah distinguish between rinsing his mouth and sniffing water up his nose (i.e. doing one after the other).” Related by Abū Dawūd with a weak chain of narrators.

58. Narrated 'Ali (RAA): regarding the ablution of the Prophet ﷺ, “He rinsed his mouth and sniffed water up his nostrils and blew it out three times, rinsing his mouth and clearing the nose with the very same palm by which he had taken water.” Related by Abū Dawūd and an-Nasa’i.

59. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin Zaid (RAA): regarding ablution, “Then he inserted his hand (into the bowl), rinsed his mouth and sniffed water up his nostrils using one handful of water, doing this three times.” Agreed upon.

60. Narrated Anas (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saw a man. There was a spot, much as the size of a nail on his foot, which had been touched by the water (of ablution). The Prophet ﷺ then said to him: “Go back and perform ablution properly.” Related by Abū Dawūd and an-Nasa’i.

61. Narrated Anas (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to perform ablution with a Mudd, and perform Ghusl with a Sā'.

Agreed upon.

62. Narrated 'Umar (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “If anyone performs ablution, perfectly, then says, ‘I testify that none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh, the One Who has no partner, and I testify that Muhammad is His servant and His Messenger,’ the eight gates of Paradise will be opened for him and he may enter by whichever of them he wishes.” Reported by Muslim and at-Tirmidhi.

Chapter V: Wiping over the Socks (Khuff)39

63. Al-Mughirah bin Shu'bah (RAA) said: “I was with the Prophet ﷺ (during an expedition). He started to perform ablution and I was about to remove his socks (the khuff), when he said,

38. One Sā’ = 4 Mudds, i.e. approximately 3 kg.
39. The "Khuff" is leather foot-wear, which covers the ankles. They used to walk in it, with nothing worn on top of it. They also used to pray in this khuff after rubbing it in the earth (as will be mentioned in the chapter about prayer) “Leave them, for I put them on while I was in a state of purity,” and he wiped over them.” Agreed upon.

64. The four Imams, excluding an-Nasā’i, reported on the authority of al-Mughirah bin Shu‘bah (RAA), that the Prophet wiped over the top and the bottom of his socks. There is a weakness in this chain of narrators.

65. ‘Ali (RAA) observed, “If religion was based on opinion, the bottom of the socks would take preference for being wiped to the top of the socks (khuff), but I saw Allah’s Messenger wiping over the top of his socks.” Related by Abū Dawūd with a good (Hasan) chain of narrators.

66. Narrated Safwān bin ‘Assāl: ‘The Messenger of Allah used to command us, when we were travelling, not to take off our socks for three days and nights. We did not remove them unless we were in a state of post-sex impurity (Janābah). We did not remove them on account of relieving ourselves (defecation), passing urine or sleeping." Related by an-Nasâ’î and at-Tirmidhî, and the wording is his.\(^{42}\)

67. Narrated 'Alî (RAA): The Messenger of Allah ﷺ had appointed three days and nights for the traveler, and one day and one night for the resident — i.e. as the period set for the duration of wiping over the khuff'. Related by Muslim.

68. Narrated Thawbân (RAA): Allah's Messenger ﷺ sent out an expedition. He ordered them to wipe over their turbans and their socks (Khuff). Related by Ahmad and Abû Dawûd and pronounced authentic by al-Hâkim.

69. Narrated 'Umar (RAA): (in a Hadith Mawqûf)\(^{43}\), and An-\(\text{as (Hadith Marfû')}\(^{44}\), "When any of you performs ablution and puts his socks or khuff on, he may wipe over them, offer prayer while wearing them and not take them off, if he so wishes, except in the case of (Janābah).” Related by ad-Dārquṭnī and al-Ḥākim graded it as Sahīh.

\(^{43}\) Hadith Mawqûf is that which the companion does not connect to the Prophet ﷺ, so the narration is restricted to the companion alone.

70. Narrated Abū Bakrah (RAA): That the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ gave permission for the traveler to wipe over the khuff for three days and nights, and for one day and one night for the resident, as long as he was in a state of purity when he put them on.’ Related by ad-Dārquṭnī and Ibn Khuzaimah graded it as Sahīh.

71. Narrated Abū bin Imārah (RAA): that he asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, ‘O Messenger of Allāh, may we wipe over our socks (khuff)?’ He replied, “Yes.” He asked, ‘For one day?’ He replied ﷺ, “Yes.” He again asked, ‘For two days?’ He replied, ‘Yes.’ He again asked, ‘For three days?’ He replied, “Yes and as long as you wish.” Abū Dawūd narrated it saying that it is not a strong Hadith.

Chapter VI: Nullification of Ablution

72. Narrated Anās Ibn Mālik (RAA): ‘The companions of the Prophet in his lifetime, used to wait for the Ishâ (night) prayer until their heads began to nod (from drowsiness). They would then pray without performing ablution. Related by Abû Dawûd. Ad-Dârûqûtûnî authenticated it and its original narration is found in Sahîh Muslim.

73. Narrated 'A'ishah (RAA): Fâtimah bint Abî Hubaish came to the Messenger of Allah and said, “I am a woman who has a prolonged flow of blood (Istihâdah), and I am never purified from this blood, shall I abandon prayer? He replied, 'No, that is only a vein and not menstrual blood. If it is your menstruation, then leave the prayer, and if it is other than that then wash yourself from the blood, and pray.' Agreed upon.

45- I.e. They would not repeat ablution, due to dozing off, as they were firmly seated on the floor.
46- The narration of Muslim is, "(The people) stood up for the Ishâ, when a man came saying: I am in need of something. The Prophet started to speak with him privately, in a low voice till people dozed off, or some of them (dozed off), and then they got up for prayer." In the narration of al-BAIHAQI, "They had to be woken up for prayer, as they had slept, to the extent that one could hear some of them snoring." In the narration of AT-TIRMIDHI, "I saw the companions of the Prophet sleeping to the extent that one could hear some of them snoring. But they would stand for prayer without a new ablution."
47- I.e. The blood never stops flowing.
48- In another narration by Abû Dawûd, an-Nasâ'i and Ibn Hibbân, the Prophet said to her, "If it is the blood of menstruation it will be dark (almost black) and recognizable (by women). If it is that then leave the prayer. If it is other than that, then make ablution and pray, for it is only due to a vein."
74. In another narration by al-Bukhārī, the Prophet ﷺ said to her, “Make ablution for every prayer.”

75. ‘Ali bin Abi Ṭālib (RAA) said: ‘I used to pass madūd, so I asked al-Miqdād to ask the Prophet ﷺ about it. He asked him, then he replied, “One must perform ablution (due to its excretion).” Related by al-Bukhārī and Muslim and the wordings are al-Bukhārī’s.

76. Narrated A’ishah (RAA): “The Messenger of Allah kissed one of his wives, and then went out to prayer without performing ablution.” Ahmad related it, but al-Bukhārī reported it to be a weak Hadith.

77. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If one of you felt some disturbance in his stomach and was not certain if he had released any wind or not, he should not leave the mosque unless he hears a sound or smells something.” Related by Muslim.

49. A white sticky fluid that flows from the sexual organs because of thinking about sexual intercourse or foreplay, etc.
78. Narrated Talq bin ‘Ali (RAA): “A man said, ‘I touched my penis,’ or the narrator said: ‘If a man touches his penis during the prayer, does he have to perform ablution (in this case)?’ The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘No, for it is just a part of you.’” Reported by the five Imâms and Ibn Hibbân who graded it as Sahih.

79. Busrah bint Safwan (RAA) said: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Whoever touches his penis must perform ablution.” Related by the five Imâms and was it declared authentic by at-Tirmidhi and Ibn Hibbân. Al-Bukhari said: It is the most authentic tradition on this topic.

50. Ahmad, Abû Dawûd, at-Tirmidhi, an-Nasâ‘i and Ibn Mâjah.

51. The consensus of the scholars is that touching the private parts without a barrier (clothes etc.) requires performing ablution. The Hanafi school is of the opinion that it does not require ablution according to the Hadith of Talq. But the Hadith of Busrah is stronger as it was authenticated by many Imâms and was narrated through different chains of narrators. So the opinion of the majority of scholars is the preferred one, as they said that the Hadith of Busrah was narrated later than the first one in Madinah and is known by a greater number of the Companions. The touching which nullifies ablution is that which is done with the palm of the hand or with the fingers, not that which is done with a nail, the back of a hand or an arm.
80. Narrated 'A'ishah (RAA): Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "If anyone suffers from vomiting, nose bleeding, regurgitation or madhi (during the prayer) he must perform ablution, then resume his prayer, (provided) that he did not talk (in the interval between leaving the prayer and resuming it.)” Related by Ibn Mājah, but Ahmad and others declared it to be a weak Hadith.

81. Narrated Jābir bin Saumrah (RAA): “A man asked the Prophet ﷺ, ‘Should we perform ablution after eating mutton?’ He said, ‘If you wish (make ablution).’ The man then asked ‘Should we make ablution after eating camel meat?’ He said, ‘Yes.’” Related by Muslim.

82. Narrated Abu Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, “Anyone who washed a dead person (made ghusl for him) must bathe himself, and he who carries him must perform ablution.” Related by Ahmad, an-Nasā’ī and at-Tirmidhī, but 52- This Hadith is not actually connected to the Prophet ﷺ, but was narrated on the authority of Ibn Juraij on the authority of his father (one of the Successors Ṭābi‘ī). Therefore the scholars said that it is Hadith nursal (that in which the link between the Successor Ṭābi‘ī and the Prophet ﷺ is missing), and that it is a mistake to link the chain to 'A'ishah (RAA) as she did not narrate it. The scholars are of the opinion that in this case he should re-perform his Wudū’ and repeat his prayer.

Ahmad said that none of the traditions related in this topic are authentic.\textsuperscript{53}

83. Narrated `Abdullāh bin Abū Bakr (RAA): In the letter which was written by Allāh’s Messenger to `Amro bin Ḥazm, “None should touch the Qur’ān except one who is (ritually) pure (i.e. Tāhir).” Narrated by Mālik as a Hadith mursal.

84. Narrated `Ā’ishah (RAA): Allāh’s Messenger used to mention Allāh’s Name and (make dhikr) under all circumstances. Related by Muslim.

85. Narrated Anas Ibn Mālik (RAA): Allāh’s Messenger had himself cupped and then prayed without (renewing) his ablution. Narrated by ad-Dārqūṭnī, who declared it to be weak.

86. Narrated Mu’āwiyah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “The eye is the leather strap of the anus, and when the eyes sleep the leather strap is loosened.” Related by Ahmad and at-Tabarānī.

\textsuperscript{53} The consensus of the scholars is that washing a dead person, does not require ablution as the Ahādīth mentioned here are weak.
87. He added (i.e. at-Tabarānī), "So whoever sleeps should perform ablution." This addition was declared weak by Abū Dawūd on the authority of 'Āli, but without his saying, "The leather strap is loosened." The chain of narrators for both this Hadith and the previous one, is weak.

88. Abū Dawūd transmitted on the authority of Ibn `Abbās (RAA): "Ablution is obligatory for the one who sleeps lying down." This Hadith also has a weak chain of narrators.

89. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās (RAA): Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, "The devil comes to one of you while he is praying, and blows in his posterior, so he doubts that he has broken his ablution (due to releasing wind) but actually he has not. So if anyone experiences this feeling, he should not leave his prayer unless he hears a sound or smells something." Related by al-Bazzār.

90. The previous Hadith is supported by a narration originally mentioned in al-Bukhārī and Muslim on the authority of 'Abdullāh Ibn Zaid.54

54. Narrated 'Abbūd Ibn Tamīm: "My uncle ('Abdullāh Ibn Zaid) asked Allāh's Messenger ﷺ about a person who imagined that he had passed
91. Muslim transmitted something to the same effect on the authority of Abū Hurairah (Hadith no. 77).

92. Al-Hākim transmitted on the authority of Aba Saʿīd al-Khudri (RAA): that the Messenger of Allah  said, "If the devil whispered to any one of you and said: You have broken your ablution (you have passed wind), you must say: You told a lie." Ibn Hibbān related the Hadith with the wordings, "He must say to himself: This is a lie."

Chapter VII: Etiquettes of Relieving oneself (going to the bathroom)

93. Narrated Anas Ibn Malik (RAA): "When Allah's Messenger  went to the privy, he used to take off his ring. He should not leave his prayer unless he hears a sound or smells something." 55 It was narrated by Hammām Ibn Juraij on the authority of Az-Zuhārī on the authority of Anas, and its chain of narrators is trustworthy, but Ibn Juraij did not actually hear this Hadith from az-Zuhārī, but heard it from Zaid bin Sa’d who heard it from az-Zuhārī. 56
94. Narrated Anas Ibn Mālik (RAA): “Whenever Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ entered the privy, he used to say, “O Allāh, I seek refuge in You from male and female devils.” Related by the seven Imāms.⁵⁷

95. Narrated Anas Ibn Mālik (RAA): “Whenever Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ entered the privy, I along with another boy used to bring him a tumbler full of water and a spear-headed stick. He would cleanse himself with water.” Agreed upon.

96. Narrated al-Mughirah Ibn Shu’bah (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to me, “Take the tumbler of water away.” He went off where I could not see him, and he would then relieve himself.” Agreed upon.

97. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, “Beware of the two acts which cause others to curse: relieving yourself in the people’s walkways or in their shade.” Related by Muslim.

⁵⁷- Ahmad, al-Bukhārī, Muslim, Abū Dawūd, at-Tirmidhī, an-Nasa’ī and Ibn Mājah.
98. Abu Dawud added to the above narration, on the authority of Mu’adh (RAA), “And the waterways.” Its wordings are: “Beware of the three acts which cause others to curse: relieving oneself in the waterways, in the middle of the road and in the places of shade.”

99. Ahmad transmitted on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbas, “Or in a swamp of water.” Both this narration and the previous one are declared as weak.

104. The seven Imāms reported on the authority of Abū Aiyūb al-Ansārī (RAA): “When one of you relieves himself, he should neither face the Qiblah nor turn his back on it, but turn towards the East or the West.”

Ahmad and ad-Dârquṭnî added, “Bring me another one (instead of the dung).”

60. It is a recommended act in this case.
127. The four Imāms reported on the authority of ‘A‘īshah (RAA): who said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to sleep while he is junub without touching water.” This Hadith has a defect.

128. Narrated ‘A‘īshah (RAA): ‘When the Messenger of Allāh performed Ghusl after sexual intercourse, he first washed his hands, then he poured water over his left hand with his right hand and washed his private parts. He would then perform ablution for prayer, take some water and wash his hair thoroughly down to the roots then he poured water over his head three times and then poured water over the rest of his body, then washed his feet.” Agreed upon, and the wording is Muslim’s.

129. Al-Bukhārī and Muslim transmitted on the authority of Maimūnāh (RAA): ‘Then he poured water over his private parts and washed it with his left hand, then rubbed his hand on the ground.’

Therefore anyone of my followers can pray (anywhere) and at any time that the prayer is due."

137. In another narration by Hûdâiffah (RAA): "And the soil of the earth had been made for us as a means with which to

139. Narrated `Ammâr bin Yâsir (RAA): The Messenger of Allah sent me on some errands and I became junub (sexually impure), and could not find water. 140. In a version by al-Bukhârî `Ammâr said, ‘He struck the earth with the palms of his hands, blew in them and wiped his face and hands with them.’

141. Narrated Ibn `Umar (RAA): Allâh’s Messenger said,
"Tayammum is two strikes: one for the face and the other for the hands up to the elbows." Related by ad-Dāraquṭnī.

143. Narrated Abū Dharr (RAA): a similar Hadith transmitted by at-Tirmidhī.

144. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd al-Khudrī (RAA): ‘Two men went out on a journey, and when it was time for prayer, and having no water with them, they performed tayammum and prayed. Then they found some water during the time of the same prayer. One of them repeated his prayer with ablution and the other did not. When they saw the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, they asked him about the proper procedure in such a case. He said to the one who did not repeat his prayer, ‘You have acted according to the Sunnah and your prayer is sufficient for you.’ He said to the other, ‘You will get a double reward.’ Related by Abū Dawūd and an-Nasā’ī.

145. Narrated Ibn `Abbās (RAA): concerning the verse, “And if you are ill or on a journey,” (an-Nisā: 43) he said, ‘If a man has a wound, which he suffered during Jihād (in the cause of Allāh) or ulcers, then he became junub (sexually impure) and is afraid that if he bathes he would die; he may perform ablution with clean earth (Tayammum). tayammum and wrap it with something and wipe over the wrapping and wash the rest of his body.” Related by Abū Dawūd, but there is a weakness in its chain of narrators.

148. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās (RAA): ‘It is from the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ for the man to pray only one prayer with each tayammum, and then perform tayammum for the next prayer.’ Related by ad-Dāraquṭnī but with a very weak chain of narrators.

Chapter X: Menstruation

149. Narrated A'īshah (RAA): Tatmah bint Abi Hubaish used to have a prolonged flow of blood (Istihādah), so the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “If it is the blood of menstruation it will be dark (almost black) and recognizable (by women). If it is that then leave the prayer. If it is other than that, then make ablution and pray.” Related by Abū Dawūd, an-Nasa’ī and Ibn Hibbân and al-Hâkim graded it as Sahih.
mitted, 'She should sit in a tub, and if she sees yellowness appearing (on top of the water) she should wash (three times), once for the noon (Dhuhr) and afternoon ('Asr) prayer and once for the sunset (Maghrib) and late night (Ishâ') prayer and once for the dawn (Fajr) prayer and she should then perform ablution in between those times."

151. Narrated Hamnah bint Jahsh, 'I had a very strong prolonged flow of blood. I went to the Prophet to ask him about it. He said to her, "This is a strike from Satan. So observe your menses for six or seven days, and then perform Ghusl until you see that you are clean. Pray for twenty-four or twenty-three nights and days and fast, and that will be sufficient for you. Do that every month as the other women become pure and menstruate. But if you are strong enough to delay the Dhuhr (noon) prayer and hasten the 'Asr (afternoon) prayer, then make Ghusl when you are purified and pray the Dhuhr and 'Asr prayers together; to delay the Maghrib (sunset) and hasten the Ishâ' prayer, and perform Ghusl and combine the Maghrib and the Ishâ' prayer together. Do so, and then wash at dawn and pray the Fajr. This is how you may pray and fast if you have the ability to do so. And he said, "That is the more preferable way to me." Related by the five Imâms except an-Nasâ'i, and was authenticated by at-Tirmidhî.
152. Narrated 'A'ishah (RAA): 'Um Habibah bint Jahsh complained to the Prophet about a prolonged flow of blood. He said to her, "Keep away (from prayer) as long as your normal period used to prevent you (from praying), and afterwards she should perform Ghusl (and pray)." (She used to wash for every prayer). Related by Muslim.

153. In another version by al-Bukhari he said, "And perform ablution for every prayer." Abû Dawûd and others transmitted a similar narration.

154. Narrated Umm 'Atiyah (RAA): 'After we were pure, we did not consider the yellow or muddy discharge to be anything (i.e. of the menses blood)." Related by al-Bukhari and Abû Dawûd and the wording is his.

155. Narrated Anas (RAA): 'When a Jewish woman was menstruating, they would not eat with her. The Prophet then said, "Do everything except sexual intercourse." Related by Muslim.
156. Narrated 'A'ishah (RAA): "When I was menstruating, the Prophet ﷺ would order me to wrap myself up (with an Izâr, which is a dress worn below the waist) and would start fondling me."
Agreed upon.

157. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas (RAA): that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, concerning the man who has intercourse with his wife during her menses, "He must pay a Dinár or half a Dinár in way of charity." Related by the five Imâms, and al-Hâkim authenticated it.

158. Narrated Abu Sa'id al-Khudri (RAA): Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, "Is it not the case that when a woman menstruates she neither prays nor fasts?" Agreed upon, and this is an extract from a long Hadith.

159. Narrated 'Âishah (RAA): When we reached Sarif, I menstruated. The Prophet ﷺ said, "You should perform all that a pilgrim would do, except circumambulation until you are..."
pure (i.e. performed Ghusl).” Agreed upon, and this is an extract from a long Hadith.

160. Narrated Mu’adh Ibn Jabal (RAA): that he asked the Prophet ﷺ, “What is lawful for a man with his wife when she is menstruating? He replied, “What is above the waist wrapper.” Related by Abû Dawûd and declared it to be a weak Hadith.

161. Narrated Umm Salamah (RAA): ‘During the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ, the post-childbirth woman would refrain (from prayer) for forty days after delivery.’ Related by the five Imâms except an-Nasâ’î, and the wording is Abû Dawûd’s.

162. In a version by Abû Dawûd, the Prophet ﷺ would not command her to compensate for the prayers missed during her post-childbirth period.
Chapter I: The times of prayer

163. Narrated `Abdullah Ibn `Amro (RAA): The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “The time of the Dhuhr prayer is when the sun passes the meridian and a man’s shadow is the same length as his height. It lasts until the time of the `Asr (afternoon) prayer. The time of the `Asr prayer is until the yellowing of the sun (during its setting). The time of the Maghrib prayer is the duration of the twilight. The time of the Ishâ’ prayer is up to the middle of the night, and the time of the Fajr prayer is from the appearance of the dawn until the time of sunrise.” Related by Muslim.

63. This is the chosen time or the preferable time for the Ishâ’ prayer, but it is permissible to pray it for the one who missed it—until the time of the next prayer, i.e. the Fajr prayer in this case. The evidence for this is the Hadith reported on the authority of Abû Qatâdah that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Missing the prayer due to sleep is not an act of negligence, the real act of negligence occurs when one (is awake and) does not pray until the time of the next prayer is due.” Part of a long Hadith related by Muslim.
164. Muslim transmitted on the authority of Buraidah—concerning the time of the ‘Asr (afternoon) prayer, ‘While the sun was white and clear.”

165. Muslim transmitted on the authority of Abū Mūsā: concerning the Asr (afternoon) prayer, “When the sun was high.”

166. Narrated Abū Barzah (RAA): The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to pray the ‘Asr prayer at a time, after which a man could go to his dwelling in the outskirts of Madīnah (and arrive) while the sun was still hot and bright. The Prophet ﷺ liked to delay the ‘Ishā’ prayer, and he disliked sleeping before it and talking after it. The Prophet ﷺ used to leave (the mosque, or turn to those praying behind him) after Fajr prayer, when a man could recognize the person sitting beside him (i.e. because the morning light had broken), and he used to recite between 60 to 100 verses.’ Agreed upon.

167. Al-Bukhārī and Muslim transmitted on the authority of Jābīr (RAA): ‘Sometimes he would hasten⁶⁴ the ‘Ishā’ and some-

⁶⁴ I.e. pray it earlier, at the beginning of the time of ‘Ishā’ times he would delay it. He would hasten the 'Ishā' if he found people gathered (in the mosque), and if he noticed that they were lingering he would delay it. As for the Fajr prayer, the Prophet would pray it while it was still dark.”

168. Muslim transmitted on the authority of Abū Mūsā: 'The Prophet ordered for the Iqāmah (the call for the performance of the prayer) of the Fajr prayer to be pronounced, when the day broke and people could hardly recognize each another.'

169. Narrated Rāfi' bin Khādij (RA): 'We prayed the Maghrib prayer with the Messenger of Allah, and one of us would leave (afterwards) and would still be able to see where he had shot his arrow (because there was still light in the sky).

170. Narrated 'A'ishah (RA): 'One night, Allah's Messenger delayed the 'Ishā' prayer, till a good part of the night had gone (almost one third), then he came out and prayed and said, "This would be the proper time for it, if it was not too much of a hardship on my nation." Related by Muslim.

65- This is the chosen time and the best for it.
66- I.e. I would have delayed it until that time.
171. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "If the heat becomes extreme, delay the prayer (i.e. Dhuhr) until it becomes cool, as extreme heat is from the fragrance of Hell." Agreed upon.

172. Narrated Rāfī’ bin Khadij (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "Observe the morning prayer till daybreak (i.e. prolong the recital of Qur'ān in prayer, so that you remain in prayer until daybreak), as your reward will be greater." Related by the five Imāms.

173. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever catches one rak‘ah of the Fajr prayer before sunrise, he has caught the Fajr prayer, and whoever catches one rak‘ah of the ‘Asr prayer before sunset, he has caught the ‘Asr prayer." Agreed upon.

174. Muslim transmitted on the authority of ‘Ā’ishah (RAA): a similar narration where the Prophet ﷺ said, "One prostration" instead of "rak‘ah" and then said, ‘a prostration means a rak‘ah.’
175. Narrated Abū Sa`īd al-Khudrī (RAA): ‘I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say, “There is no prayer after the Fajr prayer until the sun rises and there is no prayer after the `Asr prayer until the sun sets.” Agreed upon. Muslim reported in his narration, “No prayer is to be performed after the Fajr prayer.”

176. Narrated ‘Uqbah bin ‘Amir: “There are three times during which the Prophet ﷺ prohibited us from praying or burying our deceased: from sunrise until the sun has risen (a spear’s length above the horizon), when the sun is at its meridian, and when the sun is setting until it has completely set.” Related by Muslim.

177. Ash-Shāfi‘ī transmitted the second case (prohibition of prayer when the sun is at its meridian), in a narration by Abū Hurairah, but through a weak chain of narrators. He added, ‘with the exception of Friday.”

178. Abū Dawūd transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Abū Qatādah.
179. Narrated Jubair bin Mut‘im (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "O tribe of ‘Abd Manaf, do not prevent anyone from circumambulating this house (the Ka‘bah) or from praying therein at any time they wish." Related by the five Imams. At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Hibban graded it as Sahih.

180. Narrated Ibn Umar (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "The evening twilight is its redness (on the horizon)." Related by ad-Dārquṭnī and declared authentic by Ibn Khuzaimah.

181. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "The dawn time, is in reality, two dawns (i.e. two times), one in which eating is Harām (unlawful) and prayer is permissible, and the other is when prayer (i.e. the Fajr prayer) is Harām (prohibited) and eating is permissible." Related by Ibn Khuzaimah and al-Hākim and graded it as Sahih.

67- i.e. for the person intending to fast, that he should stop eating.
68- i.e. The time for praying Fajr is due.
182. Al-Hākim transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Jābir, and added that in which eating is prohibited, 'It (the streaks of light of the true dawn) widely spreads on the horizon,' and the other, 'It is like the wolf's tail.'

184. Narrated Abū Mādhūrah (RAA): The Prophet ﷺ said, "Praying at the earliest time for prayer (after the Adhān) is the act, which pleases Allāh, if you pray at the middle time you will be granted Allāh's mercy, and if you pray at the latest time (just before the next prayer) Allāh will grant you His forgiveness." Related by ad-Dārquṭnī with an extremely weak chain of narrators.

185. At-Tirmidhi transmitted on the authority of Ibn 'Umar a similar narration, but without the middle time, and it is also a

69. i.e. the light that spreads vertically up into the sky, and is followed by darkness, because it is not really the dawn light. Between both dawns, there is almost an hour's time.
186. Narrated Ibn `Umar (RAA): The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, 'No prayer is to be said after (the beginning of) Fajr (time), except two prostrations (rak'at). 71" Related by the five Imâms. In the narration of `Abdur-Razzâq, "No prayer is to be said after the true dawn has begun, except the two rak'at of al-Fajr prayer."

187. Ad-Dârquqî transmitted a similar narration on the authority of `Amro bin al-Âq (RAA).

188. Narrated Umm Salamah (RAA): 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ prayed the `Asr prayer, and then came into my house, and prayed two rak'ât. Thereupon I asked him (about what he had just prayed), and he replied, "I was busy (doing something) to pray the two rak'ât after Dhuhur (until it was `Asr time) so I prayed them now." Then I asked him, 'Shall we observe them if we missed them (at their due time)? He replied, 'No.' Related by Ahmad.

70- As they are both narrated by Ya`qûb bin al-Walîd al-Madâni, Imam Ahmad reported him to be one of the big liars in Hadîth, and Ibn Hibbân said that he used to fabricate Hadîth.

71- The two rak'ah here refer to voluntary prayer to be prayed at dawn time, i.e. before the Fajr prayer.
189. Abu Dawud transmitted on the authority of 'A'ishah (RAA) a narration to the same effect.

Chapter II: The Call to Prayer (Adhān)

190. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin Zaid bin 'Abd Rabbih, 'While I was sleeping, a man came to me and said, 'Say Allāhu Akbar! Allāhu Akbar! (Allāh is the Greatest),' and he mentioned the wording of the call to prayer, repeating the Takbīr four times without Tārijī (repeating the rest of the phrases of the Adhān twice), and the Iqāmah once,72 except for the phrase, qad Qāmatussalāh73 (which is said twice). When the morning came, I went to the Messenger of Allāh (to tell him what I had seen). He said, "Your dream is true..." Related by Ahmad and Abu Dawud, At-Tirmidhi and Abu Khuzaimah authenticated it74.

72- i.e. saying each phrase of the Adhān once, apart from the Takbīr which is said twice.
73- The time for performing the prayer has arrived.
74- When the Prophet migrated to Madinah and built his mosque, the number of Muslims increased, and they were no longer afraid to assemble to perform prayers in public. The Prophet consulted his Companions about the best way to announce the prayer. Some mentioned raising a banner that everybody could see, others suggested lighting a fire, but the Prophet rejected the idea as this act is limited to the Magians who worshipped fire. Some also suggested using a bell or a trumpet like the Christians and the Jews, but this was also rejected by the Prophet as they would be imitating them. But the Messenger of Allāh ἦ
191. Ahmad added to the call to prayer (Adhân), what Bilâl used to say in the Fajr prayer, "Prayer is better than sleep."

192. Ibn Khuzaimah transmitted on the authority of Anas (RAA): 'It is part of the Sunnah that when the one who calls to prayer says in the Fajr prayer, Ḥayya ʾal-Falah (come to success), he must then say, 'Prayer is better than sleep.'

193. Narrated Abû Mahdhûrah (RAA): that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ taught him the Adhân, and he mentioned Tarjî’ (repeating the rest of the phrases of the Adhân twice) in the Adhân. Related by Muslim, but he mentioned the Takbîr “Allâh is the Greatest,” twice only at its beginning, while the five Imâms related the Hadîth but mentioned that the Takbîr is said four times at the beginning.

194. Narrated Anas (RAA): ‘Bîlâl was ordered to repeat the phrases of the call to prayer (Adîhan) twice, and the phrases of the Iqâmah once, except for the phrase ‘qad Qâmatussalâh’ (the time for performing the prayer has come). Agreed upon.

195. In another narration by an-Nasâ’î, ‘The Prophet ordered Bîlâl.’

196. Narrated Abu Juhaifah (RAA), ‘I saw Bîlâl calling for the prayer, and I saw the movement of his mouth from this side to that side,75 and his fingers were in his ears.’ Related by Ahmad and At-Tirmidhî.

197. In a version by Ibn Mâjah he said, ‘He put his fingers in his ears.’

This Hadith is a proof that what is required is to face the direction of the Qiblah -i.e. the Ka'bah- and not the actual building or structure, for those who find it difficult to determine its actual position. But this Hadith refers to the people of Madinah and whoever has a position similar to them (i.e. those in Syria, the Arabian Peninsula and Iraq). If he still can’t, then it is permissible for him to say Tāsībīh, Takbīr and Tahlīl.
285. Narrated Abu Humaid as-Sa’idi, ‘I saw the Messenger of Allah (in his prayer), when he says the opening Takbîr (of the prayer) he would raise his hands up to his shoulder level. When he lifted his head (from rukû) he would straighten his back until all the vertebrate took their normal positions. When he prostrated, he placed both his hands on the ground and his fingers would neither be spread nor clasped together, while his toes would be directed toward the Qiblah. When he sat in the second rak‘ah (after two rak‘ât) he sat on his left foot and kept his right foot upright. When he sat in the last rak‘ah, he would put his left foot (over the right) and put his right foot upright (over the left) and sit upon his posterior, neither inclining to the right or the left.” Related by al-Bukhârî.

286. Narrated ‘Ali bin Abi Talib (RAA): When Allâh’s Messenger stood up for prayer he said, he would say (as on opening 104- The hands should be placed firmly on the knees.

The back should be straight as A’ishah (RAA) said, “If he bowed his head would be neither risen nor lowered, but rather between the two positions. ‘Ali (RAA) said, “If you put a cup of water on the back of the Prophet, while he was bowing, its contents would not spill.” His head would be neither...
106- He would place his left foot on its side while sitting on it. The right foot would be resting on the bottom of its toes with the heel upright.

O Allāh, You are the Sovereign, there is none worthy of worship but You. You are my Lord and I am Your slave...etc \(^{110}\)" Related by Muslim.

287. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): 'When the Prophet made his opening Takbīr, he would be quiet for a little while before he started his recitation (of the Qur'ān). I asked him, (about what he says between Takbīr and recitation).' He said, "I say: Oh Allāh, make the distance between me and my sins as far as

\(^{109}\) The rest of this supplication says, "and the earth as a true monoth- eist and Muslim, and I am not of those who associate partners with Allāh (polytheists). Verily my prayers, my sacrifice, my life and my death, are dedicated for the sake of Allāh, the Lord of the worlds, Who has no partner. Thus I have been commanded and I am among those who have submitted (the Muslims)."

\(^{110}\) The rest of the supplication says, "Oh Allāh, You are the Sovereign, there is none worthy of worship but You. You are my Lord and I am Your slave. I have done injustice to myself and I admit my sin. Forgive all of my sins, surely no one can forgive sins but You. Guide me to the most perfect of morals (Akhlaqī), for none guides to its perfection but You. Divert the worst of it (evil morals) away from me, as no one can divert the worst of it but You. I am here at Your beck and call (present and ready to obey all Your commands). All good is in Your Hands, and evil is not attributed to You. I am (created) by You, and I am (returning back) unto You. You are the Most Blessed, the Most Exalted. I seek Your forgiveness and unto You I repent." Related by Muslim, Ahmad, at-Tirmidhi and others.
You have made the distance between the East from the West. Oh Allâh, purify me from my sins as a white garment is cleansed of dirt. Oh Allâh, wash off my sins with snow, rain and hail.” Agreed upon.

288. Narrated ‘Umar (RAA): that he used to say ﷺ, “Glory be to You Oh Allâh and praise. Blessed is Your Name and Exalted is Your majesty. There is none worthy of worship but You.” Related by Muslim with a disconnected chain of narrators. But ad-Dârquqînî related it and connected it to ‘Umar (RAA).

289. The five Imâms reported on the authority of Abû Sa’îd al-Khudrî that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, used to say after the opening Takbir, “I seek refuge in Allâh from Satan. From his prickling (whispering), spittle and puffing.”
Allāh, the Lord of the Worlds, (Allahud lillāhi rabbi l-ʿAlamin). When he bowed (for rukūʾ) his head would be neither risen nor lowered, but would be between those two positions. When he rose his head from rukūʾ, he would not prostrate until he stood up with his back in an erect position. When he lifted his head from prostration, he sat up (for a moment) before prostrating a second time. At the end of each two rakah, he would recite the Tahiyah (Tashahhud)\(^{111}\) and he used to sit on his left foot with his right foot upright. He prohibited us from sitting in the way of the devil\(^{112}\), or that a man stretches his forearms (on the ground in his prostration) like a wild beast. He would then complete his prayer with the Taslim (saying to the right and to the left ‘Peace be upon you and the Mercy of Allāh.” Related by Muslim.

\[^{291}\] Narrated Ibn ‘Umar (RAA): The Messenger of Allāh \(^{\text{b}}\) used to raise his hands to his shoulder level when he started his prayer, when he said Takbir (for making rukūʾ) and also when he lifted his head from rukūʾ.” Agreed upon.

\[^{292}\] In the narration of Abū Humaid, reported by Abū Dawūd, “He raised his hands up to his shoulder level, and then would say Takbir.”

\(^{111}\) Tashahhud means the Testimony of faith (see Hadith no. 334).

\(^{112}\) This way of sitting is called Iq’a’. Imām as-Sanjū’ī in ‘Subul as-Salaām, mentioned two types of Iq’a’: one in which one sits with the buttocks on the heels, and with the top of the toes and knees on the ground (as mentioned above), and this was accepted by some scholars. The second type is where one sits with his buttocks on the ground, with his palms down and his knees drawn up and thighs erect (like the sitting of a dog) which is totally prohibited.
293. Muslim reported on the authority of Malik bin al-Huwairith, a narration similar to that of Ibn ‘Umar, but he said, "...he raised his hands until they (the fingertips) were level with the tops of his ears (i.e. when saying Takbir)."

294. Narrated Wa’il bin Hujr: “I prayed with the Prophet ﷺ and he placed his right hand over his left hand (and placed them) on his chest.” Related by Ibn Khuzaimah.

295. Narrated Ubadah bin as-Samit: ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “No prayer (is accepted) for one who does not recite the Fatihah (the opening chapter of the Qur’an).”’ Agreed upon.

296. In a version by Ibn Hibban and ad-Darqutni, “A prayer in which the Fatihah was not recited, is not valid.”

297. In another narration by ‘Ubâdah Ibn As-Samit, “Maybe you recite (Qur’an) behind your Imam (when you are praying Jamâ’ah)? We said, ‘Yes.’ The Messenger of Allah then said, “Read only the Fatihah, as the prayer of the one who does not read it, is not valid.”
298. Narrated Anas Ibn Malik: "The Messenger of Allah, Abū Bakr and 'Umar, used to start the prayer with, 'Alhamdu lillah Rabil 'Alamin' (All praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds)." Agreed upon.

299. Anas added in the narration reported by Muslim, "but I never heard any of them reciting Bismillahi -ir-Rahman -ir-Rahim (In the name of Allah, the Most Benificient, the Most Merciful) at the beginning of recitation or at its end."

300. Anas also narrated, "They would not recite reciting Bismillahi -ir-Rahman -ir-Rahim (In the name of Allah, the Most Beneficient, the Most the Merciful) loudly." Related by Ahmad, an-Nasâ'i and Ibn Khuzaimah.

301. In another version by Ibn Khuzaimah, Anas said, "They used to recite it silently." This explains the negation in the version of Muslim ‘but I never heard any of them reciting Bismillahi -ir-Rahman -ir-Rahim ..........’ Hadith no. 299.

113- He means they do not say the Basmalah aloud, but read it silently before they read the Fatiḥah, as is mentioned in the following Ahādīth (no. 300, 301).

114- He may be referring to the end of the Fatiḥah, as they would start reading other sūras or verses from the Qur'ān, but again they would not recite the Basmalah aloud.
302. Narrated Nu‘aim al-Mujmir, ‘I prayed behind Abu Hurairah and he recited 'Bismillahi -ir-Rahman -ir-Rahim,' and then he recited the Fātihah until he recited, ‘Nor of those who went astray,’ (i.e. the last words of al-Fātihah) then he said, ‘Amin’. Whenever he prostrated or got up from his sitting (after the two prostrations), he would say ‘Allâhu Akbar.’ When he concluded his prayer by saying the Taslim (saying to the right and to the left ‘Peace be upon you and the Mercy of Allâh’), he would say (to us), ‘By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, my prayer is the most similar to that of the Prophet ﷺ, among all of you.” Related by An-Nasâ‘î and Ibn Khuzaimah.

303. Narrated Abû Hurairah (RAA): ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “When you recite al-Fātihah recite ‘Bismillahi -ir-Rahman -ir-Rahim’ as it is one of its verses.” Related by ad-Dâraquṭnî, and said that it is only traced back to a Companion and not to the Prophet ﷺ.

304. Narrated Abû Hurairah (RAA): ‘Whenever The Messen-

305. Abū Dawūd and At-Tirmidhi related a similar Hadîth on the authority of Wâ’il Ibn Hujr.

306. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin Abî Awfâ (RAA): ‘A man came to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and said, ‘I cannot memorise anything from the Qur'an, so teach me something which is sufficient for me (to say in prayer). The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him, “say, ‘Subhanallâh, wal-hamdu lillâh, wa lâ ilâha illallâh, wa’llâhu akbar, wa lâ hawala wa lâ Quwata illâ billâh ‘Alîyy-il-‘Adheem,’ (Glory be to Allâh, and Praise be to Allâh! There is none worthy of worship but Allâh, Allâh is the Greatest, and there is no power nor might except by Allâh’s leave, the Exalted, the Mighty.” Part of the Hadîth is related by Ahmad, Abû Dawûd, an-Nasâ’î and was rendered authentic by Ibn Hibbân, ad-Dâraquṭnî and al-Hâkim.

307. Narrated Abû Qatâdah (RAA): ‘Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to lead us in prayer, and he would recite al-Fâtihah followed
308. Narrated Abu Sa'id al-Khudri (RAA): 'We used to estimate how long Allah's Messenger ﷺ stood (while reciting verses from the Qur'an after the Fatiha) in the Dhuhr and 'Asr prayers. We estimated that he stood in the first two rak'at of the Dhuhr prayer as long as it takes to recite “Alif Lam Mim. The revelation of the Book (the Qur'an).” (i.e. Sura as-Sajdah, no. 32). He stood half that time in the last two rak'at, of the Dhuhr prayer. In the first two rak'at of the 'Asr prayer, he stood as long as he did in the last two rak'at of the Dhuhr prayer, and in the last two (of the 'Asr prayer), he stood about half that time.' Related by Muslim.

309. Narrated Sulaiman bin Yasar (RAA): ‘A man116 used to prolong the first two rak'at of the Dhuhr prayer, shorten the 'Asr prayer.

prayer and recite short sūras of the mufassal of the Qur'ān in the Maghrib prayer. In the 'Ishā' prayer, he would recite from the medium sūras, and in the Fajr prayer he would read from at-Tiwāl. Abū Hurairah (RAA) then said, 'I have not prayed behind a man whose prayer is more similar to that of the Prophet than that man.' Rendered by an-Nasā'ī with a sound chain of narrators.

310. Narrated Jubair bin Mū'im (RAA): 'I heard the Messenger of Allah reciting Sūrat at-Tīr (no. 52) in the Maghrib prayer.' Agreed upon.

311. Narrated Abu Hurairah (RAA): 'Allāh's Messenger used to recite in the Fajr prayer on Friday, “Alif Lām Mim. The revelation of the Book (the Qur'ān)...” (i.e. Sūrah as-Sajdah, no. 32), and “Has there not been over man a period of time...” (i.e. Sūrah al-Insān, no. 76). Agreed upon.

312. At-Ṭabarānī related on the authority of Ibn Mas‘ūd: 'He used to do this continuously.'

117. The Sūras starting from (according to the strongest opinion) Qāf (no. 50) to the end of the Holy Qur'ān.

118. This includes the mi'in (Sūras of around and over 100 verses), and the mathān (come after the mi'in up to Qāf).

119. The first seven long Sūras in the Qur'ān, and some scholars add Sūras no. 8 and 9 (as there is no Basmalah between al-Anfāl and at-Tawbah). They have been called at-Tiwāl (the long) as they are the longest Sūras in the Qur'ān.
313. Narrated Hudhaifah (RAA): 'I prayed with the Prophet ἀ, whenever he came to a verse that mentioned mercy, he would stop and ask Allah for His blessings, and whenever he came to a verse that mentioned punishment, he would seek refuge in Allah from the Hell-fire." Related by the five Imāms. At-Tirmidhi rendered it Hasan (good).

314. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas (RAA): 'The Messenger of Allah ἀ said, "I was forbidden from reciting the Qurʾān whether in a state of ṭuḥū or in ṭawwāf(prostration). When you perform ṭuḥū, Glorify Allah (say Glory to my Lord the most Great), and in prostration, strive your best in making supplication, as you are then entitled to have your supplication answered (Allah willing). Related by Muslim.

316. Narrated Abū Hurairah (RAA): ‘When Allah’s Messenger got up to pray, he would say the Takbīr while standing, then say the Takbīr when he bowed (for ruku). When he rose from ruku, he would say, “Sami’al Lāhu liman ḥamidah (Allah hears those who send praises to Him)”, and while standing with his back straight (after ruku) he would say, “Rabbanā wa lakah-ḥamad (O Allah, our Lord! All praise is for You).” He would then say the Takbīr when going down to prostration, and when he raised his head, then when he prostrated for the second time he would say the Takbīr one more time when he raised his head from the second prostration. He would do this for all his prayers, in each rak‘ah and he would also say the Takbīr when he got up from his sitting after praying two rak‘at. Agreed upon.

317. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd al-Khudrī (RAA): when ‘Allah’s Messenger raised his head from ruku, he would say, “Our Lord! All praise is Yours. (A praise that) fills the heavens and the earth, and fill what lies between them, and fills whatever else, You wish, to be filled after that. You alone are deserving of praise and majesty. This is the most truthful statement that a servant has ever said, and we are all Your slaves. O Allah, there is no one who may withhold what You give, and there is no one, who may give what You have withheld. No fortune or prosperity (whether it be money, children, power etc) will save or benefit its owner with You (it is only Your mercy and virtue that benefits anyone). Related by Muslim.

318. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas (RAA): ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “I was commanded to prostrate on seven bones (bodily parts): the forehead’—and he pointed to his nose, the nose, hands, knees and the ends of the feet (the toes).’ Agreed upon.

319. Narrated Ibn Buhainah (RAA), ‘Whenever the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to pray, he would keep his arms away from his sides (when he prostrated), so that the whiteness of his armpits was visible.’ Agreed upon.

320. Narrated al-Bara' bin 'Azib (RAA): ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Whenever you prostrate, place the palms of your hands (on the ground), and raise your elbows.” Related by Muslim.

120. Imám al-Qurţbhí said, ‘This shows that the forehead is the main part on which the face prostrates, and the nose is associated with it.’ Ibn Daqiq al-'Abd said, ‘This means that the Prophet ﷺ considered the forehead and the nose as one part, otherwise, the parts of the body on which prostration is performed would have been eight.’ This Hadith is further explained by the narration of an-Nasá'i, Ibn Tawús said, ‘And he put his hand on his forehead and he passed it over his nose and said, “This is one (part).”’
321. Wa’il bin Hujr (RAA) narrated, “Whenever the Messenger of Allah used to bow, he would separate his fingers (with his hands placed on his knees). When he prostrated, he would keep his fingers together.” Related by Al-Hakim.

322. A’ishah (RAA) narrated, “I saw the Messenger of Allah praying while sitting cross-legged.” Related by An-Nasâ’i and Ibn Kh-uzaimah graded it as Sahih.

323. Ibn Abbas (RAA) narrated, “Between the two prostrations, the Messenger of Allah used to say, ‘O Allah, forgive me, have mercy on me, guide me, grant me well-being, and provide for me.’” Related by the four Imams except for An-Nasâ’i, and the wording is from Abû Dawûd. Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahih.

324. Malik bin al-Huwairith (RAA) narrated that he saw the Messenger of Allah praying. If he was praying the odd rak’at (the first or the third), he used to sit for a moment (a quick sitting after the second prostration) before he got up.” Related by Al-Bukhâri.
325. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ stood in humble supplication reciting the Qunût\(^{122}\) for a whole month asking Allâh to punish some of the Arab tribes, and then he stopped (making this supplication).\(^{123}\) Agreed upon.

326. Ahmad and Ad-Daraqutnî related a similar Hadîth (on the authority of Anas) but with a different chain of narrators. The narration says, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ kept on making Qunût during the Fajr prayer until he left this world.'\(^{124}\)

\(^{122}\) Qunût is a special supplication made in certain prayers while standing after raising one's head from bowing. It is usually done in the Wilâr prayer, or in the second rakâ'ah of the Fajr prayer.

\(^{123}\) They are the tribes of Ra'il and Dhakwân. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sent almost 70 of his Companions (who had memorized the Qur'ân), to those tribes to teach them Islâm. There was a peace treaty between them and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, but they killed the seventy men. He was very sad for the loss of his Companions and spent a whole month reciting this supplication. This is proof that it is permissible to make Qunût, reciting the supplication aloud (in any of the five prayers) when Muslims are faced with calamities.

\(^{124}\) What the Messenger ﷺ stopped (as mentioned in the first Hadîth) is his supplication asking Allâh to punish the people who killed his Companions. As for what he kept doing, most scholars are of the opinion that what Anas meant by Qunût in this Hadîth is that the Prophet ﷺ would stand (after raising his head from ruku') for some time making supplication and dhikr (remembering Allâh), in the Fajr prayer, until he died. Anas himself and the four Khulafâ', did not observe this Qunût in the Fajr prayer after the death of the Prophet ﷺ which supports the opinion of the scholars, as they would not abandon something that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ continued doing all his life, so that it becomes part of his Sunnah.
327. Anas (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would not stand for the Qunūt (in prayer) unless he was supplicating for or against certain people.’ Ibn Khuzaimah graded it to be Sahīh.

328. Sa’d bin Tāriq Al-Ashja’ī (RAA) narrated, ‘I said to my father, “Father, you have prayed behind Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, Abū Bakr, ‘Umar, ‘Uthmān and ‘Alī. Did they observe making Qunūt in Fajr prayer?” He said, “No son, it is something that has been innovated (i.e. a Bid’ah).” Related by the five Imāms except for Abū Dawūd.

329. Al-Hasan bin ‘Alī (RAA) narrated, ‘I said to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, “Teach me some words to say when making Qunūt in the Witr prayer. He taught me, “Oh Allāh, guide me with those whom You have guided, and strengthen me with those whom You have given strength. Take me into Your care. Bless me in what You have given me. Protect me from the evil You have ordained. Surely You have commanded and are not commanded, and none whom You have committed to Your care shall be humiliated You are Blessed, Our Lord and Exalted.” Related by the five Imāms. At-Tabarānī and Al-Baihaqi added, “and none whom You have taken as an enemy shall be honored.” An-Nasā’ī added through another chain of narrators, “May the Peace and Blessings of Allāh, the Almighty be upon His Prophet.”

330. Ibn ‘Abbās narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh sūrah used to teach us a supplication to recite in the Qunūt of the Fajr prayer.” Related by Al-Baihaqi, but with a weak chain of narrators.

331. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Prophet sūrah said, “When one of you prostrates, he should not kneel down in his prayer as a camel does (i.e. put his knees down before his hands). He must put his hands first (on the ground) before he puts his knees down.” Related by the three Imāms. It is stronger than the Hadith narrated by Wāʾil Ibn Hujr.

332. Wāʾil Ibn Hujr (RAA) narrated, ‘I saw the Prophet sūrah place his knees down when he prostrated before he put his hands.” Related by the four Imāms. The reason behind the strength of the previous narration (of Abū Hurairah) is that it is supported by another narration on the authority of Ibn Ṭumāmah (RAA) which was graded as Sahīh by Ibn Khuzaimah. It was also related by Al-
Bukhārī but the chain of narrators is only connected to Nāfi' (RAA) and does not reach the Prophet ﷺ.\(^{125}\)

\[^{125}\] The consensus of the scholars supports the Ḥadīth of Ibn Hujr. Imām Ibnul Qaiyim is also of the opinion that one should put his knees down first. Imām An-Nawawī said though that it seems that no opinion is more preferable than the other, i.e. both Ḥadīth are accepted, and one can go down in any way described.

\[^{126}\] The Testification of faith, which is recited in the final sitting of the prayer.
‘Abdullah Ibn Mas‘ud (RAA) narrated, ‘Allah’s Messenger turned around to us and said, “When any of you prays (and sits for the final Tashahhud) then he should say, ‘All greetings of humility are for Allah, and all prayers (or more generally all acts of worship) and good deeds (all good things, sayings, praising Allah, dhikr of Allah etc...) are all for Allah. Peace be upon you, O Prophet, and the mercy of Allah and His blessings be upon you. Peace be upon us and upon the righteous slaves of Allah. I bear witness that none is worthy of worship but Allah, and I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger.’ Then you may choose whatever supplication you like best and recite it.” Agreed upon, and the wording is from Al-Bukhari.

In the narration of An-Nasā‘i on the authority of Ibn Mas‘ud, ‘We used to say (so and so) before the recitation of the Tashahhud was made obligatory upon us (as mentioned above).’

In the narration of Ahmad, Ibn Mas‘ud says that the Prophet taught him the recitation of the Tashahhud and ordered him to teach it to other people.

In the narration of Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah used to teach us to say in the Tashahhud, ‘Blessed greetings, prayers and good deeds are all for Allah etc...(the rest is the same as the one mentioned in Hadith 334.) Related by Muslim.

Fadālah bin ‘Ubaid (RAA) narrated, “Allah’s Messenger heard a man supplicating during his prayer, but he did not praise Allāh and did not send prayers upon the Prophet. Therefore, the Messenger of Allāh said, “This one has been hasty (i.e. in making his supplication before praising Allāh and praying for His Prophet). He then called him and said, “When one of you prays, begin by praising Allāh. Then say prayers upon the Prophet, and then supplicate what you wish from Allāh.” Related by Ahmad and the three Imāms: At-Tirmidhi, Ibn Hibbān and Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.

Ibn Mas‘ūd (BAA) narrated that ‘Bashīr bin Sa’d said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh, we have been ordered to send prayers upon you. How do we do it?’ The Prophet was quiet for a moment and then said, “Say ‘O Allāh, Bless Muhammad and the family of Muhammad as You blessed Ibrāhīm (in another narration: as You blessed the family of Ibrāhīm). Grant favors to Muhammad and to the family of Muhammad as You granted favors to Ibrāhīm in this world (in another narration to the family of Ibrāhīm). You are indeed Praiseworthy and Glorious.’ And make Taslim (salutation) as I have taught you” Related by Muslim. Ibn Khuzaimah added, ‘How do we do it (i.e. what do we say), whenever we send prayers upon you in our prayer?’

127. The man was most probably sitting for at-Tashahhud, and that is why the author mentioned this Hadith in this section.

128. Refer to Hadith no. 290.
338. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Prophet said, "When any of you finishes reciting the Tashahhud, he should then seek refuge in Allah from the following four (trials), and should say, "O Allah! I seek refuge in You from the torment of the Hell-fire, and from the torment of the grave, from the trials of life and death, and from the (evil) trial of the False Messiah (ad-Dajjal)." Agreed upon. In the narration of Muslim, "When one of you finishes reciting the final Tashahhud."

339. Abu Bakr (RAA) narrated that he said to the Messenger of Allah, "Teach me a supplication that I may say in my prayer.' He said to him, "Say, 'O Allah! I have done great injustice to myself and no one forgives sins but You. So forgive me with Your forgiveness, and have mercy upon me. You are the Most Merciful, Oft-Forgiving." Agreed upon.

340. Wa'il bin Hujr (RAA) narrated, 'I prayed with the Prophet, and he would make the Salâm (salutation at the end of prayer) to his right side (saying), “Peace be upon you and the Mercy of Allâh,” and to his left side (saying), “Peace be upon you and the Mercy of Allâh.” Related by Abû Dawûd with a Sahîh (sound) chain of narrators.

341. Al-Mughirah bin Shu’bah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ would say at the end of every obligatory prayer, “There is no god except Allâh, the One, Who has no partner. His is the dominion and His is the praise. He has power over all things. O Allâh! There is no one who may withhold what You give, and there is no one, who may give what You have withheld. No fortune or prosperity (whether it be money, children, power etc) will save or benefit its owner with You (it is only Your mercy and virtue that benefits anyone). Agreed upon.

342. Sa’d bin Abi Waqqâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ would seek refuge in Allâh at the end of every obligatory prayer, saying, “I seek refuge in You from miserliness, I seek refuge in You from cowardice, I seek refuge in You from senility, I seek refuge in You from the trials of this world, and I seek refuge in You from the torment of the grave.” Related by Al-Bukhârî.
343. Thaubān (RAA) narrated, 'When the Prophet would finish his prayer, he would seek Allah’s forgiveness three times and then say, “O Allah, You are the Peace, and from You comes peace. Blessed are You, Owner of Majesty and Generosity.” Related by Muslim.

344. Abū Hurairah (RAA), narrated the Prophet said, 'Whoever glorifies Allah (i.e. say Subhanal-lāh) after every (obligatory) prayer, thirty three times, and praises Allah (i.e. say Alhamdu-lillah) thirty three times, and says the Takbir (say Allahu Akbar), this makes 99 times in all, and to complete the hundred, he then says, 'There is no god except Allah, the One Who has no partner. His is the dominion and His is the praise. He has power over all things.' His sins are forgiven, even if his sins are as abundant as the foam of the sea.” Related by Muslim. In another narration, the Takbir was mentioned to be said thirty four times.

345. Mu’ādh bin Jabal (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said to him, “I advise you, O Mu’ādh, never neglect to say at the end of every (obligatory) prayer, ‘O Allah, help me in Your dhikr (remembrance), Your thanks, and in wor-

346. Abû Umâmah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “ Whoever recites the verse of the Throne (Ayat al-Kursi. 2:244) at the end of every prayer, nothing will prevent him from entering Paradise except that he must die (first).” Related by An-Nasâ’î and rendered Sahîh by Ibn Hibbân. At-Tabarâni added in his narration, ‘ and recites “Say, He is Allah (the) One …..” (sûrah no. 112).’

347. Mâlik bin Al-Huwairith (RAA) narrated, “The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Pray as you have seen me praying.” Related by Al-Bukhârî.

348. Imrân bin al-Husain (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “ Pray standing, if you are not able to; pray sitting; if you are not able to; pray while lying on your side, otherwise pray by nodding your head.” Related by Al-Bukhârî.
349. Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ saw a sick man praying while sitting on a cushion. The Prophet ﷺ pushed it aside and said to him, “Pray while sitting on the ground if you can, otherwise, pray by nodding your head, and make a lower nodding for prostration than that for bowing (rukū’).” Related by Al-Baihaqi with a strong chain of narrators.

Chapter VIII: Sujud as-Sahu (Prostration due to forgetfulness during prayer) Other forms of Sujud (prostration): Prostration of Qur’ānic Recital, and Prostration of Thankfulness

350. ‘Abdullāh bin Buhainah (RAA) narrated, ‘Once the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ led us in Dhuhur prayer and stood up after two rak’āt and did not sit down (for the middle Tashahhud). The people stood up with him. When the prayer was about to end, the people waited for him ﷺ to say the Taslim. He said the Takbir while sitting down, and prostrated twice before he finally said the Taslim.” Related by the seven Imāms and the wording is from Al-Bukhārī.

In the narration by Muslim, ‘and he ﷺ said the Takbir in each prostration while he was sitting down and would then prostrate.
The people prostrated with him to compensate for the middle sitting (after two rak’āt) that he forgot (during the prayer)."

351. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'The Prophet £g prayed either Dhuhr or 'Asr prayer with us and he prayed only two rak'āt and then (finished the prayer) by making the Taslim. He got up and leaned against a piece of wood in the front part of the mosque. Abū Bakr and 'Umar (RAA) were present among the people on that day, but they did not dare to speak to the Prophet M (about the two remaining rak'āt). Some people left the mosque in a hurry and wondered, 'Has the prayer been shortened?' Among the people there was a man called Dhul Yadain129 who said, 'O Messenger of Allāh, have you forgotten or has the prayer been shortened?' The Messenger of Allāh said, "I have not forgotten and the prayer has not been shortened." Dhul Yadain then said, 'Surely you have forgotten, O Allāh's Messenger.' So the Prophet £g got up and prayed two (more) rak'āt and finished the prayer with Taslim. After that he said Takbir and prostrated the way he usually prostrated or perhaps a little longer. Next he raised his head and said the Takbir. Then he said the Takbir again and performed another prostration, the way he usually prostrated or perhaps a little lon-

129. The Messenger of Allāh £g called him Dhul Yadain (the man with the two hands) because his hands were long.
Finally he raised his head and said the Takbir. (The Prophet ﷺ performed the two prostrations of forgetfulness (Sujūd as-Sahu) after praying the two missed rak‘āt.” Agreed upon. In the narration of Muslim, “In the ‘Asr prayer.”

352 – وَلَأْسَيْبۡ ذَٰلِكَ، فَقَالَ: “أَعْقِدْنَاهُ مَا يَتَّبَعُنَّ؟” فَأَوْمَأَاهُ: أُيُّ نَعْمَ، وَهُمُّ يَنَالُوا الْصَّحِيحُينَ، لَكِنَّ بَلْقَاءُ: فَقَالُوا.

352. In the narration of Abū Dawūd, “The Prophet ﷺ said (to the people in the mosque), “Is it ‘true’ as Dhul Yadain has just said?” The people nodded their heads confirming what he said. This narration is also in Al-Bukhārī and Muslim but with the wording, ‘They said “Yes” instead of “nodded their heads.”

353. In another narration by Abū Dawūd on the authority of Abū Hurairah, ‘and he ﷺ did not prostrate until Allāh, the Exalted, made him absolutely sure about it (that he had only prayed two rak‘āt).

354. ‘Imrān bin al-Husayn (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ led them in prayer and forgot (to do something), so he made two prostrations and recited the Tashahhud and then said the Taslim.” Related by Abū Dawūd and At-Tirmidhi, who graded it as Hasan (good).

355. Abû Sa‘îd al-Khudrî (RAA) narrated that Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If one of you is uncertain during his prayer, and he does not remember for sure (the number of rak‘ât) he has prayed, three or four rak‘ât, then he should put an end to his doubts and proceed in his prayer based on the number (of rak‘ât) that he is certain he had performed and then make two prostrations before the Taslim. If he had prayed five rak‘ât, the two prostrations would make his prayer even (i.e. with an even number of rak‘ât as the two prostrations are considered as one rak‘ah). If he had prayed four complete rak‘ât (when he had finished), they would be in defiance of Satan.” Related by Muslim.

356. ‘Abdullâh Ibn Mas‘ûd (RAA) narrated, ‘Once Allâh’s Messenger was praying, and when he said the Taslim, he was asked, ‘O Messenger of Allâh, has something new happened in the prayer? He replied, “What is that?” They said, ‘You prayed so and so many rak‘ât.’ The Messenger of Allâh then changed the position of his feet, faced the Qiblah and made two prostrations. After he 130 He must always assume that he certainly prayed the lesser number of rak‘ât. For example if he is in doubt whether he prayed three or four rak‘ât, he assumes that he certainly prayed three, if he is uncertain whether he prayed two or one rak‘ah, he assumes that he prayed only one and so on.

said the Taslim, he turned his face to the people and said, “If anything new happened in the prayer, I would have informed you about it. But I am only a human being and I forget just as you do, so when I forget, remind me, and when any of you is uncertain about his prayer, he should try his best to remember exactly what he did, and then proceed with his prayer taking this into consideration (whether concerning a rak'ah or an integral part of the prayer). Then he should make two prostrations.” Agreed upon.

357. In the narration of al-Bukhārī, “He must finish his prayer, say the Taslim and then make the two prostrations afterwards.”

358. In the narration of Muslim, “The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ made the two prostrations of Sahū (forgetfulness) after making the Taslim and talking (the dialogue that took place between him and the Companions about what happened in the prayer).”

359. ‘Abdullāh bin Ja‘fār (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Whoever is uncertain about his prayer, he should make two prostrations after the Taslim.”131 Related by Ahmad and Abū Dawūd, and graded Sahih by Ibn Khuzaimah.

131- There is a difference of opinion whether to make the prostrations before or after the Taslim as both cases are mentioned in the Ahādīth, but Imam Ahmad said that it is better to apply each Hadith in similar cases, and if it is not mentioned in any of the aforementioned Ahādīth, then it is better to prostrate before Taslim, or he has the choice to do either.
360. Al-Mughirah bin Shubah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said, “If one of you is in doubt (about which rak‘ah he is praying) and he stood up after praying two rak‘āt, and he has already stood straight (when he remembered that he forgot to sit), he should proceed (with his prayer) and must not sit back again, but he should perform two prostrations (of forgetfulness). If he (remembers when he) has not completely stood up straight, then he should sit down (for the middle Tashahhud) and he does not have to make the two prostrations of Sahu (forgetfulness).” Related by Abu Dawūd, Ibn Mājah and Ad-Ḍaraqutnī with a weak chain of narrators. The wording is from ad-Ḍaraqutnī.

361. ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said, “The one who is led in prayer does not have to make the two prostrations of forgetfulness. But if the Imam himself forgets, both the Imam and those praying behind him must make the two prostrations.” Related by at-Tirmidhī and Al-Baihaqi with a weak chain of narrators.

362. Thaabit (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said, “One must prostrate twice (Sujūd as-Sahu) every time he forgets132 any of the actions of the prayer.” Related by Abū Dawūd and Ibn Mājah with a weak chain of narrators.

132. What is meant here is that he performs only two prostrations at the end of the prayer, for any number of actions, which he forgot in one prayer.
363. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'We performed prostration along with the Messenger of Allāh when he recited, "When the heaven split asunder," (sūrah no.84) and when he recited, "Read! in the Name of your Lord, Who has created." (Sūrah no. 96) Related by Muslim.

368. Ahmad and At-Tirmidhî related the above Hadîth on the authority of 'Uqbah bin 'Amir, linked up to the Prophet ﷺ. At-Tirmidhî added, ‘The one who does not make the two prostrations (when reciting the sûrah), should not recite them.’ The chain of narrators of this Hadîth is weak.

369. 'Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘O people, we came across verses of prostration,135 whoever prostrates has done the right thing, yet there is no sin upon the one who does not do so.’ Related by Al-Bukhârî. This Hadîth has the addition, ‘Allah, Glorified be He, has not made it compulsory for us to make the prostration (of Qur'ânic recitation), but whoever wishes can make it.’ This Hadîth is also in al-Muwatta'.

135. 'Umar (RAA) said this in the Friday Khutbah (sermon), because one Friday he recited sûrah an-Nahl and he came down from the pulpit and prostrated along with the people. The next Friday he recited the same sûrah but did not prostrate, hence he said what is in the Hadîth.
370. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ would recite the Qur'ān to us, and when he came to a verse of Sajdah (prostration) he would say the Takbir and prostrate, and we would make the Sajdah with him." Related by Abū Dawūd with a weak chain of narrators.

When he raised his head, he said (to him), "Jibrīl came to me and told me some glad tidings, so I prostrated out of thanks to Allāh." Related by Ahmad and al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

136. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to 'Abdur Rahmān (who was watching him at the time), "Jibrīl came to me and said, 'Shall I not give you glad tidings?' Allāh says to you, "Whoever prays upon you, I pray upon him. Whoever salutes you (says Assalamu 'Alaihum) I salute him." Therefore I prostrated to Allāh in Thanks." In another narration, "Whoever prays upon you once, Allāh will pray upon him 10 times."
373. Al-Bara' bin ’Ázib (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah sent Ali to Yemen – and Al-Bara’ mentioned the rest of the Hadith. Rabi’ah bin Ka’b Al-Aslami (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah once said to me, “Ask (me about whatever you want).” I said, ‘I ask your company in Paradise.’ He then said, “Or anything else (that you want to ask for)?” I said, ‘That is it.’ He said, “Then help me to achieve this (wish) for you, by prostrating137 as much as you can.” Related by Muslim.

139- The extra wording ‘and day,’ has been reported on the authority of ‘Alī bin ‘Abdullāh al-Azdi, who was reported to be a weak narrator by Ibn Ma‘īn. The narration about the night prayer is also mentioned in Al-Bukhārī and Muslim but without the phrase ‘and day’. Imām Aḥṣā‘īnī says that it could be that both are permissible, i.e. to pray (voluntary prayer) during the day sets of two or four rak‘āt.

Then he would pray three rak'at.

141 - The chain of narrators has 'Abdullah bin 'Abdullah Al-'Atakf, who was reported to be a weak narrator by Al-Bukhari and Muslim.

142 - Scholars said that praying witr is only a confirmed Sunnah (i.e. the Sunnah which the Prophet ﷺ did not leave performing whether traveling or at home) and is not obligatory as the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to Mu'adh when he sent him to Yemen, 'Tell them that five prayers during the day and night have been prescribed by Allah upon them.' 147 It was proven in al-Bukhārī and Muslim, through Sahih(sound) Ahādīth that the messenger of Allah prayed ad-Duhā prayer, but did not perform it in front of the companions, and he also may not have performed it every day for fear that his companions would follow his example. As for what ‘Aishah (RAA) said, it was very rare that the Prophet would be present at her house at the time of ad-Duhā, so it is true that she has not seen him pray it, or maybe she meant that he did not pray it regularly. 424. Al-Bukhārī transmitted on the authority of Abū Saʿīd, “twenty five degrees.”
425. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, “By the One in Whose Hand my soul is, I was about to give orders for the collection of fire-wood (fuel) and then order someone to announce the Adhān for prayer to be called, and then ask someone to lead the prayer. Then I wanted to go from behind and burn the houses of the men, who do not attend the (obligatory congregational) prayer. By the One in Whose Hand my soul is, if any of them had known that he would get a bone covered with good meat or two (small) pieces of meat in between two ribs, he would have turned up for the 'Ishā' prayer.” Agreed upon, and this narration is from Al-Bukhārī.

426. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, “No prayer is harder for the hypocrites than the Fajr and the 'Ishā' prayers, and if they knew the reward (for observing these two prayers in congregation), they would certainly come to the mosque, even if they had to crawl.” Agreed upon.

427. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that a blind man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said to him, ‘O Messenger of Allāh, I have no one to guide me to the mosque.’ (He was asking for the permission of the Prophet ﷺ to pray in his house). The Prophet ﷺ gave him permission to pray at home, but when he turned to go back, the Prophet called him and said, "Do you hear the Adhān?" The blind man said, 'Yes.' The Prophet then said, "Then respond to it (by coming to the mosque)." Related by Muslim.

429. Yazīd bin Al-Aswād narrated that he prayed the Fajr prayer with the Prophet. When the Messenger of Allāh finished the prayer, he discovered that two men had not prayed with them, so he ordered for them to be brought to him, and they came shaking with fear. The Messenger of Allāh said to them, "What prevented you from praying with us?" They said, 'We prayed in our resting places.' The Messenger of Allāh then said to them, "If you pray in your resting places and then come upon an Imām who has not yet prayed, then pray with him and it will be considered as a voluntary prayer (nāfīlah) for you." Related by Ahmad and the wording is his. It was also transmitted by the three Imāms and It was graded as Sahīh by Ibn Hibbān and At-Tirmidhī.
430. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “The Imam is only appointed (to lead the prayer) to be followed. So, when he says the Takbîr (Allahu Akbar), then say the Takbîr, and do not say the Takbîr until he says (Allahu Akbar). When he goes into ruku, then make ruku (after him), and do not go into ruku until he goes into ruku. When he says “Samî‘al Lâhu liman hamidah (Allah hears those who send praises to Him),” say “Rabbana wa lakal-hamd (O Allah, our Lord! All praises are for You).” When he goes into sujûd (prostration) make sujûd (after him), and do not go into sujûd until he goes into sujûd. When he prays standing, pray standing, and when he prays sitting, then all of you should pray sitting.” Related by Abu Dawûd and the wording is his. This narration is also related by Al-Bukhârî and Muslim.

Thereupon he said to them, “Come forward and follow me (in prayer) and let those behind (in the back rows) follow you (as they will know my actions through your actions even if they cannot see me directly).”\(^{148}\)

\(^{148}\) This means that those who cannot see or hear the Imam, for being a few
432. Zaid bin Thabit (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ made a small room with matting and prayed there (for a few nights during the month of Ramadan). Some of his companions came and started to pray behind him...(the Hadith...).’

This narration has, “the best prayer that a person performs is the one he prays in his house, except for the obligatory one.”
Agreed upon.

433. Jabir Ibn Abdullah (RAA) narrated, ‘Mu‘adh bin Jabal lead some of his companions in the ‘Ishâ’ prayer, but he made it too lengthy (recited long Sûras). When you lead people in prayer, recite “And by the sun and its brightness” (sûrah ash-Shams no. 91), and “Glorify the name of your Lord” (sûrah al-A’lâ no. 87), and “Read! in the Name of your Lord, Who has created..” (sûrah al-‘Alaq no. 96) and “By the night as it spreads” (sûrah al-Lail no. 92). Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

149. The rest of this Hadith is, “he prayed there for a few nights, and so some of his companions came and prayed behind him. When he came to know about it, he stopped coming out (to pray in that room). Abu Bakr was following the prayer of the Prophet and people were following the prayer of Abu Bakr.' Agreed upon.

435. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "If any of you leads the people in prayer, he should shorten it (i.e. keep his recital of the Qur'an brief), for amongst them are the young, the aged, the weak, and the ones who have other needs to attend to (after prayer). If one prays by himself, one may prolong (the prayer) as much as he wishes." Agreed upon.

436. 'Amro bin Salamah (RAA) narrated, 'My father said: I have come to you from the one who is truly the Messenger of Allah.' The Messenger of Allah said to them, "When it is time for prayer, then one of you should say the Adhān for prayer, and let the one amongst you who is the most versed in the Qur’ān lead you in the prayer.” ‘Amro said, ‘So, they looked for such a person and found none who was more versed in the Qur’ān than me, therefore they made me their Imām in prayer and at that time I was only six or seven years old.’ Related by Al-Bukhārī, Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā’ī.

437. Ibn Mas‘ūd (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “The one who should lead the people in prayer (who has the most right) is the one who is most versed in the Book of Allāh. If they are equal in their recital, then the one who is most knowledgeable in the Sunnah. If they are equal in the Sunnah, then it is the one who migrated first. If they are equal in that (i.e. they all migrated at the same time), then the earliest to embrace Islām—in another narration— the eldest. No man should be an Imām for another man in prayer if the other holds authority (i.e. in a place where this latter has authority in any capacity over the other), or occupy his place of honor in his house without his permission.” Related by Muslim

But do not repeat that act again* (bowing before joining the row).”\(^{150}\) Related by Al-Bukhārī. Abū Dawūd added to this narration, ‘He bowed before he reached the row and then walked (bowing) to the row.’

453. 'Â'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'When prayer was first enjoined by Allah, the Almighty, it was only two rak‘at (in every prayer, whether in residence or on journeys). The prayer of the traveler was later confirmed as being two rak‘at while two more rak‘at were added to (the original prayer) for the one who is resident (except for the Maghrib and the Fajr prayers).’ Agreed upon.

454. In the narration of Al-Bukhārī, ‘Then he emigrated so prayer was then prescribed as four rak‘at, while the prayer of the traveler was left as it was originally prescribed (i.e. two rak‘at).’

455. Imām Ahmad added in his narration, ‘except for the Maghrib prayer as it is the witr of the daytime and the dawn prayer due to its lengthy Qur’ānic recital.’

¹⁵¹ The narrators of this Hadith are trustworthy, but it has a defect (shādāh), as it is only attributed to ‘A‘ishah (RAA) and not to the Prophet as she is describing what she used to do, and not what the Prophet used to do. There is a consensus among the scholars that the Prophet never offered more than two rak‘at on a journey, and all the trustworthy narrators agreed on this (see for example ‘Sahih Al-Bukhārī’).

In a narration by Al-Hākim with a sound chain of narrators, ‘He prayed Dhuhr and ‘Asr (combined) and then rode (for his journey).’ Abu Nu’aim related, ‘Whenever he was on a journey, and the sun had declined, he would pray Dhuhr and ‘Asr combined and then proceed on his journey.’

This Hadīth explains the following Hadīth narrated by Abu Hurairah.

Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

501. Ibn 'Umar (RAA), narrated, 'I took part in a battle with the Prophet ﷺ, in Najd. We faced the enemy and arranged ourse-lives in rows. Then the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ stood up to lead the prayer. A group lined up to pray with him while the other faced the enemy. The Prophet ﷺ bowed in ruku' and the first group bowed with him and then he performed two prostrations. The first group then left (after praying one rak'ah) and took place of those who had not yet prayed. The second group came to pray with the Prophet ﷺ and he prayed one rak'ah and performed two prostrations and then said the Taslim. Then the latter group stood up and prayed another rak'ah and performed two prostrations on their own.' Agreed upon, and the wording is from Al-Bukhārī. 164

Jābir bin `Abdullāh (RAA) narrated, 'I Salâtul Khauf (prayer when one is afraid) with the Prophet ﷺ and he arranged us in two rows behind him. The enemy was between us and the Qiblah (i.e. the enemy in this case was in the direction of the Qiblah). The Prophet ﷺ made the Takbir and we all followed him. Then he made rukūʾ and we all performed rukūʾ after him. Then he raised his head from the rukūʾ and we all raised our heads from the rukūʾ. Next, the Prophet ﷺ went down for Sujūd (prostration) as well as the row closest to him (i.e. the front row), while the back row stood facing the enemy until the Prophet ﷺ and the first row had completed their prostration, after which the back row performed Sujūd and then stood. Following this, those in the back row moved to the front, while those in the front row moved to the back. The Prophet ﷺ performed the rukūʾ and we all performed rukūʾ. Then, he raised his head and we raised our heads from rukūʾ. Afterward, he made the Sujūd and the row that was previously in the back during the first rakʿah prostrated with him while the [new] back row stood facing the enemy. When the Prophet and the [new] front row had completed their Sujūd, the [new] back row performed Sujūd. Finally, the Prophet made the Taslim and we followed him in this.’ Related by Ahmad, Muslim and An-Nasāʾī.

164. Imām as-San’ānī in ‘Subul as-Salām’ says that it is apparent that the second group completed their prayer, and prayed a second rak'ah, after the Imām made the Taslim without disconnecting their prayer. The first group did not complete their prayer until the second group had completed theirs and returned to face the enemy and guard the rest of the army, and then they would pray their second rak'ah. This is another way of performing the prayer when one is afraid. (the fear prayer)

In another narration, ‘...then he prostrated and the first row prostrated with him. When they stood, the second row performed *Sujūd...’ and mentioned the same as the rest of the first Hadith.’ Finally, ‘Then the Prophet ﷺ made the Taslim and we all made the Taslim with him.’ Related by Muslim.

503. Abū Dawūd related on the authority of Abū ‘Aiyāsh az-Zuraqi, a similar Hadith with the following addition, ‘It was performed (i.e. the fear prayer) at ‘Usfān.’

504. An-Nasāʾī narrated on the authority of Jābir (RAA), with a different chain of narrators that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prayed two rakʿāt with one group of his companions and then made the Taslim. Then he prayed another two rakʿāt with another group, and then made the Taslim.
505. Abū Dawūd transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Abū Bakrah.

506. Hudhaifah (RAA), narrated, "The Messenger of Allāh prayed the fear prayer with his companions. He led one group in one rak'ah, and then the other group in one rak'ah, and they did not pray a second rak'ah (to complete two rak'āt as they had in the previous cases). Related by Ahmad, Abū Dawūd, an-Nasā’ī and was graded as Sahīh by Ibn Hibbān.

507. Ibn Khuzaimah transmitted a similar Hadith on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbās.

509. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Prophet said, "There is no Sujūd as-Sahu (prostration due to forgetfulness during prayer), to be performed in Salātul Khauf." Related by Ad-Dāraqūtnī with a weak chain of narrators.
Chapter XIV: The Prayer of the Two 'Id Festivals

510. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, 'Breaking the fast at the end of Ramadan is (determined) when people break their fast, and 'Idul Ad-hà (the 'Id of sacrifice), is (determined) when people offer their sacrifices.'165 Related by at-Tirmidhî.

511. Abû 'Umair bin Anas ibn Malik (RAA) narrated on the authority of some of his uncles from among the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ that some riders came and testified that they had seen the crescent (of the new moon) the previous night. Thereupon, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ ordered the people to break their fast, and to go out to their praying place (where they pray the 'Id prayer) the next morning (to perform the 'Id prayer in congregation).166 Related by Ahmad and Abû Dawûd, and the wording is his, with a sound chain of narrators.

165- Some scholars said that this Hadith refers to the fact that one should start fasting and break his fast with the Muslim community, and do as they do. The same applies for the day of sacrifice.

166- In the Hadith there lies evidence that it is possible to pray the 'Id prayer on the second day of 'Id, if people did not know that the crescent had already been seen, except after the time of prayer has passed, as in this Hadith. It is also evidence that if one misses the 'Id prayer for any reason, he may go out and pray it the following day.
512. Anas (RAA) narrated, ‘The messenger of Allah ﷺ would not go out on the Day of ‘Idul Fitr (Festival of breaking the fast) until he had eaten some dates.’ Related by Al-Bukhārī. In another narration by Ahmad, there is the additional phrase, ‘He would eat an odd number of dates.’

513. Abū Buraidah narrated on the authority of his father (RAA), ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ would not go out on the Day of ‘Idul Fitr, until he had eaten (something), and on the Day of ‘Idul Adhā he would not eat until he had returned from the prayer.’ Related by Ahmad, At-Tirmidhī and Sahihated by Ibn Hibbān.

514. Umm 'Atiyah (RAA) related, ‘We were ordered to come to the prayer of the two ‘Ids and (even) bring out with us the young (virgin) girls (who had not yet reached puberty) and the menstruating women, so they might witness the good(seen)167 and the Takbir and supplications of the Muslims. However, the menstruating women would keep away from the praying place (i.e. stand to the side and watch).’ Agreed upon 167- Of performing the ‘Id prayer in congregation, that everybody joins including children, and women, except for the menstruating women.

515. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ, Abū Bakr and ‘Umar used to offer the two īd’s prayer before the Khutbah.’ Agreed upon.

516. Ibn ‘Abbas (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ went out to the īd prayer and prayed the two rak‘at (of the īd) and did not offer any other prayer before or after it.’ Related by the seven Imāms.

518. Abū Sa‘īd (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ never used to observe any prayer before the īd prayer, but when he returned home, he would pray two rak‘at.’ Related by Ibn Mājah with a good chain of narrators.

519. Abū Sa‘īd (RAA) narrated, ‘On the Days of ‘Īdul Fitr and 'Idul Adhâ, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ would go out to the praying place, and the first thing that he started with was the 'Id prayer, and when he had finished he would stand facing the people, while the people were sitting in rows, and he would admonish them and advise them.' Agreed upon.

520. `Amro bin Shu`aib (RAA) on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather168 (May Allah be pleased with all of them), narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ would make seven Takbirât in the first rak`ah of the 'Id prayer, and five Takbirât in the second, and then he would start reciting the Qur`ân, after the Takbirât in each rak`ah.' Related by Abû Dawûd.

521. Abû Wâqid Al-Laithî (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to recite in the prayer of 'Idul Adhâ, “Qaf. By the Glorious Qur`ân” (sûrah no. 50:1) and “The Hour has drawn near, and the moon has been cleft asunder.”(sûrah no. 54:1). Related by Muslim.

522. Jâbir (RAA) narrated, 'On the days of 'Id, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ would take different routes (i.e. would go to the prayer in one way, and return home in another.' Related by Al-Bukhârî.

168. He is `Amro bin Shu`aib bin Muhammad bin 'Abdullâh bin `Amro bin Al-`Às.
523. Abū Dawūd narrated a similar narration on the authority of Ibn ‘Umar.

524. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'When the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) came to Madinah, they had two days of sport and amusement. The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Allah, the Exalted has exchanged these days for two days better than them; the day of sacrifice (‘Idul Adha) and the day of breaking the fast (‘Idul Fitr)."' Related by Abū Dawūd and an-Nasâ’i with a sound chain of narrators.

525. ‘Ali (RAA) narrated, 'It is an act of the Sunnah of the Prophet (ﷺ) to go out to the 'Id prayer walking.' Related by At-Tirmidhi, who graded it as Hasan (good).

526. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'It was raining on the day of 'Id, so the Prophet (ﷺ) led them in the 'Id prayer inside the mosque.'

169- It is preferable to pray the 'Id prayer in a place outside the city, in an open area, unless there is an excuse such as rain, in which case it could be prayed in the mosque. The Prophet (ﷺ) prayed the two 'Id prayers in the outskirts of Madinah.
Chapter XV: The Prayer During a Solar Eclipse

527. Al-Mughirah bin Shu‘bah (RAA) narrated, “The sun eclipsed during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ on the day when (his son) Ibrāhīm died. So, the people said that the sun had eclipsed because of the death of Ibrāhīm. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The sun and the moon are two miracles created by Allah. They do not eclipse for the death or life (i.e. birth) of anyone. Should you witness an eclipse of the sun or the moon, pray and invoke Allah until it is over.” Agreed upon. In the narration of Al-Bukhārī, “Until the eclipse is clear.”

528. Abū Bakrah (RAA) narrated, “pray and invoke Allah until the eclipse (that you are witnessing) is over.” Related by al-Bukhārī.

529. ‘A‘ishah (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allah ﷺ recited the Qur'an aloud during the eclipse prayer. He performed four bowings in a total of two rak'āt (i.e. he performed the rukū', twice in each rak'ah), and prostrated four times (i.e. he made Sujūd twice in each rak'ah). Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

In another narration, he sent a man calling, 'prayer (is to be performed) in congregation.'
In a narration by Muslim, 'When the sun eclipsed, he made eight bowings in two rak'āt (i.e. he performed ruku four times in each rak'ah), and prostrated four times (i.e. he made sujūd twice in each rak'ah).''

531. Imam Muslim transmitted a similar narration on the authority of 'Ali (RAA).

532. Muslim also transmitted the following on the authority of Jābir (RAA), 'The Messenger of Allah حـ performed six bowings and four prostrations (in two rak'āt).'

533. Ubay bin Ka'b (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allah ﷺ performed the eclipse prayer, and he made five bowings and two prostrations (in the first rak'ah), and did the same in the second.' Related by Abu Dawūd.

534. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated, 'No wind has ever blown, except that the Prophet ﷺ would go down on his knees and say, "O Allah, make it a mercy for us and do not make it as a punishment." Related by Ash-Shāfiʿi and At-Tabarānī.

170. Some scholars are of the opinion that the eclipse prayer is performed in this way.
535. Ibn `Abbas (RAA) narrated that the Prophet ﷺ made six bowings and four prostrations (in two rak`ât), when an earthquake occurred and said, “This is the prayer (to be performed) when one of the signs of Allâh (such as an eclipse, an earthquake etc.) occurs.” Related by Al-Baihaqi.

Imâm Ash-Shâfi`î transmitted a similar narration, excluding the last part, on the authority of `Alî (RAA).

Chapter XVI: The Istisqâ` Prayer
(invoking Allâh for rain during drought)

536. Ibn `Abbas (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ went out (to make the Istisqâ` prayer) wearing old clothes, in a humble and submissive manner, walking slowly, invoking Allâh (in humility) and prayed two rak`ât, as he prayed the `Id prayer, but he did not give a similar Khutbah (like the one he delivers on the `Id day).’ Related by the five Imâms. At-Tirmidhi, Abû `Awânah and Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahîh.
537. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘The people complained to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ about the lack of rain, so he gave orders for a pulpit to be set up for him in the place of prayer. He then appointed a day for the people to gather and he came out on that day when the sun had just appeared. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sat down on the pulpit, said Takbîr and praised Allâh. Then he said, “You have complained of drought in your areas, but you have been ordered by Allâh to supplicate Him and He has promised that He would answer your prayers.” Then he said: “All praise is for Allâh, the Compassionate, the Merciful, the Only Owner of the Day of Judgment. There is no God but Allâh Who does what He wishes. O Allâh, there is no God except You! You are the Self-sufficient and we are the needy. Send down rain upon us and make it a source of strength for us and satisfaction.” He then raised his hands and kept raising them until the whiteness of his armpits could be seen. After that he turned his back to the people and turned his cloak around, keeping his hands raised, then he faced the people, descended from the pulpit and prayed two rak'ât. Allâh, the Almighty then sent a cloud which produced thunder and lightening, and by Allâh’s permission, it rained.” Related by Abû Dawûd, who said that its chain of narrators is good.

171- In a narration by Al-Bukhârî, on the authority of 'Abdullâh Ibn Zaid, ‘The Prophet ﷺ turned his outer garments around, placing its left side on his right side and vice versa.’ Scholars say that the wisdom here is the favorable omen of a change of state. It seems that the Prophet ﷺ was optimistic that by turning round his cloak, the state of drought would turn into that of rain and prosperity.
538. The story of turning the garment is mentioned in Sahih Al-Bukhari on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Zaid, who said, ‘The Messenger of Allah turned towards the Qiblah and started invoking Allah, then he prayed two rak ‘at reciting the Qur’ân aloud.’

539. Abu Ja’far al-Baqir (RAA) narrated, ‘and he turned his garment for the drought to turn away.’ Related by Ad-Daraquuti, and it was reported to be Hadith Mursal (that in which the link between the Successor (Tâbi’i) and the Prophet, i.e. the companion is missing).

540. Anas (RAA) narrated, ‘A man entered the mosque on Friday while the Prophet was standing delivering the Khutbah. The man said, “O Messenger of Allah, our wealth has been destroyed and we no longer have any transport. Supplicate Allah for us to have rain. The Prophet raised his hands and said, “O Allah, give us rain. O Allah, give us rain. O Allah, give us rain.” Anas said, “By Allah, at that time there were no clouds in the sky and there was no house or building between the mountain and us. From behind the mountain came a cloud that looked like a shield. By the time it reached the middle of the sky it started to pour with rain. By Allah we did not see the sun for a week. On the following Friday, a man entered the mosque from that (same) door.

172 In another narration ‘livestock are dying’, which may account for the lack of transport.
while the Prophet was standing delivering the Khutbah and said, 'Our livestock are dead and the roads are cut off (due to torrential rain). Ask Allah to make it stop.' The Prophet raised his hands and said, "O Allah, around us and not upon us. O Allah, make it upon the hills, small mountains, bottom of the valleys, and plantations." The rain stopped and we walked out in the sunshine.' Agreed upon.

541. Anas (RAA) narrated, Whenever drought threatened them, 'Umar Ibnul Khattab used to ask Al-'Abbas ibn 'Abdul Mut-talib to invoke Allah for rain. He used to say, 'O Allah! We used to ask our Prophet to invoke You for rain, and You would bless us with rain, and now we ask his uncle to invoke You for rain. O Allah! Bless us with rain.' And so it would rain. Related by Al-Bukhārī.

542. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'A shower of rain fell when we were with the Prophet. He lifted up his clothes (uncovering part of his body to the rain), until the rain fell on him. We said, 'Messenger of Allah, why did you do this?' He said, "Because it has just come from Allah, the Exalted." Related by Muslim.

543. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, Whenever the Prophet saw the rain, he used to say, "O Allah! Make it beneficial." Agreed upon.
544. Sa’d (RAA) narrated, “The Messenger of Allah ﷺ would supplicate for Istisqa’ saying, “O Allah, let us be covered with thick clouds that have abundant and beneficial rain, that is accompanied by a strong sound of thunder (which is a sign of strong rain), frequently making light rain fall upon us and surrounding us with lightning. O Allah, You are full of majesty, bounty and Honor.” Related by Abu ‘Awānah in his Sahīh.

545. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Prophet Sulaimān ﷺ went out invoking Allah for rain. He saw an ant lying on its back raising its legs up to the sky saying, ‘O Allah! We are creatures amongst Your creatures. We can not live without Your rain.’ Prophet Sulaimān then said, ‘Go back, for it has rained in response to the invocation of others (than you).’ Related by Ahmad.

546. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ supplicated Allah for rain and he pointed with the back of his hand to the sky.” Related by Muslim.
Chapter XVII: Clothing

547. Abu Amir al-Ash'ari (RAA) narrated, “The Messenger of Allah said, “There will be among my followers, some people who will make Halal (lawful) a woman's vagina (i.e. adultery) and silk (which is forbidden for men).” Related by Abu Dawud and Al-Bukhari.

548. Abu Hudhaifah Ibn Al-Yaman (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah prohibited us from eating and drinking from gold and silver vessels. He also forbade us from wearing clothes made of silk or brocade (i.e. the men but it is lawful for women) or to sit on them.’ Related by Al-Bukhari and Muslim.

549. Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah prohibited (men) from wearing silk, except for the size of two, three or four fingers.’ Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

173- It is only permissible for men to wear a garment embroidered with silk thread, the maximum size of such a design should not exceed the size of four fingers, or that the whole garment could include a piece of silk not exceeding that size.
550. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ gave permission to 'Abdur Râhîm bin 'Auf and Az-Zubair to sear silk clothing on a journey, as they were suffering from a skin irritation.' Agreed upon.

551. 'Alî (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sent me a garment striped with silk (or made of pure silk, which is more likely) so I went out wearing it. I saw the Prophet ﷺ and he looked very angry (when seeing me wearing it), so I cut it up (and divided it) among my female (relatives).'

Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

552. Abû Müsâ (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "Gold and silk are Halâl (lawful) for the females among my nation, but prohibited for the males." Related by Ahmed, An-Nasâ'i and At-Tirmidhi.

174 In another narration, he divided it into three head covers, which he gave to the three Fatimah (i.e. His wife Fatimah the daughter of the Prophet ﷺ, his mother Fatimah bint Asad and Fatimah bint Hamzah, his cousin.

553.  'Imrân bin Ḥusayn (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "When Allah bestows one of His favors upon a slave, He likes to see its effect on him." Related by Al-Baihaqi.

554.  'Alee (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ prohibited (men) from wearing Qassei (a kind of fabric made of silk or striped with silk, which is brought from Egypt and Syria) or any clothing dyed with saffron.' Related by Muslim.

555.  'Abdullâh bin 'Amr (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ saw me wearing two garments dyed with saffron. Thereupon he said to me, "Has your mother ordered you to do so?" Related by Muslim.

175. This means that one should eat and wear clothes, which reflects his average income, as this is a way of acknowledging the grace of Allah upon him and also if a poor person sees him looking respectable, he would be encouraged to ask him for help. (Imâm as-Sânî in Subul as-Salâm; the interpretation of Bulugh al-Marâm).

176. It is definitely prohibited if the percentage of silk is very high, otherwise it is disliked to wear it if there is a small amount.

177. This comment from the Prophet ﷺ indicates that dying clothes with saffron is absolutely prohibited for men, and he mentioned the mother because it is usual for women to use it to decorate their clothing. This is also supported by the rest of the narration in Muslim, in which the Prophet ﷺ commanded him to burn the two garments when 'Amro asked him if he should wash them.
556. Asmâ’ bint Abi Bakr (RAA) reported that she brought out the cloak of the Prophet ﷺ and it had a brocade fringe on the collar, sleeves, and the front and back openings. Related by Abû Dawûd, and Muslim who added, “‘A’ishah (RAA) had it until she died, then I took it. The Prophet ﷺ used to wear it, and now we wash it and use it (or the washing) for the sick, seeking a cure (by virtue of its blessing as it touched the body of the Prophet ﷺ).” Al-Bukhârî added to the above narration in his book ‘Al-Adab al-Mufrad’, ‘He ﷺ used to wear it for (meeting with) delegations and for the Friday prayer.’
557. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah (SAW) said, “Remember, as much as you can, the one thing (fact or reality) which (always) brings an end to all worldly joys and pleasures, (meaning death).” Related by At-Tirmidhī, An-Nasā'ī and Ibn Hibbān.

558. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah (SAW) said, “None of you should wish for death due to any affliction, which might have affected him. But if he feels compelled to wish for it (due to extreme distress that he feels he cannot bear), he should say: “O Allah! Grant me life as long as life is better for me, and let me die when death is better for me.” Agreed upon.

559. Buraidah (RAA) narrated that the messenger of Allah (SAW) said, "The believer dies while his forehead is sweating."\textsuperscript{178}

Related by the three Imāms.

Abū Sa‘īd and Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Remind those who are on their death bed of the Shahādah ‘Lā Ilāha illā-āh.’" (for them to say it, hoping it will be their last words).\textsuperscript{179}

\begin{quote}
560. Abu Sa‘īd and Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Remind those who are on their death bed of the Shahādah “Lā Ilāha illā-āh.” (for them to say it, hoping it will be their last words).”
\end{quote}

\begin{quote}
561. Ma‘qil bin Yasar (RAA) narrated that the messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Recite Yāsīn (Surah no. 36), over those who are dying.” Related by Abū Dawūd, An-Nasā‘i and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.
\end{quote}

\textsuperscript{178} Imām as-San‘ānī in ‘Subul as-Salām’, says that this refers to one of two things; one is that when the believer is on his death bed, he would be sweating due to his suffering in the last moments when his soul is about to leave his body; this suffering is the last thing that will expiate what is left of his sins. The other thing, the Prophet ﷺ could be referring to is the life of the believer in which he is always working hard to gain his halāl earnings, fasting, praying to prepare for the Hereafter, and so he meets Allāh, the Almighty when he is still sweating.

\textsuperscript{179} Scholars say that it is recommended to remind those who are on their death bed of the Shahādah, for him to say it, but they disliked insisting or telling him, ‘Say....’, lest the dying person becomes irritated or gets more upset due to what he is going through and then utters something which he should not say.
562. Umm Salamah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ came to see Abū Salamah when his sight had become fixed (with his eyes open, as he had already passed away). So the Prophet ﷺ closed his eyes and said, 'When the soul is seized and leaves the body, the sight follows it.' Some of Abū Salamah's family wept and wailed, whereupon the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to them, 'Do not supplicate to Allah anything except that which is good for you (i.e. do not say anything which goes against you at that moment), because the angels (who are present at the time of death), say “Amin” (asking Allah to accept your invocation) to whatever you say.' Then he said, 'O Allah! Forgive Abū Salamah, raise his status among (Your) rightly guided servants, make his grave spacious, and fill it with light for him, and be his successor in taking good care of his descendants whom he has left behind, (and make them pious).' Related by Muslim.

563. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ died, he was covered with a Yemeni mantle that had some designs on it.' Agreed upon.

564. 'A'ishah (RAA) reported that Abū Bakr kissed the Prophet ﷺ after he had died.' Related by Al-Bukhārī.

565. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said, “A believer’s soul remains suspended according to his debt until it is settled or paid off on his behalf.” Related by Ahmad and At-Tîrâzî.

566. Ibn ‘Abbâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said concerning the man who fell off his mount and died during Hajj, “Wash him with water and Sidr (lotus leaves) and shroud him in his two garments (that he was wearing for Ihârâm).” Agreed upon.

567. ’A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘When the Messenger of Allâh died and they wanted to make Ghusl (full ritual washing of the body), they said, ‘By Allah we do not know whether we should take off the clothes of Allah’s Messenger as we do for our dead or not?’ Related by Ahmad and Abû Dawûd.180

180- The rest of the Hadîth as reported by Abû Dawûd, ‘When they disputed among themselves, Allâh cast slumber over them until the chin of each of them fell on his chest. Then someone said to them from a side of the house, and they did not know who he was, ‘Wash the Prophet while his clothes are on him.’ So, they washed him while he was wearing his shirt. They poured water over his shirt and rubbed him with his shirt and not with their hands.’
568. Umm Atiyah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ came to us when we were washing his daughter (Zainab) after she had died and said, "Wash her three times, five times or more if necessary, with water and lotus leaves (Sidr) and apply some camphor to the last washing." When we finished making Ghusl for her, we informed the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and he threw his Izār (a cloth, which he wore round his waist) to us and told us to wrap her in it as the first sheet of the shroud (next to her body).’ Agreed upon. In another narration, "Start by washing the organs on the right and those parts that are washed in ablution." In the narration of Al-Bukhārī, ‘We braided her hair in three braids and made them fall at her back.’

569. ‘Ā’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ was shrouded in three pieces of white Yemenite cotton sheets. They did not include either a shirt or a turban.’ Agreed upon.

571. Ibn ¢Abbas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Wear white clothes, for they are (considered as) your best clothes, and enshroud your dead in them.” Related by the five Imâms, except for An-Nasâ’î, and At-Tirmidhi reported it to be sound.

572. Jâbir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “When one of you is in charge of shrouding his brother, he should give him the best shroud he can (i.e. clean, covering the whole body, but not necessarily expensive as this is disliked.)” Related by Muslim.

573. Book IV: Zakāh

Chapter I

623. Ibn 'Abbas (RAA) narrated that when the Prophet (salallahu alaihi wasallam) sent Mu'adh ibn Jabal to Yemen (as governor), he said to him:

"You are going to a people who are People of the Scripture. Invite them to testify that none has the right to be worshipped but Allah and that I am His Messenger. If they obey you in this, then teach them that Allah, the Glorious One, has enjoined five prayers upon them in every day and night (in twenty-four hours), and if they obey you in this, then tell them that Allah has made it obligatory for them to pay Zakāh upon their assets and it is to be taken from the wealthy among them and given to the poor among them."

Related by Al-Bukhārī.
624. Anas (RAA) narrated that Abū Bakr As-Siddiq (RAA) wrote him this letter, “This is the obligatory Zakāh, which the Messenger of Allāh made obligatory for every Muslim, and which Allāh, the Almighty had commanded him to observe. For each twenty-four camels, or less, their Zakāh is to be paid as sheep; for every five camels, their Zakāh is one sheep. When the amount of camels is between twenty-five to thirty-five, the due Zakāh is one she-camel ‘bint makhḍūq’ (a camel which is one year old and just starting the second year) or a male camel ‘ibn labūn’ (a young male camel which is two years old and already starting the third year). However, when the amount of camels reaches thirty-six, the due Zakāh is a young she-camel ‘bint labūn’ (a young female camel, which is two years old and already starting the third year). When they reach forty-six to sixty camels, their due Zakāh is a she-camel ‘hiqqah’ (which is three years old and starting the fourth). When they reach sixty-one to seventy-five, one ‘Jaz‘ah’ (a four year old camel already starting its fifth year). When their number is between seventy-six to ninety camels, their due Zakāh is two young she camels ‘bint labīn’. When they are in the range between ninety-one to one hundred and twenty camels, the Zakāh is two young she camels ‘liqqah’. If they are over a hundred and twenty camels, on every forty camels, one ‘bint labīn’ is due. And for every fifty camels (over one hundred and twenty) a young she-camel ‘liqqah’ is due. And anyone, who has got only four camels, does not have to pay Zakāh unless he (the owner of the camels) wants to give something voluntarily.

Regarding the Zakāh of grazing sheep, if they are between forty and one hundred and twenty, one sheep is due as Zakāh. If they are between 120 and 200, two sheep are due. If they are between 200 and 300, three sheep are due. If they exceed three hundred sheep, then one sheep is due for every extra hundred grazing heads. If the grazing sheep are less than forty, (even if they are 39) then no Zakāh is due on them, unless he (the owner of the camels) wants to give something voluntarily.

One should not combine (i.e. gather young animals together) or separate them for fear of paying Zakāh. When there is a mixture of cattle shared between two partners, and Zakāh is paid jointly between them, then they have to calculate it equally among them (depending on the share of each). Neither an old or a defective animal nor a male goat (a ram used for breeding) may be taken as Zakāh, unless the Zakāh collector wishes to do so.

Concerning silver, the Zakāh paid is a quarter of a tenth for each 200 Dirhams. If the amount of silver is less than two hundred Dirhams.

188- One way of doing this is when three people, each of them has forty sheep (i.e. one sheep is due on each). So, when the Zakāh collector comes, they put them together, which comes to 120 sheep, and they the due Zakāh is only one sheep. Or if two partners have 201 sheep, which means that 3 sheep are due, then they divide them between them, for each to give only one sheep.

189- The Zakāh collector should not take this last type, (the breeding ram) as this will harm the owner, but he may take any of these three if he has no other choice, as the old and the defective animal is not to be taken as Zakāh anyway. The same Arabic word used in the Hadith could be read as ‘al-Mussaddiq’, which is the owner or the one who pays Zakāh. In this case the meaning would be ‘the male –goat’ may not be taken unless the owner permits it to be taken as Zakāh, as it is from his best animals.
Dirhams (even if it is 190) then no Zakāh is to be paid for it, unless the owner wishes to do so.

If the number of camels reaches the number on which a jazʿah (a four year old camel already starting its fifth year) is due as Zakāh, but he only has a 'hiqqah' (a she camel which is three years old and starting the fourth), it should be accepted from him along with two sheep if they were available (to compensate for the difference) or twenty Dirhams. If on the other hand he has to offer a 'hiqqah' as Zakāh, but he only has a jazʿah, it is accepted from him, and the Zakāh collector will then pay him the difference, which is twenty Dirhams or two female sheep.' Related by Al-Bukhvīf.

625. Muʿādh bin Jabal (RAA) narrated, ‘When the Messenger of Allah S sent him to Yemen, he commanded him to take a ‘tabī’ (young bull) or ‘tabīʿah’ (young cow, which is one year old), as Zakāh for every 30 cows. And for every forty cows, a musinnah (two year old cow) is due. When you possess twenty Dīnārs, at the end of the year, then there is half a Dīnār levied on it (as Zakāh). Any additional amount will be calculated in the same manner. He then addressed the people from the pulpit and said to them: “I see that two mudds of wheat from Syria equals one ｑ of dates. The people accepted that.” Abū Sa‘īd then contended, “As for myself…” Two mudds are equivalent to half a ｑ, that is why Abū Sa‘īd insisted on giving one full ｑ as he used to do during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ.”
652. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah (SAW) said, “Seven people will be shaded by Allāh under His shade on the day when there will be no shade except His...” He mentioned the rest of the hadith, which says, “and a man who gives charity so secretly that his left hand does not know what his right hand has given.” (i.e. nobody knows how much he has given in charity). Any Muslim who feeds a Muslim who is hungry, Allāh will feed him from the fruit of Paradise, and any Muslim who gives drink to a Muslim who is thirsty, Allāh will give him a drink from the Sealed Nectar.”¹⁹⁷ Related by Abū Dawūd with a weak chain of narrators.

¹⁹⁷ This is the pure and clear white wine, which the believers will drink in Paradise, but it will not make them intoxicated as the wine of this worldly life. It is kept in sealed containers that will only be undone by their owners.
655. Hakim bin Hizam (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “The upper hand is better than the lower hand (i.e. he who gives in charity is better than he who takes it). One should begin by giving to his dependents. And the best Sadaqah (charity) is that, which is given by a wealthy person (from the money which is left over after his expenses). And whoever abstains from asking others for some financial help, Allah will provide for him and save him from asking others; Allah will make him self-sufficient.” Agreed upon and this version is of al-Bukhari.

656. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah was asked, “Which kind of Sadaqah is better? He replied, “That which is given by one who does not have much property. The reward of one will not decrease the reward of the others." Agreed upon.

659. Abū Sa’īd (RAA) narrated, ‘Zainab the wife of Ibn Mas‘ūd came along and said to the Prophet ﷺ, "O Messenger of Allāh!
You have commanded us today to give Sadaqah (charity). \(^{198}\) This hadith means to show the ugliness of begging where there is no real necessity, which makes the person loose his pride so that he comes on the Day of Judgment without any flesh on his face. The Qur'ân praised those whom one thinks they are rich because of their modesty, as they do not beg people in spite of their need. (2:274-275) senger of Allâh ﷺ said, “It is better for any of you to take a rope and cut some wood (from the forest) and carry it over his back and sell it, to preserve his dignity (as he is earning his own living), rather than ask a person for something and that person may give him or not.” Related by Al-Bukhârî.

663. Samurah bin Jundub (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Begging is like a scratch with which a man scratches his face; unless one is asking the ruler or in the case of dire necessity.” Related by at-Tirmidî, who regarded it as Sahîh.

Chapter IV: Division of Zakât (Zakât recipients)

664. Abû Saïd Al-Khudrî narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Zakât is not allowed for the well-off person except for one of the following five: an administrator of Zakât, a man who buys Zakât holdings with his money, a person who is in debt, a fighter in the cause of Allâh, or a rich person who is given a present by a needy (miskin) person which the latter had been given as Zakât.” Related by Ahmad, Abû Dawûd, Ibn Mâjah, and Al-Hâkim regarded it as Sahîh.
665. Uhaidullâh bin 'Adi bin Al-Khiyâr (RAA) narrated that two men told him that they had gone to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ asking him to give them something from the Zakâh money (as he was distributing it at that time). The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ then looked them up and down and found them to be sturdy and strong. He then said to them, “If you desire, I shall give it to you, but this Zakâh is not for one who is rich, neither for the one who is strong and able to earn.” Related by Ahmad, Abû Dawûd and An-Nasâ’î.

666. Qâbîsah bin Mukhâriq Al-Hilâli (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Asking for (the money of) Zakâh, is justified only for the following three: first, a man who is in debt: it is then permissible for him to receive [Zakâh] until his difficulty is resolved; second, a man who was struck by calamity, which destroyed his holdings, which also makes it permissible for him to receive [Zakâh] until he is in a position to earn his own living; and third, a man who has been reduced to poverty and three persons of caliber from among his people testify to his desperate circumstances. Such will receive until he finds a means of support for himself. Other than these cases, O Qabisah, it is considered as not unlawful or earning, and the person receiving it (this Zakāh) will be consuming forbidden (unlawful) holdings.” Related by Muslim, Abu Dawūd, Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn Hibbān.

667. ‘Abdul Muṭṭalib bin Rabī‘ah bin Al-Ḥarīth narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Indeed, Zakāh ought not to be given to the family of Muhammad ﷺ, it will be like giving them from the impurities of people.” In another narration, “It is not lawful for Muhammad or the family of Muḥammad ﷺ.” Related by Muslim.

668. Jubair bin Muṭ‘am (RAA) narrated, “Uṭmān Ibn ‘Affān and I went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ, and said to him, O Messenger of Allāh! 199. The Qurʿān described Zakāh in Sūrah at-Taubah (9:103) by saying: “Take Zakāh from their wealth in order to purify them.” Zakāh is regarded as the act, which purifies the money of the people, as they give out the part, which if they had kept it, would be harām for them to keep since Allāh ordered them to give it.

669. Abū Rāfi` (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ appointed a man from Bani Makhzūm to collect the Zakāh. The man said to Abū Rāfi`, ‘Accompany me so that you may get a share of it.’ Abū Rāfi` replied, ‘No! Not until I go to the Prophet ﷺ and ask him.’ He went to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and asked him, and the Prophet ﷺ replied, “The client (slave) of a certain tribe are like the members of the tribe themselves and Zakāh is not lawful for us.”

670. Sālim bin ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar narrated on the authority of his father (RAA) that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to give ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb something (some money), but he would say to him, ‘Would you give it to a person, who is more needy than me?’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ would then say to him, ‘Take it. If you are given something from this property, without your having asked for it or being eager to receive it, and if you are not given, do not go and ask for it.’ Related by Muslim.

200. Abū Rāfi` was a slave of Al-‘Abbās the uncle of the Prophet ﷺ, and he freed him at the time of the Caliphate of ‘Ali (RAA).
671. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "None of you should fast a day or two before the (beginning of the) month of Ramadān, unless it is a day on which one is in the habit of fasting (i.e. voluntary fasting that coincides with that day)." Agreed upon.

672. Ṭārikh bin Yāsir (RAA) narrated, 'Whoever fasts the day of doubt he has then disobeyed Abū al-Qasim (the Prophet).' Related by the five Imāms, and Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

673. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'I heard the Messenger of Allah say, "Start fasting after you have seen it (i.e. the new crescent) and end the fast (at the end of the month) when you see it. If it is overcast and cannot be seen, then estimate its sighting (i.e. presume that Shābān lasted for thirty days)." Agreed upon.

Muslim narrated, "If it is too overcast to be seen then presume that it (Shābān) lasted for thirty days."

In another narration by al-Bukhārī, "wait until thirty days of it (Shābān) have passed."

674. Al-Bukhārī reported on the authority of Abū Hurairah, "Complete the days of Shābān as thirty days."

675. Ibn 'Abbas (RAA) narrated, 'A Bedouin came to the Prophet (ﷺ) and when I reported to the Messenger of Allah that I had seen it, he fasted and commanded people to fast.' Related by Abū Dawūd, and Al-Hākim and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

676. Ibn 'Abbās (RAA) narrated, 'A Bedouin came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, 'I have sighted the crescent (of Ramadân). He then said to him, "Do you testify that there is none worthy of worship but Allâh?" The Bedouin said, 'Yes.' He asked him again, "Do you testify that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allâh?" The man replied, 'Yes.' The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ thereupon said, "O Bilâl! Announce to the people to (start) fasting tomorrow." Related by the five Imâms. Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahîh. An-Nasâ'î said that it is most probably Mursal (a Hadîth in which the link between the Successor (Tâbi'î) and the Prophet ﷺ is missing.

677. The mother of the believers, Hafsah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "Whoever does not form his intention to fast before Fajr, his fasting will not be accepted." Related by the five Imâms, but At-Tirmidhî and An-Nasâ'î consider it to be related by Hafsah and not connected to the Prophet ﷺ. Imâm Ad-Daraqutni transmitted, "No fasting is accepted for one who does not form the intention (to fast) the night before." 202

678. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'One day the Messenger of Al-

I had been fasting since this morning,” and he ate from it (as it was a voluntary fast and not during the obligatory fasting of Ramadān). Related by Muslim.

679. Sahl bin Sa’d (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, “People will always be fine (on the right path, or following the Sunnah) as long as they hasten to break their fast (in Ramadān).”\textsuperscript{204} Agreed upon.

682. Sulaimân bin `Amir Ad-Dabî (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “When one of you is breaking his fast, he should eat some dates. If dates are not available, then break it with some water, for water is purifying.” Related by the five Imâms. Ibn Khuzaimah, Ibn Hibbân and al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh.

683. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ forbade us from practicing wisâl in fasting (i.e. fasting continuously without breaking one’s fast in the evening or eating before the following dawn). So a man said to him, ‘But you practice wisâl O Messenger of Allâh!’ The Prophet Allâh ﷺ replied, “Which one of you is like me? I am given food and drink during my sleep by Allâh.” So when people refused to stop wisâl, the Prophet ﷺ fasted day and night continuously along with them for a day and then another day and then they saw the crescent (of the new month of Shawwâl). The Prophet ﷺ said to them, “If the crescent had not appeared, I would have made you fast for a longer period.” That was a punishment for them because they refused to stop (practicing Wisâl). Agreed upon.

684. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Whoever does not give up forged speech and evil actions and does not abandon foolishness, Allah is not in need of his leaving food and drink (i.e. Allah will not accept his fasting).” Related by Al-Bukhârî and Abu Dawûd, and the wording is from the latter.

685. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah would kiss and embrace (his wives) while fasting, for he had the most control of all of you over his desires.’ Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim, who added in a narration, ‘In Ramadân.’

Ahmed, Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn Hibbân regarded it as authentic.205

205. The majority of scholars are of the opinion that cupping is allowed while fasting, as proved by the hadîth of Ibn ‘Abbâs that is narrated at a period of time later than that of Shaddâd, as Ibn ‘Abbâs accompanied the Prophet on his farewell pilgrimage. So, it was probably prohibited at
688. Anas (RAA) narrated, 'The first time cupping was disliked for the one who is fasting was when Ja'far bin Abi Talib had himself cupped while fasting and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came across him and said, "Those two have broken their fast (meaning Ja'far and the man who was cupping him)." But later on the Prophet ﷺ allowed cupping for the one who is fasting. Anas used to have himself cupped while he was fasting. Related by Ad-Dara'utni, who regarded it as a strong hadith.

689. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ applied kohl to his eyes while he was fasting.' Related by Ibn Majah with a weak chain of narrators. According to At-Tirmidhi, nothing authentic has been related from the Prophet ﷺ concerning this issue, i.e. applying kohl, eye drops etc. to the eye while fasting.

He then called for a cup of water, which he elevated so that the people could see it, and then he drank. Afterwards, he was told that some people had continued to fast, and he then said, "Those are the disobedient ones! Those are the disobedient ones!"

694. In another narration, 'He was told that people are finding it difficult to fast (during the journey) and they are waiting to see what the Prophet \(\text{مَوْلاَنَّا} \) will do. So he called for a cup of water after the \(\text{'Aṣr} \) (afternoon) prayer and drank it.' Related by Muslim.

695. Hamzah bin ‘Amro Al-Aslami (RAA) narrated, ‘I said to the Messenger of Allah \(\text{مَوْلاَنَّا} \), ‘O Messenger of Allah! I find within me the strength to fast while traveling. Would there be any blame upon me if I were to do so?’ The Messenger of Allah \(\text{مَوْلاَنَّا} \) said to him, “It is a concession from Allah. Whoever takes it has done well. Whoever likes to fast, there is no blame upon him.” Related by Muslim.

696. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘An elderly man is permitted to break his fast, but he must feed a poor person daily, and he does not have to make up for it.’ Related by Ad-Dāraquṭnī and Al-Hākīm, who rendered it to be \(\text{Sahīḥ} \).
697. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that a man came to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and said, “I am ruined O Messenger of Allah!” The Messenger of Allah ﷺ asked him, “What has ruined you?” The man replied, ‘I had intercourse with my wife during the day in Ramadan (while fasting).” The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Are you able to free a slave?” The man said, ‘No.’ The Prophet ﷺ said, “Can you fast for two consecutive months?” He said, ‘No.’ The Prophet then asked him, “Can you provide food for sixty poor people?” He said, ‘No.’ Then the man sat down. A basket of dates was brought to the Prophet ﷺ and he said to the man, “Give this as Sadaqah (voluntary charity).” The man said, ‘To someone who is poorer than us? There is no one in this city (Al-Madinah) who is in need of these dates more than us!’ The Prophet ﷺ laughed until his molar teeth could be seen and said to the man, “Go and feed your family with these dates.” Related by the seven Imams and the wording is from Muslim.

He replied, “Fasting on the day of ‘Ashhûrâ’ is an expiation for the preceding year.” The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was also asked about fasting on Monday, and he replied, “This is the day on which I was born and the day on which I was sent (with the Message of Islam) and the day on which I received revelation.” Related by Muslim.

ger of Allah ﷺ said, "Do not fast on Saturday unless it is an obligatory fast. (Do not fast) even if you do not find anything (to eat) except for some grape peelings or the branch of a tree, in that case he should chew on it." Related by the five Imāms and its narrators are reliable. Imām Mālik disapproved this narration, and Abū Dawūd said that this narration is abrogated.206

713. Umm Salamah (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to fast more often on Saturdays and Sundays than on the other days. He would say, "They are the 'Ids of the polytheists, and I love to act contrary to what they do." Related by An-Nasā'ī and was rendered authentic by Ibn Khuzaimah, and the wording is his.

714. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ forbade fasting on the day of 'Arafah for the one who is actually at 'Arafah (i.e. performing Hajj). Related by the five Im-

206. Imām As-San'āni in 'Subul As-Salām,' says that probably Abū Dawūd says that it is abrogated, because he is referring to the following narration of Umm Salamah, who narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to often fast on Saturdays and Sundays. Imām At-Tirmidhī said that what is disliked here is for a person to exclusively choose Saturday as a day of fasting, as it is the day that the Jews honor. Anyway, most scholars said that it is disliked to fast on Saturday by itself due to the above mentioned Ahādīth, except for Imām Mālik, who said that it is permissible to fast on Saturday by itself, but the hadith of As-Sammā' is evidence against his opinion.
áms except for At-Tirmidhi. Ibn Khuzaimah and al-Hâkim graded it as Sahih.

715. ʿAbdullāh Ibn Ummar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “May he, who perpetually fasts (without a break) never fast.”207 Agreed upon.

716. Muslim narrated on the authority of Abū Qatādah, “May he not fast or break his fast.”

Chapter III: I’tikâf and Night prayer
(Tahajjud) in Ramadān

717. Abū Hurairah narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, “Whoever prays during the night in Ramadān out of 207- The Prophet ﷺ is probably rebuking the one who fasts continuously by making this du’ā’ (supplication) against him, meaning to stop him from doing so. Or it could probably mean that this person will not be rewarded for this fast, as he is acting contrary to the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ who prohibited fasting on ‘Id days and the other days mentioned above.

208- I’tikâf in this context means remaining in a mosque (preferably a congregational mosque) for a certain period of time with the intention of remaining in seclusion from worldly matters, and keeping oneself busy with acts of worship such as praying, fasting, reciting Qur’ān, dhikr etc. In other words one devotes himself purely to the worship of Allāh for that period of time, with the intention of getting closer to Allāh, the Almighty. It could be performed in Ramadān (which is recommended during the last ten days of the month) or at other times.
sincere faith and seeking its reward from Allāh, will have all of his previous sins forgiven.” Agreed upon.

718. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘With the start of the last ten days of Ramadān, the Messenger of Allāh  used to tighten his waist belt (i.e. keep away from his wives) and used to stay up praying all night, and he would also wake his wives (to pray and recite Qur’ān etc.).’” Agreed upon.

719. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh  used to perform I’tikāf during the last ten days of Ramadān until he died. Then his wives used to perform I’tikāf after his death.’ Agreed upon.

720. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘Whenever the Messenger of Allāh  intended to make I’tikāf, he would pray the morning prayer and then he would enter the place of his I’tikāf (i.e. the place, which he had prepared for his I’tikāf inside the mosque).’ Agreed upon.

721. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh  used to put his head into (the window of my house) while he was in the mosque (performing I'tikāf) and I would comb his hair. When he was in I'tikāf he would not enter the house except for some need.” Agreed upon and the wording is from Al-Bukhārī.

722. ʿAʾishah (RAA) narrated, ‘It is Sunnah for the one performing I’tikāf not to visit the sick, attend a funeral, or touch his wife (with sexual desire), nor have sexual intercourse with her. He should also not go out (of the mosque) except for an extreme necessity, and no I’tikāf is accepted without fasting, or without being in a congregational mosque (where Friday prayer is performed).’ Related by Abū Dawūd with an acceptable chain of narrators, but scholars say that the last part (starting: ‘no I’tikāf is accepted...) is most probably the saying of ʿAʾishah (RAA), i.e. Hadith Mauquf (i.e. that which the companion does not connect to the Prophet ﷺ) and it is not the saying of the Prophet ﷺ himself.

723. Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “The one who is performing I’tikāf does not have to fast unless he obliges himself to do so.” Related by ad-Dāraquṭnī and al-Hākīm, and most probably it is also the saying of Ibn ʿAbbās, i.e. Mauquf and not of the sayings of the Prophet ﷺ.

209. According to most scholars it is preferable for one to fast while performing I’tikāf but he is not obliged to do so.
724. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'Some of the companions of the Prophet ﷺ were shown in their dreams that the night of Qadr was in the last seven nights of Ramadan. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to them, “It seems that all of your dreams agree that (the Night of Qadr) is in the last seven nights, and whoever wants to seek that night should do so in the last seven nights (of Ramadan).” Agreed upon.

725. Mu’awiyah bin Abi Sufiyan (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah said regarding the night of al-Qadr, “It is the 27th night (of Ramadan).” Related by Abu Dawūd. But it is most probably the saying of Mu’awiyah and not the Prophet ﷺ.

210- The night of Qadr is the most virtuous night of the year, as Allāh says in the Qur’ān: “Verily! We have sent it in the night of al-Qadr. And what will make you know what the night of al-Qadr is? The night of Al-Qadr is better than a thousand months...” (Sūrah 97). Any action done on that night for example, reciting the Qur’ān, making dhikr of Allah, and so on, is better than acting for one thousand months, which do not contain the night of Qadr. It is to be expected in the last ten days of Ramadān.

211- Scholars hold different opinions as to when the night of al-Qadr occurs. Some are of the opinion that it is the 21st, some say the 23rd, others say the 25th and yet others say that it is the 29th. Some are of the opinion that it varies from year to year, but most scholars believe that it is most probably the 27th of Ramadān due to the hadith related by Ahmad on the authority of Ibn ‘Umar, that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “He who likes to seek that night should do so on the 27th.”
726. `A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘I asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, “O Messenger of Allah, if I know what night the night of Qadr is, what should I say during it?” He said, “Say: O Allah, You are the Pardoner and You love to pardon, so pardon me.” Related by the five Imams except for Abû Dawûd. At-Tirmidhî and Al-Hâkîm reported it as Sahîh.

727. Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khûdri (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “One should not undertake journeys except to three mosques: al-Masjid al-Harâm (in Makkah), the Aqsa mosque, or this mosque (in Madînah).” Agreed upon.

212. Scholars say that if one makes a vow to perform I’tihâf in one of these three mosques in particular, then he should fulfill his vow, due to this hadîth, which indicates that these mosques have special preference over any other mosque. But if someone vows to perform I’tihâf in another mosque, it is not obligatory on him to fulfill it and he may perform it in any place.
Book VI: Pilgrimage

Chapter I: Its virtues and those upon whom Hajj (Pilgrimage) is obligatory

728. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The performance of Umrah is an expiation for all the sins committed (between this Umrah and the previous one), and the reward for Hajj Mabrur \(^{213}\) (the one accepted by Allah or the one which was performed without doing any wrong) is nothing save Paradise." Agreed upon.

729. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'I once asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, 'O Messenger of Allah! Is Jihād incumbent upon women? He replied, 'Yes. They have to take part in Jihād in which no fighting takes place, which is: Hajj and Umrah.' Related by Ahmad and Ibn Majah and the wording is his. It is reported with a sound chain of narrators.

\(^{213}\) It is the Hajj accepted by Allah or the one, which is performed pure of any sins or evil actions.
730. ِJaibir bin 'Abdullah (RAA) narrated, ‘A Bedouin came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘O Messenger of Allah! Tell me about Umrah! Is it compulsory? He replied ﷺ, “No (it is not compulsory), but it is better for you to perform it.” Related by Ahmad and at-Tirmidhi. Scholars are of the opinion that it is Mawqûf.

Ibn ‘Adi narrated with a weak chain of narrators on the authority of Jaibir (RAA) in a Hadith Marfu (connected to the Prophet ﷺ), “Hajj and Umrah are compulsory.”

731. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was asked, ‘What is as-Sabil?’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ replied, “ Provision of food and means to make the journey.” Related by Ad-Dâraquţnî and rendered authentic by Al-Hâkim.

732. At-Tirmidhî reported the same hadith on the authority of Ibn ‘Umar but with a weak chain of narrators.

214. Most scholars hold the opinion that Umrah is Sunnah and not a compulsory duty.

215. The man is asking about what is meant by being able to perform Hajj as mentioned in the verse, “And Hajj is a duty that mankind owes to Allah, those who can afford the journey.” (3:97).
733. Ibn 'Abbas (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah came across some riders at ar-Rauha (a place near Madinah). He asked them, "Who are you?" They replied, 'Who are you?' He replied, "I am the Messenger of Allah." A woman then lifted up a boy, and asked the Prophet, Will this boy be rewarded for Hajj? The Messenger of Allah replied, "Yes, and you too will be rewarded." Related by Muslim.

734. Ibn 'Abbās (RAA) narrated that 'Al-Fadl Ibn 'Abbas was riding behind the Messenger of Allah when a woman from the tribe of Khath'am came along, and al-Fadl started looking at her and she also started looking at him. The Messenger of Allah kept on turning al-Fadl's face to the other side. She said, 'O Messenger of Allah! Allah has prescribed Hajj for His servants, and it has become due on my father who is an old man, who cannot sit stable on his mount. Shall I perform Hajj on his behalf?' The Prophet replied, "Yes, you may." This incident took place during 216

216: The boy will be rewarded for his obedience, while the mother will be rewarded for carrying and instructing him to perform Hajj. This hadith is evidence that performing Hajj by someone before attaining puberty is correct and acceptable, but once he attains the age of puberty, he is to perform Hajj once again, as Hajj is compulsory on adults only.
the Farewell Pilgrimage of the Prophet ﷺ. Agreed upon, and the wording is from Al-Bukhārī.

735. Ibn `Abbas (RAA) narrated, ‘A woman from the tribe of Juhainah came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘My mother had vowed to perform Hajj, but she died before fulfilling her vow. Should I perform Hajj on her behalf?’ The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes perform Hajj on her behalf. Had there been a debt on your mother, would you have paid it or not? So, pay off her debt to Allāh, for He is most deserving of settlement of His debt.” Related by Al-Bukhārī.

736. Ibn `Abbas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Any minor (child) who performs Hajj must perform it again after coming of age; any slave who performs Hajj and is then freed, must perform his Hajj again.” Reported by Ibn Shaibah and Al-Baihaqi. Its narrators are authoritative but scholars say that it is Mawquf.
737. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ saying, “A man must never be alone with a woman unless there is a Mahram\(^{217}\) with her. A woman also may not travel with anyone except with a Mahram (relative).” A man stood up and asked, ‘O Messenger of Allah! My wife has gone for Hajj while I am enlisted for such and such a battle, what should I do?’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ replied, “Go and join your wife in Hajj.” Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

738. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ heard a man saying, ‘O Allah! Here I am in response to Your call (saying Labbayk on behalf...) on behalf of Shubrumah.’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ asked him, “Have you performed your own Hajj?” He replied, ‘No,’ whereupon the Prophet ﷺ told him, “You must perform Hajj on your own behalf first, and then perform it on behalf of Shubrumah.” Related by Abū Dawūd and Ibn Mājah. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

739. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ once addressed us and said, “O People! Hajj has been prescribed for you." Al-Aqra' bin Habis stood up and asked, 'O Prophet of Allah! Are we to perform Hajj every year?' The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Had I said 'yes', it would have become a (yearly) obligation. Hajj is obligatory only once in one's lifetime. Whatever one does over and above this is supererogatory (a voluntary act) for him." Related by the five Imams except for at-Tirmidhi.

740. A similar narration was also related by Muslim on the authority of Abu Huraira.

Chapter II: Mawāqit: Fixed Times and Places For Ihram

741. Ibn `Abbas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ specified for the people of Madinah, DhulHulaifah (a place 540 km to the north of Makkah) as miqāt. For those coming from ash-Shām (including Syria, Jordan and Palestine), he specified al-Juhfah (a place 187 km to the north-west of Makkah and close to Rābigh, where they now perform their Ihram). For those coming from Najd, he specified Qur'ān al-Manāzil, (a mountain, 94 km to the east of Makkah, overlooking `Arafah. For those coming from Yemen, he specified Yalamlam (a mountain 54 km to the south of Makkah. These places are for the people (coming from the above specified countries) as well as for others, who pass by them on their way to perform Hajj or Umrah. Those living within those boundaries can assume Ihram from where they set out (for the journey), and even the residents of Makkah, their Miqat would be the place where they are staying in Makkah.' Agreed upon.

742. `A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah specified for those coming from Iraq, Dhät Irq (a place 94 km to the north-east of Makkah) as their Miqat.' Related by Abû Dawûd and An-Nasa'î.

743. Muslim related a similar narration on the authority of Jâbir, but it is most probably Mawqûf.

744. Al-Bukhârî reported that it was `Umar, who specified Dhät Irq as the miqat (of those coming from Iraq).

745. Ibn `Abbâs narrated that the Messenger of Allâh specified al-`Aqîq (a part of Dhät Irq) for those coming from the east.' Related by Ahmad, Abû Dawûd and An-Nasa'î.

219 After al-Bagrah and al-Kûfah were conquered.
Chapter III: Kinds of Ihram

746. 'A’ishah (RAA) narrated, 'We left Madinah with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to perform the Farewell Hajj. Some of us declared Ihram to perform 'Umrah, while others declared their intentions to perform both Hajj and 'Umrah. Yet others declared their Ihram to perform Hajj only. The Prophet ﷺ declared Ihram for Hajj only. Those who intended 'Umrah terminated their Ihram as soon as they finished the rituals of 'Umrah. Those who intended to perform Hajj only or to combine Hajj with 'Umrah, did not terminate their Ihram until the Day of Slaughtering (i.e. the day of sacrifice or 'Idul Ad-hâ).’ Agreed upon.

Chapter IV: The Etiquettes of Ihram

747. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to start saying the Talbiyah (after entering the state of Ihram) from the mosque of Dhul Hulaifah (i.e. from the Miqât of Madinah).’ Agreed upon.
748. Khallâd bin as-Sâ'îb narrated on the authority of his father, ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Jibrîl (peace be upon him) came to me and told me: ‘Command your Companions to raise their voices when saying Talbiyah.’” Related by the five Imâms and rendered authentic by At-Tirmidî and Ibn Hibbân.

749. Zaid bin Thâbit (RA) narrated, ‘When the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ intended to make Ihrâm for Hajj, he would wash, and take off his ordinary clothes (and put on his white Ihrâm).’ Related by At-Tirmidî who declared it to be Hadith Hasan.

750. Ibn Umar (RA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was asked about what the person who is in a state of Ihrâm (Muhîrîm) should wear. He answered, “A person in the state of Ihrâm is not allowed to wear a sewn shirt, a turban, trousers, a hooded robe, shoes or sewn slippers (Khuff), unless one is unable to find unsown slippers, then he may wear his Khuff or shoes provided one cuts them below the ankles, and you must not wear clothing that has been dyed with sweet smelling fragrance (such as saffron).” Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

220- Leather foot-wear which covers the ankles.
751. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘I used to apply perfume to the Prophet صل الله عليه وسلم when he intended to enter the state of Ḥijrāt, before he put on his Ḥīrām (garments). And again when he ended his state of Ḥīrām, but before he had made Tawaf around the Ka’bah.’

Agreed upon.

752. Uthmān bin ‘Affān (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “A Muḥrīm (one in the state of Ḥīrām) must not contract marriage, nor help others contract marriage, nor get engaged to marry.” Related by Muslim.

753. Abū Qatādah Al-Anṣārī (RAA) narrated concerning his hunting a zebra while he is not in a state of Ḥīrām,222 that ‘Allāh’s...
Messenger ﷺ said to Abû Qatâdah's companions—who were in a state of Ḥāram, “Did any one of you ask Abû Qatâdah to attack the herd, or point it out to him?” They said, ‘No.’ The Prophet ﷺ then said, “Then, you may eat what is left of the quarry.” Agreed upon.

754. As-Sa‘b bin Jath-thamah al-Laithi (RAA) narrated, 'He presented to the Prophet ﷺ the meat of a zebra while he was in the area known as al-Abwâ’ or Waddân. The Prophet ﷺ declined it, and said to him, “We declined your present only because we are in the state of Ḥāram.” 223 Agreed upon.

755. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Five kinds of animals are vicious and harmful, and they may be killed outside or inside the sacred area of Haram (Sanctuary). These are: the scorpion, the kite, the crow, the mouse, and the rabid dog.” Agreed upon.

(as in the hadith). Scholars deduced from this story that it is permissible for the Muḥrim to eat land game as long as he did not ask for it to be hunted, pointed it out to the person who hunted it or helped in the hunt.

223. The Prophet ﷺ declined the present because the man caught it especially for the Prophet ﷺ while he was in the state of Ḥāram. What is allowed for the muḥrim is to eat what was given as a present from land game that was not caught for the muḥrim but for the one who is not in the state of Ḥāram, who caught it for himself and then decided to give some of it to the muḥrim as a present.
756. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ had himself cupped while he was in the state of Ḥarm.' Agreed upon.

757. Kaʻb bin `Ujrah (RAA) narrated, 'I was carried to the Prophet ﷺ and the lice were falling over my face. He said, "I did not know that your disease is hurting you as much as what I see. Can you sacrifice a sheep?" I said, 'No.' He then said, "Fast for three days or feed six poor people, half a Ṣā' each."'224 Agreed upon.

758. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'When Allāh, the Most High granted His Messenger ﷺ victory on the conquest of Makka, the Prophet ﷺ addressed the people, so he glorified Allāh and praised Him, and said, "Allāh withheld the elephant from

760. 'Ali bin Abi Talib (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "Madīnah is a Haram (Sanctuary) and its Sacred Precincts extend from 'Air to Thawr (the names of two mountains)." Related by Muslim.

Chapter V: Description of Hajj Rituals and Entering Makkah Jābir bin ʿAbdullāh (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ performed Ḥāji (on the 10th year of Hijrah), and we set out with him (to perform Ḥāji). When we reached Dhul-Hulaifah, ʿAsmāʾ bint ʿUmais gave birth to Muḥammad Ibn ʿAbī Bakr. She sent a message to the Prophet ﷺ (asking him what she should do). He said, “Take a bath, bandage your private parts and make the intention for Ḥārām.” The Prophet ﷺ then prayed in the mosque and then mounted al-Qaswāʾ (his she-camel) and it stood erect with him on its back at al-Baida’ (the place where he started his Ḥārām). He then started pronouncing the Ṭalbiyah, saying: “Labbaika Allâhumma labbaik labbaika la sharika laka labbaik, innal hamda wan-niʿmata laka wal mulk, la sha rika lakah (O Allah! I hasten to You. You have no partner. I hasten to You. All praise and grace is Yours and all Sovereignty too; You have no partner). When we came with him to the House (of Allah), he placed his hands on the Black Stone (Hajar al Aswad) and kissed it. He then started to make seven circuits (round the Ka‘bah), doing ramal (trotting) in three of them and walking (at his normal pace) four other circuits. Then going to the place of Ibrāhīm (Maq-ām Ibrāhīm), there he prayed two rak‘āt. He then returned to the Black Stone (Hajar al Aswad) placed his hands on it and kissed it.
Then he went out of the gate to Safa, and as he approached it, he recited: “Verily as-Safa and Marwah are among the signs appointed by Allah,” (2:158), adding, “I begin with what Allah began.” He first mounted as-Safa until he saw the House, and facing the Qiblah he declared the Oneness of Allah and glorified Him and said: ‘La ilaha illa-llāh wahdahu la sharika lāhu, lahul mulk wa lahu hamd, wa huwa ‘ala kulli shay’in qadeer, la ilaha illa-llāhu wahdahu wajzama wa‘dahu, wa nasara ‘abdahu, wa hazamal ahzaba wahdah’ (There is no God but Allah, He is One, and has no partner. His is the dominion, and His is the praise and He has Power over all things. There is no God but Allah alone, Who fulfilled His promise, helped His serv-vant and defeated the confederates alone.”) He said these words three times making supplications in between. He then descended and walked towards Marwah, and when his feet touched the bottom of the valley, he ran; and when he began to ascend, he walked (at his normal pace) until he reached Marwah. There he did as he had done at Safa......

When it was the day of Tarwiyyah (8th of Dhul-Hijjah) they went to Minā and put on the Ihram for Hajj and the Messenger of Allah rode his mount, and there he led the Dhuhur (noon), ‘Asr (afternoon), Maghrib (sunset), ‘Ishā and Fajr (dawn) prayers. He then waited a little until the sun had risen, and commanded that a tent be pitched at Namirah (close to Arafah). The Messenger of Allah continued on until he came to ‘Arafah and he found that the tent had been pitched for him at Namirah. There he got down until the sun had passed its meridian; he commanded that al-Qaswār be brought and saddled for him, then he came to the bottom of the valley, and addressed the people with the well-known sermon Khutbat al-Wadā’ (the Farewell Sermon). Then the Adhān was pronounced and later on the Iqāmah and the Prophet led the Dhuhr (noon) prayer. Then another Iqâmah was pronounced and the Prophet led the 'Asr (afternoon) prayer and he observed no other prayer in between the two.

The Messenger of Allah then mounted his camel and came to the place where he was to stay. He made his she-camel, al-Qaswâ', turn towards the rocky side, with the pedestrian path lying in front of him. He faced the Qiblah, and stood there until the sun set, and the yellow light diminished somewhat, and the disc of the sun totally disappeared. He pulled the nose string of al-Qaswâ' so forcefully that its head touched the saddle (in order to keep her under perfect control), and pointing with his right hand, advised the people to be moderate (in speed) saying: “O people! Calmness! Calmness!” Whenever he passed over an elevated tract of land, he slightly loosened the nose-string of his camel until she climbed up. This is how he reached al-Muzdalifah. There he led the Maghrib (sunset) and 'Ishâ prayers with one Adhân and two Iqâmas, and did not pray any optional prayers in between them.

The Messenger of Allah then lay down until dawn and then offered the Fajr (dawn) prayer with an Adhân and an Iqâmah when the morning light was clear. He again mounted al-Qaswâ', and when he came to Al-Mash'ar Al-Haram (The Sanctuary Landmark, which is a small mountain at al-Muzdalifah) he faced the Qiblah, and supplicated to Allâh, Glorified Him, and pronounced His Uniqueness and Oneness, and kept standing until the daylight was very clear. Then he set off quickly before the sun rose, until he came to the bottom of the valley of Muḥassir where he urged her (al-Qaswâ') a little. He followed the middle road, which comes out at the greatest Jamara (one of the three stoning sites called Jamrat-ul 'Aqabah), he came to Jamara which is near the tree. At this he threw seven small pebbles, saying, 'Allâhu Akbar' while throwing each of them in a manner in which small pebbles are thrown (holding them with his fingers) and this he did while at the bottom of the valley.

He then went to the place of sacrifice, and sacrificed sixty-three (camels) with his own hand (he brought 100 camels with him and he asked 'Ali to sacrifice the rest). The Messenger of Allah again rode and came to the House (of Allâh), where he performed Tawâf Al-Ifâdah and offered the Dhuhr prayer at Makkah...’ Muslim transmitted this hadith through a very long narration describing the full details of the Hajj of the Prophet.

768. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that whenever he made Tawaf round the Ka’bah, he would trot during the first three circuits

Then he would go ahead until he reached the bottom of the valley, where he would stand for quite a long time facing the direction of the Qiblah, and raising his hands, while supplicating Allāh. Then he went and threw seven pebbles at the second Jamrah (al-Jamarah al-Wosta) while saying Allāhu Akbar with each throw. He would then turn to the left of the bottom of the valley, stand there facing the Qiblah and supplicating to Allāh with his hands raised. 795. Anas (RAA), narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ rested for a while at al-Muhassab (a valley opening at al-Abtah between Makkah and Minâ) prayed Dhûhr, ’Asr, Maghrib and ’Ishâ’ prayers after which he rode to the Ka’bah and made Tawâf.’ Related by Al-Bukhârî.

234- This indicates that a muhrim can preset a condition that if he is prevented from performing Hajj or ‘Umrah then he is relieved from his Ihram whenever he is prevented.
801. Ikrimah narrated on the authority of Al-Hajjâj bin 'Amr al-Ansâri (RAA), that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone breaks (a leg) or becomes lame (while he was performing Hajj or 'Umrah) he is released from him Ihram and must perform Hajj the next year." 803. Jābir bin `Abdullāh (RAA) narrated, ‘He heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say in the year of the Conquest (of Makkah) while he was in Makkah, “Allāh has prohibited the sale of alcohol, dead animals, pigs, and idols.” People asked, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! What about the fat of dead animals, it is used for...’
greasing boats and skins and people use it for making oil for lamps.' He said, 'No, it is Ḥarām.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then added, 'May Allāh curse the Jews, for Allāh made the fat (of animals) Ḥarām (unlawful) for them, yet they melted the fat, sold it and ate its price.' Agreed upon.

The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ then said to Jábir, “Sell it to me for one Uqiyah (ounce) of gold.” Jábir said, ‘No.’ He again said, “Sell it to me for one Uqiyah of gold”. Jábir says, ‘I sold it for one Uqiyah and stipulated that I should ride it to my house.’ When we reached (Madinah) I took that camel to the Prophet ﷺ and he gave me its price. I returned home but he sent for me (and when I went to him) he said, “Do you think that I asked you to reduce the price to take your camel? Take your camel and your money it is all yours.” Agreed upon and this is Muslim’s version.

807. Jábir (RAA) narrated, ‘A man decided that a slave of his would be free after his death, but the man had no other property. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ took the slave and called (the people) for one to buy him (from the Prophet ﷺ), and he sold him.’

Agreed upon.

808. Maimûnah (the wife of the Prophet ﷺ) (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was asked about a mouse that fell into a pot of clarified butter, and died inside it. He said, “Take out (the mouse) and what is around it, and throw it away. Then eat (the rest of) your clarified butter.” Related by Al-Bukhârî. Ahmad and an-Nasâ’î added the following, ‘in solid clarified butter’.

235. In the narration of Al-Bukhârî, Nu’aim bin ‘Abdullâh bought him and paid 800 Dirhams. Scholars say that this Hadith is evidence that the ruler can sell the property of a man who is bankrupt and divide the money among his debtors or give it to him to spend (as in this Hadith).
809. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "If a mouse fell into a pot of clarified butter, and the butter is solid, take it (the mouse) and what is around it out and throw it away. But if the butter was melted (i.e. in a liquid state) do not touch it (i.e. throw it all away)." Related by Ahmad and Abū Dawūd. Al-Bukhārī and Abū Hātim ruled it to be weak.

810. Abū Az-Zubair (RAA) narrated, 'I asked Jābir about the price of cats and dogs.' He answered me, 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ rebuked that.' Related by Muslim. In a version by An-Nasa‘ī, he added, "Except that of a hunting dog."236

236- There is a consensus among the scholars about the price of the dog except the one used for hunting or guarding. They differed over the price of a cat, but they agreed to selling it if it is used for a certain benefit.
811. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'Barirah came to me and said, I have made an agreement with my masters to pay them nine Uqiyas (ounces, of gold) (in installments) one Uqiyah per year, so please help me (to pay the money). 'A'ishah replied, I am ready to pay the whole amount now provided your masters agree that your Walā™ will be for me.' Barirah went back to her masters and told them about that offer but they refused to accept it. She returned, and at that time, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was present (at 'A'ishah's house). Barirah said to 'A'ishah, 'I told them about the offer but they did not accept it and insisted on having the Walā' for themselves.' The Prophet ﷺ heard that, and 'A'ishah narrated the whole story to him. He then said to her, 'Buy her and stipulate that the Walā' should be yours, as Walā' is (legally) for the manumitter.' 'A'ishah (RAA) did so and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ stood up in front of the people, and after glorifying and praising Allah, he said, "What about the people who impose conditions which are not in Allah's Book (i.e. contradictory to Islamic Shari'ah)? "Every condition that is not found in the Book of Allah is invalid, even if its number is one hundred. Allah's decisions are the right ones and His conditions are the firmer ones, and the Walā' is for the manumitter." Agreed upon and the wording is from Al-Bukhari.

In Muslim's version, "Buy her and manumit her, and stipulate that her Walā' loyalty is yours."

237. Walā' refers to the right of inheriting the property of a manumitted slave after his death. The one who has the most right to inherit from him is the one who manumitted him.

240- This narration refers to any water in excess of one’s needs whether found in land which is not owned by anybody, or in someone’s land, whether in a well or otherwise, as no one should prohibit others from using water which is in excess of his own need, as the Prophet ﷺ said that people are partners in water, grass and fire.

242- Sale involving risk or chance, i.e. the sale of what is not present at the moment.

243- Scholars disagreed on what is meant by a double sale in this hadith. Some say that it is selling commodities with two prices, one immediate and another higher, which is deferred to a later time, the second included an increase for the delayed selling of a commodity over its immediate price. But most scholars refuted this opinion claiming that it is a legitimate form of sale that existed in authentic texts (selling by installment). The second form is selling with two prices, one immediate and another higher, deferred and uncertain. The seller tells him, 'It is for such and such amount of cash and for such and such amount of delayed payment and they depart while being uncertain without having determined anything. This form is prohibited. Some scholars say that one of its forms is to make a double deal, one says I sell you my horse on the condition that you sell me your slave.
822. Amro bin Shu'aib narrated on his father's authority who reported from his grandfather (RAA) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "It is prohibited to have a loan combined with a sale (in one deal), or having two conditions in a sale, or claiming a profit on something which is not in your possession." 823. Amro bin Shu’aib narrated on his father’s authority who reported from his grandfather (RAA) that 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ prohibited Bai’u al-Urbân (paying nonrefundable deposits).” Related by Malik.

244- The seller stipulates that the buyer gives him a loan to sell him the goods, or that the buyer borrows the money from the seller as a condition to buy his commodity.

245- As long as the goods are still in the possession of the seller, the profit belongs to him until the transaction is complete. So he is the one who gains any profit or bears any loss. The buyer cannot claim any profit until he possesses the goods.

246- It is a form of prohibited sales in which a nonrefundable deposit is paid towards the price of an item. If the buyer decides to keep it, the deposit is part of the price, but if he does not, then the seller keeps the deposit.
824. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated, 'I bought some oil from the market and when I came to take it, I met a man who offered me a good profit (i.e. wanted to buy it from me). 848 - وعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ - رضي الله عنه - قال: «أَنَّ النَّبِي صلَّى الله عليه وسلم نهى عن تبيع المصاصبين والملاقيح.» رواه البخاري، ومَيْن إسناده ضَعْفٌ.

Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “The seller and the buyer have the right to go ahead (with the deal) or cancel it so long as they have not parted – physically – (and are still at the place transaction), or until one of them gives the other the choice (to think over the deal for a few days even if they parted physically, or to go ahead with the deal before they part). If one of them gives the other this option and the deal is made on this condition, then it becomes binding (even before they part, according to the set condition). And if they part after they have made the bargain and none of them decided to abandon it, the agreement is also binding.” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

849. ‘Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on his father’s authority who reported from his grandfather (RAA), that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “The seller and the buyer have the right to go ahead (with the deal) or cancel it as long as they have not parted – physically – (and are still at the place of transaction), unless it is a deal of choice, whereby one of them gives the choice to the other to go ahead with the deal or to cancel it before they actually part (i.e. on the spot). And it is not permissible for one of them to part from his companion (before they make the final agreement) for he may want to cancel the deal.”

268 - During times of droughts, the Arabs had the habit of lending some of their palm trees to those who had none so as to eat the fruit of these trees for a certain period of time. Sometimes the owner of the palm trees would be bothered by the frequent coming into his garden of the one the tree is lent to. So, the Prophet (P.B.U.H.) gave them the permission (to the lender) to buy the dates while still unharvested (even though this is prohibited otherwise) from the man he lent it to, for an amount of weighed dried or fresh dates. 270. Já’ihah or Calamity could be any of the diseases or infestations which affect plants and may totally or partially destroy them. It could also be any unfortunate condition which was not caused by man, such as wind, snow, cold, lack of water etc.

271. There is a difference of opinion among the scholars over the Já’ihah. Sháfi’í and Abú Hanífah are of the opinion that if the fruit was sold before being ripe, while it was still on the tree, then the seller is not to take any money as it is prohibited to sell fruit before it is ripe (while on the tree), but if they are sold after becoming ripe, then the seller is not to repay the buyer any of the price. Ibn Hanbál is of the opinion that the price of any damaged fruit is not to be claimed by the seller, and the buyer has the right to ask for a reduction in this case. Still many scholars believe that it is recommended as a moral obligation that the seller does not claim the full price, as compensation to his Muslim brother for his loss, and that is actually the implicit recommendation in this hadith.

right to divorce her. Related by Ahmad and the authors of the Sunan except for At-Tirmidhi. Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh.

895. Qabîsah bin Mukhâriq (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Asking for (the money of) Zakâh, is justified only for the following three: first, a man who is in debt, it is then permissible for him to receive [Zakâh] until his difficulty is resolved; second, a man who was struck by calamity which destroyed his holdings, which also makes it permissible for him to receive [Zakâh] until he is in a position to earn his own sustenance; and third, a man who has been reduced to poverty and three persons of caliber from among his people testify to his desperate situation, will receive until he finds for himself a means of support.” Related by Muslim.

280. Imam al-Khattâbî said that this is not an obligation on the woman, rather it is just preferable due to the joint life between them to take his permission, or that this is only relevant to a woman who has not reached puberty. This is supported by the Hadith, which relates that the Prophet ﷺ said to the women (on the Day of al-Adhâ), “Give Charity”, and the women straight away started to throw their jewelry to the Prophet ﷺ, whether ear-rings, rings etc and Bilîl was collecting them in his garment, and this is considered as giving of their property without the permission of the husband, and this is the opinion of the scholars.
Chapter VII: Reconciliation

896. 'Amro bin 'Auf al-Muzani (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Reconciliation is permissible between Muslims, except one which makes something that is lawful (Halāl) as unlawful, or makes something which is unlawful (Harām) as lawful. Muslims are to adhere to their terms (conditions) save a term that permits something which is unlawful (Harām) or prohibits something which is lawful (Halāl).” Related by At-Tirmidhī who graded it as Sahih, but scholars disagreed with him because the narration of Kathūr bin 'Abdullāh bin 'Amro bin 'Auf is weak. Perhaps at-Tirmidhī considered it reliable as it was narrated through many chains of narrators.

897. Ibn Hibbān rendered it as a Hadith Sahih on the authority of Abū Hurairah.

898. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “No one should prevent his neighbor from fixing a wooden peg in his wall.” Abū Hurairah then said (to his companions), ‘Why do I find you averse to it? By Allah, I will always

Chapter VIII: Hiwālah (Transferring the Right to Collect a Debt) and Damān (Guaranteeing Payment)

900. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, "Lingering in repaying due debts by a wealthy person is an act of injustice. And if one of you is referred to a wealthy person (i.e. his debt is transferred to that person to pay it on his behalf), he should accept it." Agreed upon.
901. Jábir (RAA) narrated, 'A man from among us died, so we made Ghusl for him and shrouded him, and we brought him to the Prophet ﷺ, and said, 'Shall we offer the funeral prayer (Janâzah) for him?' Allah's Messenger ﷺ made a few steps forward and then said, "Is he in debt?" We replied, 'Yes, two Dinârs (that he owes to somebody).' The Messenger of Allah ﷺ then turned away, but Abû Qatâdah took upon himself the responsibility to pay the debt. We then went back to the Prophet ﷺ and Abû Qatâdah said, 'I shall pay the two Dinârs.' The Messenger of Allah ﷺ thereupon said, "Are you taking the responsibility of paying the creditor his rights? In that case the dead will be free from this obligation" Abû Qatâdah said, 'Yes.' The Messenger of Allah ﷺ then offered the funeral prayer for the deceased. Related by Ahmad, Abû Dawûd and An-Nasa’î. Ibn Hibbân and al-Hâkim graded it as Sahih.

902. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'Whenever a man, who had died while being in debt was brought to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ, he would ask, 'Has he left anything to repay his debt?' If he was told that he had left something to repay his debts, he would lead the funeral prayer for him, otherwise he would say, "Offer the funeral prayer for your brother." When Allâh guaranteed His Messenger ﷺ wealth through conquests, he said, 'I am closer to the believers than themselves, so if a Muslim dies while in debt, I am responsible for the repayment of his debt.”
Agreed upon.
In a version by Al-Bukhári, “Whoever dies without leaving anything to pay his debt, I am responsible ...”

903. ‘Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather, that the Messenger of Alláh said, “No guarantee (i.e. guaranteeing another’s appearance) is accepted in prescribed punishments.” Related by Al-Baihaqí with a weak chain of narrators.

Chapter IX: Partnership and Agency

904. Abú Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Alláh said, “Alláh, the Most High says, ‘I am the third (partner) of two partners as long as one of them does not betray the other; if they betray (each other), I shall depart from them.” Related by Abú Dawúd. Al-Hákim graded it as Sahih.

905. As-Sá‘ib Al-Makhzúmí (RAA) narrated that he was the partner of the Prophet before the Message. On the Day of the Conquest of Makkah, the Prophet said (to him), “Welcome my brother and my partner." Related by Ahmad, Abū Dawūd and Ibn Mājah.

906. 'Abdullāh Ibn Mas'ūd (RAA) narrated, 'Ammār, Sa'd and I agreed to become partners in whatever we obtained from the war booties on the Day of Badr.' Related by An-Nasā'i.

907. Jābir bin 'Abdullāh (RAA) narrated, 'I intended to go to Khaibar, so I went to the Prophet (to tell him) and he said to me, "If you meet my agent (who collects the Zakāh property) at Khaibar, take fifteen Awsuq from him." Related by Abū Dawūd who graded it as Sahih.

908. 'Urwah al-Bāriqī (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh gave him a Dīnār to buy him a sacrificial animal or sheep (refer to hadith no. 839.) Related by Al-Bukhārī.

909. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh sent 'Umar to collect the Zakāh property.' Agreed upon.
910. Jābir bin ʿAbdullāh (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh oble sacrificed sixty-three (camels) and ordered ʿAlī to slaughter the rest (refer to hadith 760).' Related by Muslim.

911. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated with relevance to the story of the hired slave (who committed adultery with the wife of his master), "Go Unais to the wife of this (man, i.e. the master) and if she confesses (that she has committed adultery), then stone her to death.' Agreed upon.

912. Abu Dharr (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh oble said to me, "Say the truth no much how bitter it is." Related by Ibn Hibbān as a part of a long Hadith and graded it as Sahīh.

Bab al-ʿArāya

Chapter XI: Al-ʿArāya (Lending something For use)

913. Samurah bin Jundub (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Al-lâh said, “The hand (the person) which borrowed bears responsibility for the taken item, until it is returned.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms. Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahih.

914. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said, “Render back the trusts to those who trusted you, and do not betray those who betrayed you.” Related by At-Tirmidhi and Abu Dawûd who graded it as Hasan.

915. Ya’li bin Umaiyah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said to me, “When my messengers come to you, give them thirty coats of mail.” I asked, ‘O Messenger of Allâh! Is it a lent item with a guarantee of its return (Madmûnah), or just a lent item that will be returned (Mu’addâh) (in this case he is not financially liable for its loss or destruction.” The Messenger of Allâh said, “No, it is a lent item that will be returned.”

281- For which he (the person lent to) is financially liable if it is destroyed due to negligence or being used for other than what the lender permitted.

282- Some scholars take this hadith as evidence that the person who borrows an item for a certain period of time is not financially liable for its destruction but is only responsible to give it back as long as it is safe. But most scholars are of the opinion that if a lent item is lost or destroyed due to misuse then the person who borrowed it must pay its price which is the 'Ariya Madmûnah.
Related by Ahmad, Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā‘ī. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

917. Al-Hākim narrated a similar hadith on the authority of Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA).

Chapter XII: Ghasb (The return of wrongfully taken property)

918. Saʿīd bin Zaid (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ῶ said, “Whoever usurps even one span of anyone’s land, his neck will be encircled with it down the seven earths on the Day of Judgment.” Agreed upon.
919. Anas (RAA) narrated, ‘While The Messenger of Allah ﷺ was with one of his wives, one of the mothers of the believers (i.e. one of his wives) sent a bowl containing some food with a servant of hers. The wife (in whose house the Messenger of Allah ﷺ was sitting) struck the bowl with her hand and broke it. The Prophet collected the shattered pieces and put the food back in it and said to them, “Eat.” The Messenger of Allâh then gave another unbroken bowl to the servant and kept the broken one.’ Related by Al-Bukhârî and At-Tirmidhî, who mentioned that the one who broke the bowl was ‘A’ishah(RAA). He also added in his version, ‘and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Food for food and a bowl for a bowl.”’

920. Râfi’ bin Khadij (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “If anyone sows in other people’s land without their permission, he has no right to any of the crop, but he may get back what it cost him.” Related by Ahmad, and the four Imâms except for An-Nasâ’î. At-Tirmidhî graded it as Hasan.
921. Urwah bin Az-Zubair (RAA) narrated, ‘A man from the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Two men came to the Prophet disputing over a piece of land, in which one of them had planted palm-trees and the land belonged to the other.’ The Prophet ﷺ judged that the land belonged to its original owner and commanded the other to take out his palm-trees (which he planted unjustly), and said, “No right pertains to the one who plants the land of others wrongfully.” Related by Ahû Dawûd with a good chain of narrators.

922. The quoted part of the aforementioned Hadith, is also related by the authors of the Sunan on the authority of ‘Urwah bin Sa‘îd bin Zaid.

923. Abû Bakrah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said in the Sermon of the Farewell Pilgrimage at Minâ, “O people! Surely, your blood and property are inviolable until you meet your Lord, as the inviolability of this day and this month in this land.” Agreed upon.

283- He either takes out what he cultivated or takes the amount that he spent on it.

924. Jabir bin 'Abdullah (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah declared the right of preemption (to the partner) in every joint property (i.e. which is not clearly divided between partners), but if the boundaries of the property were demarcated or the ways and roads were fixed, then there is no preemption.' Agreed upon and the wording is from Al-Bukhari.

925. In Muslim’s version, Preemption is applicable in every joint property, whether land, a dwelling or a garden. It is not valid—in another version ‘it is not lawful— for the partner to sell his share before informing his partner.'

926. Anas bin Malik narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, 'The neighbor of the house is the one who has the most right to buy it.' Related by An-Nasa‘i. Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahîh, but it has a defected chain of narrators.
927. Abū Rāfī’ (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The neighbor has more right than any one else because of his nearness." Related by Al-Bukhārī and al-Hākim.

928. Jābir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The neighbor has the most right to the preemption of his neighbor's property. He should be waited for (before selling it) even if he was absent, when the two properties share the same road." Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms with a reliable chain of narrators.

929. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The right of the neighbor for preemption is similar to loosening a strap." Related by Ibn Mājah and Al-Bazzār who added, "There is no preemption for one who is absent." But it is narrated through a weak chain of narrators.

[284] The Prophet ﷺ is drawing a parallel between the two cases. When the strap of the camel is loosened it flees immediately, the same applies if the neighbor does not hurry to buy the property which is on sale, then his right to buy it will be lost just as fast as the running of the camel. But this Hadith is
Chapter XIV: Al-Qirād (Financing a Profit-sharing venture)

930. Suhaib (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said, “There are three things which are blessed, selling with a postponed credit,285 Muqāradah,286 and mixing wheat and barley for one’s household and not for sale.” Related by Ibn Majah with a weak chain of narrators.

931. Hakim bin Hizām (RAA) narrated that he used to say that if he gives money to someone by way of Muqāradah, ‘You should not trade with my money in living beings, do not transport it by sea, and do not come down with it into the bottom of a river bed. If you do any of these acts, you should guarantee to return me my money.’ Related by Ad-Dāraquatnī. In another version by Al-Bukhârî and Muslim, They requested the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ to let them stay there on the condition that they would cultivate it and take half of the fruit. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ told them, "We will let you stay on this condition, as long as we wish." They stayed there until 'Umar (RAA) deported them.

In a version by Muslim, "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ handed over to the Jews of Khaibar the palm-trees and its land on the condition that they should cultivate it with their own wealth (providing seeds etc. ) and take half of its fruit."
933. Hanzalah bin Qais (RAA) narrated, 'I asked Rafi' bin Khudaij about letting out land for gold and silver.' Rafi' replied, 'There is no harm in doing that, people used to rent land during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ for what grew by the streamlets or by the beginning or end of water canals, or for something from the crops. But sometimes, one portion of the product would be destroyed while the other would be saved, whereas (on other occasions) this portion was saved and the other was destroyed and thus no rent was payable to the people (who let out the lands) but for this one (which was saved). It was due to this that he (the Holy Prophet ﷺ) prohibited it, unless the land was let out for something, which is well known and reliable to be paid (such as money or something of known value) there is no harm in it.' Related by Muslim.

934. Thabit bin ad-Dahhâk (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ prohibited Muzâra'ah²⁸⁷ and commanded that people should be employed for a known wage. Related by Muslim.

²⁸⁷- Sharecropping, which means to farm someone’s land for a share of the harvest.
935. Ibn 'Abbas (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allâh had himself cupped and gave the one who cupped him his wages, and if this pay was prohibited he would not have given it to him.' Related by Al-Bukhârî.

936. Râfî' bin Khadhîj (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said, 'The earnings of the cupper are impure (but not prohibited).’ Related by Muslim.

937. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said, ‘Allâh, Glorified be He said, “Three persons are My adversary on the Day of Resurrection: a man who gave a promise in My Name then did not carry it out; a person who sold a free man and took the price; and a man who hired a servant and after using his services, did not give him his wages.”’ Related by Muslim.

939. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Give a hired person his fees before his sweat dries up.” Related by Ibn Mâjah.

940, 941. Abû Ua’lâ and al-Baihaqî transmitted something to the same effect as the above on the authority of Abû Hurairah and At-Tabarânî on the authority of Jâbir but they are all weak.

942. Abû Sa’îd al-Khudrî (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “He who hires a person should inform him of his pay.” Related by ‘Abdur-Râziq but with a disconnected chain of narrators.

باب إحياء الموات

Chapter XVI: Cultivation of a Barren Land (making it fertile)

943. ‘Urwah narrated on the authority of ‘A’ishah (RAA) that ‘Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “He who cultivates land that does not belong to anybody has more right to it than anybody else (i.e. to own it).” Urwah said, “Umar gave the same verdict during his Caliphate. Related by Al-Bukhārī.

944. Sa‘īd bin Zaid (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “He who cultivates a barren land (makes it fertile), it belongs to him.” Related by the three Imāms. At-Tirmidhī graded it as Hasan.

945. Ibn ‘Abbas (RAA) narrated that as-Sa‘b bin Jath-thamah al-Laithi told him that the Prophet ﷺ said, “No Himā except for Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ.” Related by Al-Bukhārī.

946. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “A Himā is an area in which grazing is only restricted—unjustly—to a certain person who prohibited others from entering it or letting their animals graze in it. They used to practice this in Jahiliyyah by letting a dog bark on a high land, and as far as his barking is heard, is considered a Himā for this person. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ prohibited this and only allowed it for the Imām or the ruler of the Muslims, who can make an area of land as Himā for a purpose, which he considers to be beneficial for the Muslims such as making it a Himā for the grazing of the camels of Zakāh. This Hadith prohibits taking a Himā by anybody except as that which the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ took as Himā i.e. it is only the right of the Imām or ruler of the Muslims. Umar bin al-Khaṭṭāb (RAA) made places called ar-Rabadhā and ash-Sharaf Himā for grazing the animals of Zakāh.
H said, "(One may) neither initiate harm (to himself or towards others) nor reciprocate (their actions) by harming (them)." Related by Ahmad and Ibn Majah.

947. Mālik transmitted a similar tradition on the authority of Abū Saʿīd.

948. Samurah bin Jundub (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Whoever surrounds a barren land with a wall, it belongs to him." Related by Abū Dawūd. Ibn al-Gārūḍ graded it as Sahīh.

949. 'Abdullāh bin Mughaffal (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Whoever digs a well (in a barren land which does not belong to anybody) he is entitled to get forty cubits (a cubit is 0.58 m in Egypt) of this land as a resting place for his cattle near the water." Related by Ibn Majah with a weak chain of narrators.

950. Alqamah bin Wāʾil narrated on the authority of his father that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ assigned him a piece of land in Ḥadramūt. Related by Abū Dawūd and At-Tirmidhī.
951. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah assigned Az-Zubair the size of land his horse could cover at a run. So he made his horse run and when it stopped he threw down his whip. The Messenger of Allah said, “Give him a piece of land up to the point where his whip has reached.” Related by Abu Dawud but he rated it as weak.

Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “When a person dies, (the reward of) his deeds stops except for three: “A perpetual Sadaqah (Sadaqah Jariyah), knowledge from which benefit is (continuously) gained, or a pious child who is invoking Allah for him.” Related by Muslim.
954. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated, 'Umar got some land in Khairbar and he went to the Prophet ﷺ to consult with him about it. He said, 'O Messenger of Allah! I got some land in Khairbar more valuable and precious to me than any other property I ever had.' The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him, 'If you wish you can give the land as endowment (waqf) and give its fruit in charity.' So, 'Umar gave it in charity as an endowment (waqf) on the condition that the land would not be sold, inherited or given away as a gift. Its yield would be given in charity to the poor, relatives, for the emancipation of slaves, for the Cause of Allah (i.e. Jihad), to travelers and guests; and that there would be no harm if the guardian of the endowment ate from it according to his need but with moderation, and to give a friend food to eat provided he is not storing it (the fruit) for the future (i.e. he should not own any of its benefits).’ Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

A version by al-Bukhari has: 'He gave it as Sadaqah that must not be sold (as it is not permitted to sell the waqf) or gifted but its yield must be spent (as Sadaqah)'

955. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allah ﷺ sent ‘Umar (RAA) to collect Zakah...." As for Khālid he has retained his coats of mail and weapons (as endowment) to use them in Allāh’s Cause.” Agreed Upon.

Chapter XVIII: Gifts, ‘Umra\(^{290}\) (Life-Tenancy) and Ruqba\(^{291}\)

956. An-Nu‘mān bin Al-Bashir narrated that his father took him to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘I have given this son of mine a slave who belonged to me.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ asked him, “Have you given all your sons the same (gift)?” He replied, ‘No.’ The Prophet ﷺ said, “Then take back your gift.”

In another version, ‘My father hurried to the Prophet ﷺ to ask him to be witness on my gift. The Prophet ﷺ asked him, “Have 290. ‘Umra means that a man gives another man a house and says to him, ‘I give it to you to live in as long as you live,’ and is considered a gift. Ruqba literally means watching for, it means that a man gives a house to another man and says to him, ‘If I die first, then it is yours, and if you die first it is mine.’ So it is called Ruqba because each of them is watching for the death of the other. Therefore it is disliked as each of the two men hope for the death of the other, but Islam stopped this practice as it considers Ruqba a permanent gift that will be inherited by the heirs of the one it is given to.

you done the same with all your children (i.e. have you given each of them the same gift?) He replied, 'No.' The Prophet ﷺ said, "Fear Allâh and be just with your children.' My father then returned and took back his gift.' Agreed upon.

In a narration by Muslim, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "Let someone else be witness to this (gift)." He then said to him, "Would you like them to treat you well equally?" Nu'mân said, 'Yes.' The Prophet ﷺ then said, "Don't do it then."

957. Ibn ʿAbbâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "The one who seeks to take back his gift (which he has already given) is like a dog which swallows its vomit." Agreed upon.

In a version by Al-Bukhârî, "A bad example is not considered one of us. He who takes back his gift is like a dog that swallows its vomit."

958. Ibn ʿUmar and Ibn ʿAbbâs narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "It is not lawful for a Muslim to give a gift to someone and then take it back, except for a father concerning what he gives his son (he can then take it back)." Related by the four Imâms and Ahmad. At-Tirmidhi, Ibn Hibbân and al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh.

The man replied, 'Yes.' Related by Ahmad. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

961. Jābir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, 'al-'Umra belongs to the one to whom it is given.' Agreed upon.
Muslim transmitted, “Keep your property for yourselves and do not waste them away, for whoever gives 'Umrah (life-tenancy) to anyone, it belongs to the one to whom it is given both during his life, after his death and then to his descendants.”

In another version, “The 'Umrah, which the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ allowed (to be given to his descendants after his death) is the one in which the one (who is giving away the property) says: 'It is for you and for your descendants.' But if he says, 'It is for you as long as you live.' It is returned to its original owner.

٩٦٤. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said “Exchange presents between yourselves as this extra-cts grudge gently (from your hearts).” Related by Al-Bazzâr with a weak chain of narrators.

965 - وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمُ: "بَا نِسَااءُ الْمُسْلِمَاتِ: لَا تُقَفُّنَّ جَارَةً لَّجَارِيَتِها، وَلَوْ فَرِصَّتُ شَأَّتِهَا. مَتَقْفٌ عَلَيْهَا."

965. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “O Muslim women! None of you should look down upon the present sent by her (female) neighbor even if it were the trotters of a sheep.” Agreed upon.

966. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “If anyone gives away a gift he is the one who has most right to it as long as he was not given anything in return.” Related by al-Hâkim who graded it as Sahîh.

Chapter XIX: Luqatâh (Lost and found items)

967. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ passed by a fallen date in the street and said, “Were it not for my doubt that this might have been given in charity, I would have eaten it.”292 Agreed upon.

292. It is well known that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ does not eat out of charity but would only eat what is given to him as a present.
968. Zaid bin Khālid al-Juhānī narrated, ‘A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him about al-Luqatah (lost items found on the ground and picked up by someone). The Prophet ﷺ said, “determine its container, and the string with which it is tied, and then announce publicly for a year that it has been found. If the owner shows up, give it to him, otherwise use it as you like (as it has entered his possession).” The man again asked, ‘What about a lost sheep?’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “It is for you, your brother or a wolf.” The man again said, ‘What about a lost camel?’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Why should you take it as it has got its water container (its stomach), and its hooves and it can reach the places of water and can eat from the trees until its owner finds it?” Agreed upon.

969. Zaid narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “He who keeps a stray property (luqatah), he himself has gone astray, unless he announces that he found it.” Related by Muslim.
970. 'Iyād bin Himār (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "He who finds a luqatah should call two trusty witnesses (to show them what he found) determine its container, and the string with which it is tied, and he should not conceal it or cover it up. If its owner shows up he is the one who is entitled to take it back, otherwise it is the property of Allah, which He gives to whom He wishes." Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except for At-Tirmidhi. Ibn Khuzaimah, Ibn al-Garūd and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

971. 'Abdur Rahman bin 'Uthman At-Taimi narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ prohibited picking up the luqatah of the pilgrims.' Related by Muslim.

972. Al-Miqdām bin Ma’diyakrib (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "It is not lawful to eat predatory wild animals that prey with fangs, or a domestic ass, and it is not lawful to keep the luqatah of one who has been given a covenant (by Muslims) unless he disposes of it." Related by Abu Dawūd.

باب القرانص

Chapter XX: Inheritance

973. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "Give the shares ordained (by Allah) to their rightful heirs. Whatever is left after that goes to the nearest male heir (to the deceased)." Agreed upon.

974. Usâmah bin Zaid (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "A Muslim is not to inherit a disbeliever and a disbeliever is not to inherit a Muslim." Agreed upon.

975. Ibn Mas'úd (RAA) narrated concerning the inheritance of a daughter, a son's daughter (granddaughter) and a sister, surviving the deceased. The Prophet ﷺ ordained that the daughter's share is one half, the son's daughter is one-sixth and whatever remains is the sister's." Related by Al-Bukhârî.

976. 'Abdullâh Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "The followers of two different religions may not inherit from each other." Related by Ahmad, the four Imâms and At-Tirmidhî.
977. Imran bin Husain (RAA) narrated, "A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, 'My son's son has died. What is my share from his inheritance?' The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "You get one sixth." When the man turned away, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ called him and said, "You are entitled to another sixth."

When the man turned away, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ called him and said, "The other sixth is an extra allowance (to what is ordained for you)." Related by Ahmad and the four Imams. At-Tirmidhi graded it as Sahih.

978. Ibn Buraidah (RAA) narrated on the authority of his father (RAA) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ appointed a sixth to the grandmother if no mother was left to inherit with her. Related by Abu Dawud and An-Nasai. Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn al-Garud graded it as Sahih.

293- The deceased in this case left two daughters and his father surviving him. The two daughters are entitled to 2/3 of the estate. The remaining third will be given to the grandfather, but his prescribed share is only one sixth and the other sixth will be given back to him as there are no other heirs. In this case the grandfather is considered to be 'Asabah, which refers to the relatives of the deceased on his father's side. They are entitled to take the rest of the estate after the fixed (prescribed) shares are distributed, which applies to this case. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ wanted to teach the man that his prescribed share is only one sixth and not one third. That is why he gave him one sixth when he asked about his inheritance, and then called him again and told him that this other sixth is an extra amount to his share as it is given back to him for being 'Asabah in the absence of any other heirs.
979. Al-Miqdām bin Ma’diakrib (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “The maternal uncle is the inheritor of those who have no (standard) heirs.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except for At-Tirmidhī. Abū Zarr’ah ar-Rāzī graded it as Ḥasan, but al-Hākim and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

980. Abū Umāmah bin Sahl (RAA) narrated, “Umar wrote to Abū Ubaidah (RAA) that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Allāh and His Messenger are the guardians of the one who does not have a guardian; and a maternal uncle inherits from the one who does not have any (standard) heirs.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except for Abū Dawūd. At-Tirmidhī graded it as Ḥasan and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

981. Jābir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “As soon as the infant cries (at the moment of birth) it is entitled to inherit.” Related by Abū Dawūd. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahih.

294. In this case the deceased has no ‘Asabnh (relatives on his father’s side) and no other heirs who are entitled to obligatory shares.

295. When the heir of someone who died is expecting a child, the estate is not to be divided until the child is born.
982. ‘Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “A killer does not receive (a share of the) inheritance (of the one he killed).” Related by An-Nasā‘ī and Ad-Daraqutnī.

983. Umar bin al-Khattāb (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say, “Whatever rights gained by the father or child (meaning al-Walā’296) are to be transferred to his ‘Aqabah (relatives on his father’s side) regardless of their degree of kinship297 (meaning that loyalty is not inherited and does not follow the rules of inheritance).” Related by Abu Dawūd, An-Nasā‘ī and Ibn Mājah. Ibn al-Madīnī and Ibn ʿAhdul Barr graded it as Ṣaḥīḥ.

296. Walā’ refers to the right of inheriting the property of a manumitted slave after his death. The one who has the right to inherit him is the one who manumitted him. In Jahiliyah; before Islam, they used to sell this Walā’ or give it as a gift but Islam prohibited this.

297. Most scholars are of the opinion that Walā’ is not part of the inheritance of the deceased. For example if a man manumitted a slave, and he has two sons, and one of his sons had a child and then died. If the manumitter dies, the Walā’ of the manumitted slave (his inheritance) goes to his son alone and is not to be shared between the son and the grandson as would be in the case of inheritance. This means that Walā’ is the right of the closest ‘Aqabah of the deceased and not to be distributed as part of his inheritance.
984. ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “The Walā’ (of a manumitted slave) is considered as one’s lineage, not to be sold or donated” (refer to hadith no. 816).” Related by al-Hākim through Ash-Shāfī’ī on the authority of Muḥammad bin Al-Ḥasan, on the authority of Abī Yūsuf. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

985. Abū Qalābah narrated on the authority of Anas (RAA) that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “The one who is most knowledgeable of the laws of inheritance is Zaid bin Thabit,” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except Abū Dawūd. At-Tirmidhi, Ibn Hibbān and al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

Chapter XXI: Wills (Bequests)

986. ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “It is not rightful for a Muslim, if he has anything to bequeath, that he sleeps two consecutive nights without having with him his written will.” Agreed upon.

298- This hadith again assures the fact that Walā’ is like the lineage of a person. The inheritance still goes to the one who paid the money to the slave and is not to be sold or donated as soon as the slave dies, as the link to the manumitter still holds.
987. Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas (RAA) narrated, ‘I said, ‘O Messenger of Allah! I have a lot of money, and no heirs but my daughter. Shall I give two thirds of my wealth as charity?’ He replied, ‘No.’ I said, ‘Then half of it?’ He replied, ‘No.’ I said, ‘Then one third of my wealth?’ He replied, ‘Yes one third; and even one third is too much. Indeed, to leave your inheritors rich (after your death) is better than leaving them as a burden begging from people.” Agreed upon.

988. A’ishah (RAA) narrated, “A man came to the Messenger of Allah (SAW) and said, ‘O Messenger of Allah! My mother died suddenly and did not write a will, and I believe that if she had been able to speak (now), she would have given it in charity. Would she be rewarded if I pay the charity on her behalf?’ The Messenger of Allah (SAW) said,”Yes.” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

989. Abu Umamah al-Bahili (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allah (SAW) say, “Allah has given every one who is entitled to a right (in inheritance) what is due to him, no will may be made to a (standard) heir." Related by Ahmad and the four Imams except for An-Nasāʾī. Ahmad and at-Tirmidhi graded it as Hasan. Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn al-Gārūd graded it as a strong Hadīth.

990. Ad-Dāraquṭnī transmitted a similar narration on the authority of Ibn `Abbas (RAA) and added the following, "Unless the heirs agree to it (i.e. making a will for an heir)." Its chain of narrators is Hasan.

991. Muʿādh bin Jabal (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said, "Allāh gave you as a charity a third of your property when you are about to die, as an addition to your good deeds." Related by Ad-Dāraquṭnī.

992. Ahmad and al-Bazzār transmitted it on the authority of Abū Ad-Dardāʾ.

993. Ibn Mājah transmitted the same narration on the authority of Abū Hurairah (RAA) and they are all weak traditions but may support each other, and Allāh knows best.

299. He gave you permission to make a will within the third of your property as charity, when you are about to die.
Chapter XXII: Wadi‘ah (Trusts Deposited for Safekeeping)

994. 'Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather (RAA) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "If anyone is given an article as a trust, he does not have to pay for its loss or destruction (unless he misuses it)." Related by Ibn Mājah with a weak chain of narrators.
Book VIII: Marriage

Chapter I

995. Ibn Mas'ūd (RAAJ narrated that the Messenger of Allāh صلی الله علیه و سلم said to us, "O Young people! Whoever can marry among you, should marry, for that will help him lower his gaze and protect his chastity. Whoever is not able to marry is recommended to fast and that will be his shield (as it diminishes his sexual energy)."

996. Anas Ibn Malik (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh صلی الله علیه و سلم praised and exalted Allāh and said, "Yet I pray (night prayer) and sleep, fast and break my fast, and I (also) marry women. Whoever does not follow my Sunnah is not from me (nor one of my followers)."

300. The Messenger of Allāh صلی الله علیه و سلم said this to the three men who asked about how he worshipped Allāh, and when they were told, they thought their own worship was insufficient and one of them decided to offer prayer throughout the night forever, the second said that he will fast throughout the year, and the third said he will never get married. The Messenger...

1000. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'When the Messenger of Allâh congratulated a man on his marriage, he would say, "By Allâh, I am the most fearful of Allâh of you and yet I pray...."

We praise Him, we seek His aid and we ask for His forgiveness. We seek Allah’s refuge from the evil of ourselves. Whomsoever Allah guides, there is no one who can lead him astray, and whomsoever Allah misguides, there is no one to guide him. I testify that none has the right to be worshipped but Allah alone, and I testify that Muhammad ﷺ is His slave and Messenger.”’ And recited three verses. Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms. At-Tirmidhī and al-Hākim graded it as Hasan.

1002. Jābir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “If one of you proposes to a woman, and he can see from her what may entice him to marry her, he should do so.” Related by Ahmad and Abū Dawūd with a reliable chain of narrators. Al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

1007. Sahl bin Sa'd As-Sa'idi (RAA) narrated, 'Once a woman came to the Prophet and said, 'I dedicate myself to you (for marriage). ' The Messenger of Allâh looked at her up and down and then lowered his head. When the woman saw that he had made no decision she sat down. One of the companions of the Prophet got up and said, 'O Messenger of Allâh! If you have no need of her, marry her to me.' The Prophet asked him, 'Do you have anything to give her as a dowry?' The man replied, 'No, I swear by Allâh, O Messenger of Allâh.' The Prophet said to him, 'Go to your family and seek something (to offer her).' The man went and then returned saying, 'No, I swear by Allâh O Messenger of Allâh, not even an iron ring, but I have this Izâr (waist sheet). Sahl said, 'He had no upper garment' and I shall give her half of it.' The Messenger of Allâh said, 'What would she do with your Izâr? If you wear it, there would be nothing of it for her, and if she wears it, there would be nothing of it for you.' The man sat down, and when he had sat for a long time he got up. When Allâh's Messenger saw him turning away, he commanded peopeople to call him back. When he came the Prophet ﷺ said to him,
"Have you memorized something of the Qur’ân?" The man said, ‘Yes, I have memorized such and such Sûrahs,’ and named some of them. The Prophet ﷺ then asked him, “Can you recite them by heart?” He replied, ‘Yes.’ The Prophet ﷺ then said, “Go for I have married her to you for what you have memorized of the Qur’ân.” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

In another version he said, “Go for I have married her to you, and teach her some of the Qur’ân (that you know).”

If they dispute then (they can resort to) the ruler (as he) is the guardian of those who do not have a guardian." Related by the four Imâms except for An-Nâsâ'î. Abu 'Uwanah, Ibn Hibbân and al-Hâkim graded it as Saḥîh.

1013. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "A non-virgin woman (divorced or widowed) is not to be married except after consulting her nor can a virgin be married except with her consent." The people asked, 'O Messenger of Allah! How is her consent (to be known)? He said, "If she remains silent." Agreed upon.

1014. Ibn 'Abbas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "A non-virgin woman is worthier to organize her affairs than her guardian. As for the virgin she must be asked for her permission. Her silence is a sign of her consent (to be married)." Related by Muslim.

Many of the companions are of the opinion that the Prophet ﷺ married Maimūnah before he puts on his Ḥajj but the news of his marriage became known while he was in the state of Ḥajj, and then he consummated his marriage in Makkah. This opinion goes in accordance with the prohibition mentioned in this hadith.

302- This is a kind of temporary marriage, the duration of which is predetermined through an agreement between the man and the woman. The purpose of this marriage is to have sexual intercourse for that period of time, by the end of which the woman is automatically divorced. It is unanimously termed invalid by all Muslim scholars.

303- A battle which took place after the Conquest of Makkah.
1028. Rabî‘ bin Sabrah narrated on the authority of his father (RAA) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “I had permitted you to contract Mut‘ah Marriage, but Allah has surely prohibited it until the Day of Resurrection. So, if any of you has a woman that he married through Mut‘ah, he should let her go, and do not take back any of the dower he gave her.” Related by Muslim, Abû Dawûd, An-Nasâ’î, Ibn Mâjah, Ahmad and Ibn Hibbân.

304. This marriage was permitted for sometime at the rise of Islâm, but then it was finally prohibited in the year of Khaibar.

305. Al-Muhâllâl is the man who temporarily marries a woman, who has been divorced three times and thus she is not lawful anymore for her first husband. The muhâllâl marries her temporarily, may have sexual intercourse with her or not. He then divorces her to go back to her first husband, to whom she is now lawful (Hulâl) to remarry except through a new marriage contract. This is also prohibited as it is another form of temporary marriage that stipulates separation due to a previously made agreement between the first husband and the muhâllâl.
1031. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, "A man guilty of adultery, who has been flogged, should not marry but one who is as guilty as he is." Related by Ahmad and Abū Dawūd with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

Chapter II: Compatibility in Marriage

Scholars have differed over the definition of compatibility, and most of them are of the opinion that the most important aspect is that of religiousness.
1033. Ibn 'Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "Arabs are equivalent to one another (in marriage) and clients (slaves) are equivalent to one another, save a weaver or a cupper." Related by Al-Hâkim but all its chains of narrators are extremely weak, and most scholars considered it to be a false tradition.

308- Abû Hind or Yasar, cupped the Prophet, this hadith and the previous one, are proof that it is not only the lineage which counts in equivalence. It was also reported that Bilâl (RAA), who was a slave before he was manumitted by Abû Bakr (RAA), married Hâlah the sister of 'Abdur Raḥmân bin 'Au, and 'Umar (RAA), offered his daughter Hafsah in marriage to Salmân al-Fârisî (a Persian slave) before she married the Prophet.
1037. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'When Barirah was manumitted, she was given the choice to remain with her husband (Mughith) who was a slave at that time, or to leave him.' (part of a long tradition) Agreed upon.

In a version by Muslim: 'Her husband was a slave.' He also related on the authority of A'ishah (RAA): 'He was a free man.' But the first narration (that he was a slave) is stronger.

Al-Bukhārī also related on the authority of Ibn 'Abbās that he was a salve.

1038. Ad-Dahhak bin Fairûz Ad-Dailami narrated on the authority of his father (RAA), 'O Messenger of Allah! I have embraced Islam and I am married to two sisters.' Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except for An-Nasā'i. Ibn Hibbān, ad-Daraqutnī and al-Baihaqi graded it as Sahīh.

said to him, "Divorce whichever of them you wish to leave." Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except for An-Nasā'i. Ibn Hibbān, ad-Daraqutnī and al-Baihaqi graded it as Sahīh.

1120. Ibn ‘Abbás (RAA) narrated, ‘If a man takes an oath that his wife is prohibited (unlawful) to him, it is not to be considered as anything (i.e. not considered as a divorce). Verily you have a good example in the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. Related by Al-Bukhârî.

1121. Ibn 'Abbâs (RAA) narrated, 'If a man takes an oath that his wife is prohibited (unlawful) to him, he should offer an expiation for his oath.' Related by Muslim.

1122. 'A'îshah (RAA) narrated, 'When the daughter of Al-Jawn entered the presence of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, and he went near her, she said, 'I seek refuge in Allâh from you.' He replied, 'You have sought refuge in the One Who is Great. Rejoin your kin.' Related by Al-Bukhârî.

1123. Jâbir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, "No divorce is to be considered except after marriage (has taken place), and no emancipation is considered exec-

1124. Ibn Mājah related the same narration on the authority of Al-Miswar bin Makhramah, with a reasonable chain of narrators, but it is also defective.

1125. 'Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “No human being may make a vow about something which he does not possess, or emancipate someone who he does not possess, or divorce someone who is not his (wife).” Related by Abū Dawūd and At-Tirmidhī who graded it as Sahih. Al-Bukhārī commented that it is the most sound Hadith on this subject.

1126. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated that 'Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, “There are three (people) who are not blamed for their actions: the sleeping person until he wakes up, the child until he becomes mature, and the insane person until he comes back to sanity or becomes conscious.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except for At-Tirmidhī. Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.
Chapter IX: Raj‘ah (Taking Back A Divorced Wife)

1127. 'Imrân bin Husain (RAA) narrated that he was asked about the ruling of a man who divorces his wife and then takes her back without the attestation of witnesses. He said, 'Get witnesses for both her divorce and her raj‘ah.' Related by Abû Dawûd with a sound chain of narrators.

1128. It was also related by Al-Baihaqî with the wording, 'Imrân bin Husain (RAA) was asked about a man who took back his divorced wife without the attestation of witnesses. He replied, 'He did that without following the Sunnah (of the Prophet ﷺ), let him get the witnesses now.' Imâm At-Tabarânî had the addition, 'And ask for the forgiveness of Allâh.'

1129. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that when he divorced his wife, the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said to ‘Umar (RAA), 'Command him to take her back.' Agreed upon.
Chapter X: Ḥlā' and Dhihar and Kaffarah (Expiation)

1130. "A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘Allah’s Messenger took an oath not to approach his wives (made Ḥlā’) and prohibited something which is not unlawful in itself. Then he went back and made this thing lawful (as it was originally) and offered an expiation for his oath.’ Related by At-Tirmidhī, with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

1131. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘When the period of four months has expired (as stated in the Qur’ān), the husband either returns to his wife (has a normal relationship with her) or divorces her. And the divorce is not valid until the husband declares it himself.’ Related by Al-Bukhārī.

1132. Sulaimān bin Yasar (RAA) narrated, ‘I met over ten

324. This is where the husband takes an oath that he will not approach his wife, i.e. not to have sexual intercourse with her, as a kind of discipline. The maximum period for the Ḥlā’ as set by the Qur’ān is four months (Sūrah al-Baqarah, 2:226).

325. A practice that goes back to pre-Islamic times. It is when the husband makes a statement to his wife like, ‘You are to me like the back of my mother,’ meaning never to approach her. For the Muslims Allah prescribed an expiation to be offered by anyone who says such a thing, and it is not regarded as divorce.
Companions of the Prophet who gave the husband a maximum of four months for the Ilā' (after which he should either divorce her or resume his relationship with her). Related by Ash-Shāfīī.

1133. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated, 'Ilā' at the time of Jāhiliyah (pre-Islamic period), used to continue for one or two years. Allāh revealed that it is not to exceed four months. If it continues for less than four months, then it is not considered Ilā'.' Related by Al-Baihaqī.

1134. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated, 'A man practiced Dhīhār with his wife and then he had intercourse with her. He went to the Prophet and said, 'I had intercourse with her before making the prescribed expiation.' The Messenger of Allāh said to him, 'Do not approach her until you do what Allāh ordered you to do.' Related by the four Imāms and rendered as Sahih by At-Tirmidhī. The narration of Al-Bazzār is as follows, ‘Offer the prescribed expiation and do not do it again.’

1135. Salamah Ibn Sakhr (RAA) narrated, ‘When the month of Ramadân came, I feared lest I should have intercourse with my wife (while fasting), so I made Dhihâr with her and told her that she is like the back of my mother. One night (in Ramadân) I saw something of her (body) so I had intercourse with her. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to me, “Free a slave.” I said, I do not possess any but myself. He again said, ‘Then fast for two consecutive months.’ I said, ‘Whatever I suffered was due to my fasting.’ He said, “Feed sixty poor people one Faraq (a measure that equals 15 Sa‘) of dates.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms except for An-Nasâ‘î. Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn al-Gârûd graded it as Sahih.

Chapter XI: Li‘ân

326- The word is derived from the Arabic word La‘n which means cursing. This takes place when a man accuses his wife of committing adultery without having four witnesses to support his claim. If he speaks publicly about it he will be considered as an accuser and will be given eighty lashes, which is the punishment for accusation of adultery. When this incident took place during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ the verse of Li‘ân was revealed (24: 6-9), which states that a husband should swear four times (in front of the magistrate and in the presence of his wife) that he is telling the truth and the fifth time he says that may the curse of Allah be upon him if he is lying. And then she swears four times that he is lying about what he has charged her with and the fifth time she says that may the wrath of Allah be upon her if he is telling the truth. In this way he is no longer liable to be punished for false accusation and she is no longer liable to be punishment for adultery. By this, she is eternally prohibited for him and the child she is expecting (if any) is not his.
1136. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘A man asked, ‘O Messenger of Allâh! What do you see if someone from amongst us happened to find his wife committing adultery. What should he do? If he talks, he is talking of a grievous matter, and if remains silent, he is also keeping silent over a grievous matter. The Messenger of Allâh did not answer him. Afterwards the man came again and said to Allâh’s Messenger, ‘What I have asked you about is now my affliction (i.e. it actually happened to me; that he saw his wife committing adultery). Then Allâh, the Almighty revealed the verses of Sûrah an-Nûr, and the Messenger of Allâh recited them for him, exhorted him and reminded him of Allâh, and told him that the torture of this present life is much less than the torture of the Hereafter. He (the man) said, ‘No, by Him Who sent you with the truth! I did not tell a lie about her.’ Then the Prophet called her (the wife of that man) and exhorted her as well. She said, ‘No, by Him Who sent you with the truth! He is a liar.’ The Prophet began with the man who made four testimonies by Allâh, and then the woman did the same, and then he separated them both (forever).’ Related by Muslim.

1137. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh said to the couple involved in the case of Li‘ân, “Your accounts will be with Allâh. One of you two is a liar. You have no authority over her.” The man said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! My property!’ The Messenger of Allāh replied, “If you were telling the truth concerning her, that would be in return for what you have enjoyed of her, and if you were lying, that would be more remote to you than her returning to you (i.e. if he was lying about her, how would he take what he had given to her).” Agreed upon.

1138. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, “Watch (for the baby that she will give birth to), if she gives birth to a child which is white with lank hair, then it is her husband’s child, but if she gives birth to a child which is brown with curly hair then it is the child of the man her husband accused her of committing adultery with.” Agreed upon.

1139. Ibn ‘Abbas (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allāh ordered a man to put his hand on his hand on the fīh testimony and said to him, “It would be the decisive one (which will bring Allāh’s punishment and curse, and will separate them for ever).” Related by Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā’ī with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

1140. Sahl bin Sa’d (RAA) narrated concerning the case of the couple involved in the Li‘ān, 'When they had finished making their testimony, the man said, 'O Messenger of Allah! If I keep her now as a wife with me, then I have told a lie about her.' The man then divorced thrice before Allah’s Messenger ﷺ ordered him to do so.'

327 Agreed upon.

1141. Ibn `Abbas (RAA) narrated, 'A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, 'I have a wife who does not keep the hand of the toucher (anyone who touches her) from her. The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Divorce her.” The man replied, ‘But I am afraid, I won’t be able to keep away from her.’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ then said to him, “Then enjoy her (with that deficiency).” Related by Abû Dawûd, At-Tirmidhi and Al-Bazzâr with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

An-Nasâ’î related on the authority of Ibn `Abbas with a different chain of narrators, 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him, “Divorce her.” He replied, ‘I can not endure my desire for her.’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ then said, “Then keep her.”

327. The majority of scholars are of the opinion that separation takes place anyway by the end of the process of Li‘ān. As for what this man did, he was not ordered by the Prophet ﷺ to do so. His divorce only assured him of what had already taken place, which is their separation for ever.
1142. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that he heard the Messenger of Allah ﷺ say when the verse of Li‘ân was revealed, “Anyone who falsely claims a child to her family, while he does not belong to them, Allah will have nothing to do with her (not to expect His Mercy) and will not let her enter His Paradise. And any man who denies paternity of his own child—while looking at him (i.e. he is certain that he is his child) Allah will not let him look at Him (at Allah) and shall disgrace him in the presence of all creation the first and the last (on the Day of Resurrection).” Related by Abu Dawûd and An-Nasâ’î and Ibn Mâjah. Ibn Hibbân graded it as Sahih.

1143. ‘Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘Whoever acknowledges his paternity to his child, even for a second, he is not to deny him.’ Related by Al-Baihaqi.

1144. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated, ‘A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘My wife gave birth to a black child.’ The Prophet ﷺ asked him, “Do you have camels?” The man replied, ‘Yes.’
The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ asked him, “What color are they?”
The man replied, ‘Red.’ The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ asked him again, “Is there a gray one among them?” The man answered, ‘Yes.’ The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ then asked him, “Where has that (gray) one come from?” The man said, ‘Maybe it is due to heredity.’ The Prophet ﷺ said, “Maybe your latest son has this (black) color due to heredity.”

In a version by Muslim, 'The man was intending to deny him.' And said at the end of the narration, 'Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ did not allow him to deny him.'

باب العددة، والإحداد، والإستيعرفة، وغير ذلك

Chapter XII: Iddah and Ihdâd

1145. Al-Miswar bin Makhramah narrated that Subai'ah al-Aslamiyah (RAA) gave birth to a child a few nights after the death of her husband. She went to the Prophet ﷺ and asked his permission to get married, so he permitted her to do so and she did.’

Related by Al-Bukhâri.

328- The woman whose husband has died refrains from adornments, perfumes, going out (except for a necessity) etc., for a period of four months and ten days after the death of her husband which is her Iddah.

329- The ‘Iddah of the pregnant woman ends when she gives birth whether divorced or a widow.
In another narration, 'She gave birth forty nights after the death of her husband.'

In Muslim's version, Az-Zuhari said, 'I see nothing wrong with her getting married while she is still in her post birth bleeding but on condition that her husband does not touch her till she becomes pure.'

1146. 'Aishah (RAA) narrated, 'I commanded Barirah to observe her 'Iddah for three menstrual periods.' Related by Ibn Majah.

1147. Ash-Shi‘bi narrated on the authority of Fati‘mah bint Qais (RAA) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said regarding a woman who is divorced three times (irrevocable divorce), “She has no right for maintenance or housing.” Related by Muslim.

1148. Umm ‘Atiyah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Hereafter to mourn for a dead person for more than three days, except for her husband (she is to mourn) for four months and ten days. She is not to wear a dyed garment, except for a garment of ‘Asb (special clothes made in Yemen). She must not apply Kuhl nor perfume. But what is permissible is that when she is purified from her menses, she may use a small amount of Kust (type of incense, to get rid of the smell of the blood).” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

Abū Dawūd and an-Nasā’ī added the following, ‘She must not apply Henna.’ an-Nasā’ī added, “or comb her hair.”

1149. Umm Salamah (RAA) narrated, ‘I applied aloe juice to my eyes after the death of Abū Salamah.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “It gives the face a nice glow (makes it look fresh), so use it only at night and remove it in the daytime, and do not comb your hair with scent or henna as it is a type of dye.” I then asked him, ‘What should I use when I comb my hair?’ He said, “Use lote-tree leaves (Sidr).” Related by An-Nasā’ī and Abū Dawūd with a good chain of narrators.

1150. Umm Salamah narrated, ‘A woman came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! My daughter’s husband died, and she is suffering from a disease in her eyes. Shall we apply Kuhl to it?’ He replied, ‘No.’ Agreed upon.

her and blamed her for going out. She came to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to complain, and he said to her, “Certainly, go and reap your palms, so you may give in charity thereof or do a good deed.” Related by Muslim.

1152. Furai‘ah bint Malik narrated, ‘My husband went out in search of some of his slaves, and they killed him. I asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to go back to my people, for my husband left me without a house that belonged to him or maintenance.’ He said to me, “Yes (go to your family).” When I was in my room he called me and said, “Stay at your place until you finish your prescribed ‘Iddah.” She said, ‘So I stayed there for four months and ten days.’ She added, ‘Uthman used to follow the same ruling later on (i.e. for the ‘Iddah of the woman whose husband died).’ Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms. At-Tirmidhī, adh-Dhuhali, Ibn Hibbān and al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.

1153. Fātimah bint Qais narrated, ‘I said: O Messenger of Allah! My husband divorced me thrice and I am afraid that some one may attack me (as she was staying in a deserted place).’ The Messenger of Allah gave her permission to move to another house (to spend her ‘Iddah there).’ Related by Muslim.
1154. 'Amro bin al-As (RAA) narrated, 'Do not confuse us about the Sunnah of our Prophet. The Iddah of the slave woman, who is the mother of a child (born free), and her master died, is four months and ten days.' Related by Ahmad, Abū Dawūd and Ibn Mājah. Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.

1155. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated, 'The slave woman has only two pronouncements of divorce (unlike the free woman who has three), and her Iddah is only for two menstrual cycles.' Related by Ad-Daraqutni.

1156. Abū Dawūd, At-Tirmidhī and Ibn Mājah related the same Hadith on the authority of ‘A’ishah (RAA). Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih but some scholars rendered it weak.

1157. Ruwaifi’ bin Thābit (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "It is not lawful for a man who believes in Allah and the Day of Resurrection to have intercourse with a slave woman (newly bought) who is already pregnant."330

330- If a man buys a slave woman and discovers that she is already pregnant, he is not allowed to have intercourse with her until she delivers the 1158. Ibn `Umar narrated concerning the wife of a lost man (who is absent and his news ceases to reach her), that she must wait for four years and then have an ‘Iddah for four months and ten days (assuming that he died). Related by Mālik and Ash-Shāfi‘ī.

1161. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh  said, “No man should be alone with a woman unless it is child. If he is not sure that she is pregnant, then she must have ‘Iddah for one menstrual period before he can have intercourse with her.

Chapter XIII: Riddâ’ (Becoming Unmarriageable Kin By Suckling)

1168. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “One or two sucklings would not make marriage unlawful.” Related by Muslim 1169. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Be sure as to who your foster brothers are, for the foster (suckling) relationship is confirmed when milk is still the essential food for the child (the only food that satisfies his hunger).” Agreed upon.

1170. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated that Sahlah bint Suhail came and said, ‘O Messenger of Allah ﷺ! Sâlim the client of Abû Hudhâifah lives with us in the same house, and he has now reached puberty.’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to her, “Suckle him so that he may become unlawful (in regard to marriage) for you.” Related by Muslim.

Scholars are of the opinion that this hadith is not a common ruling, as it is only infants who are normally breastfed. In this case, the messenger of Allah ﷺ meant that she may give him some of her milk (in a cup) and thus she would foster him, and not actually suckle him as he is a grown child.
1171. 'Aishah (RAA) narrated that Aslah the brother of Abu al-Qu’ais (Aslah is her foster uncle) came and asked for permission to enter upon her after the verse of the Hijab (the veiling of women) was revealed. 'Aishah added, ‘But I refused to let him in. 1172. ‘Aishah (RAA) narrated, ‘It had been revealed in the Holy Qur’an that ten (definitely) known sucklings make the marriage unlawful, but that was abrogated (and substituted) by five known sucklings. When the Messenger of Allah died, they were still read (their recitation was finally abrogated from the Qur’an before his death, but the ruling still applies).” Related by Muslim.

1173. Ibn ‘Abbas (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah was asked to marry the daughter of Hamzah (his cousin and foster brother), he said, “She is unlawful for me as she is the daughter of my foster brother. What is unlawful due to blood relations, is also unlawful due to Ridâ’ah (suckling).” Agreed upon.
1174. Umm Salamah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “The only suckling which makes marriage unlawful is that which is absorbed in the bowels and was before the time of weaning.” Related by At-Tirmidhi. He and al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.

1175. Ibn Abbas (RAA) narrated, ‘Riḍā’ (suckling) only applies to infants during the first two years of age.’ Related by Ad-Daraqutni and Ibn ‘Adī.

1176. Ibn Mas‘ūd (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “The only suckling which makes marriage unlawful is that which strengthens the bones and lets the flesh grow.” Related by Abū Dawūd.

1177. ‘Uqbah bint Al-Hārith narrated that he married Umm Yehiā bint Abī Ihāb. A woman came along and said, ‘I suckled both of you.’ ‘Uqbah then asked the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ who said to him, “How can you hesitate (about separating from her), after you have been told (that you were suckled from the same woman)?” Uqbah then separated from her and she married another man. Related by Al-Bukhārī.
1178. Ziad As-Sahmi (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allah prohibited that a foolish woman be asked to suckle an infant.

Chapter XIV: Maintenance

1179. A'ishah (RAA) narrated that Hind bint Utbah— the wife of Abi Sufian— came to the Messenger of Allâh and said, 'O Messenger of Allâh! Abi Sufian is a miser and he does not give enough maintenance for me and my children except what I used to take from him without his knowledge. Am I to be blamed for that?' The Prophet said to her, "Take what is sufficient for you and your children but in moderation (take only in reasonable amounts)." Agreed upon.

332. Scholars say that the wisdom behind this prohibition could be that bad character may be inherited, so it is better to choose one with fine qualities.
1180. Târiq Al-Muhârîbî (RAA) narrated, We arrived in Madinah when the Messenger of Allah was on the pulpit addressing the people and saying, "The hand which gives (charity) is the upper hand. And spend first (before giving charity) on the ones who are dependent on you: your mother and father, your sister and brother, then your closer relatives and so on." Related by An-Nasa'i. Ibn Hibbân and ad-Dâraquṭnî graded it as Sahîh.

In the version of Muslim, “...to withhold his provisions from those he possesses (his slaves).”

1185. Jabir (RAA) narrated concerning the pregnant woman whose husband died, that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “She has no right to maintenance.” Related by Al-Baihaqi with a reliable chain of narrators, but he regarded it as Mawqîf.

1186. It was mentioned earlier that the one who was divorced thrice is not entitled to maintenance (see hadith no. 1147). Related by Muslim.

1187. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “The upper hand is better than the lower hand (i.e. he who gives in charity is better than he who takes it). And spend first on the ones who are dependent on you. A woman would say: 'Feed me or divorce me.’” Related by Ad-Dāraquṭnī with a good chain of narrators.

1188. Sa’d bin al-Musaiyab narrated regarding a man who finds nothing to spend on his wife, ‘They should be separated.’ Related by Sa’id bin Mansfir on the authority of Sufiān on the authority of Abū az-Zinād who said, ‘I asked Sa‘id bin al-Musaiyab: Does this relate to the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ?’ He replied: “Yes it does.” This Hadith is a Mursal.

1189. Umar (RAA) narrated that he wrote to the commanders of the armies regarding some men (soldiers) who had been absent from their wives for long periods of time, telling them to send maintenance or divorce them. If they divorce, they should send them maintenance for the period that they had stopped paying it. Related by ash-Shāfi‘ī and al-Baihaqī with a good chain of narrators.

1190. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that a man came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said, ‘Allāh’s Messenger, I have a Dinār?’ He then said to him, “Spend it on yourself.” The man again said, ‘I have another one.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Spend it on your children.” He said, ‘I have another one.’ He said, “Spend it on your wife.” The man again said, ‘I have another one.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Spend it on your servant.” He said, ‘I have another one.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “You know better to whom you should give it.” Related by Ash-Shāfi‘ī and Abū Dawūd and the wording is his. An-Nasā‘ī and al-Hākim also transmitted it, but mentioned the wife before the children.

1193. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that a woman said: 'O Messenger of Allah! My husband wants to take away my son, and he is helping me and draws water for me from the well of Abu 'Inabah (i.e. her son). Her husband came and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "O boy! This is your father and this is your mother, take the hand of whoever you wish of them."

The boy then took his mother's hand and she went away with him.' Related by Ahmad and the four Imams. At-Tirmidhi graded it as Sahîh.

333- This is a proof that when the child starts to be independent he is given the choice between staying with the mother or the father.
1194. Râfi' bin Sinân (RAA) narrated that he embraced Islam but his wife refused to do so. The Messenger of Allâh said, the mother sit on one side and the father sit on the other side and seated the boy between them. The boy then inclined to his mother. 1199. Ibn Masʿūd (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “The blood of a Muslim who testifies that none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh and that I am His Messenger, cannot be shed lawfully, except in three cases: a married person who committed adultery, in Qisas (retaliation) for murder (life for life) and the apostate from Islam who abandons the Muslim Jamāʿah (community).” Agreed upon.

1200. ‘A’ishah (RAA) narrated that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The blood of a Muslim is not to be shed except for three reasons: a married man who committed adultery, a man who kills another Muslim intentionally for which he must be killed (in Qisas or retaliation), and a man who abandons Islam and fights against Allāh and His Messenger, in which..." case he should be either killed, crucified, or exiled.” Related by Abú Dawūd and An-Nasāʾī. Al-Ḥākim graded it as Sahīh.

1204. Abū Juhaifah (RAA) narrated, 'I asked 'Ali: 'Do you have any other Divine Revelation besides what is in the Qur'an?' 'Ali said, 'No. By Him Who made the grain split (germinate) and created the soul, we have nothing besides the Qur'an except the gift of understanding the Qur'an, which Allah gives a man, besides what is written in this manuscript. I said, 'What is in this manuscript?' 'Ali said, 'The regulations of Diyah (Blood money), the ransom for captives and the ruling that no Muslim should be killed in Qisas for killing a disbeliever.' Related by Al-Bukhārī.

1205. The previous tradition was also transmitted by Ahmad, An-Nasā'ī and Abū Dawūd on the authority of 'Ali with a different chain of narrators where he said, 'The blood of one Muslim (his life) is equivalent to the blood of another Muslim (i.e. equal in Qisas and blood money), the protection of Allah is one (and is equally) extended to the most humble of the believers (i.e. if a Muslim gives protection to a man or to a group of men, they should all help him even is he was the most humble of them). Believers are all like one hand against their enemies. No believer is to be killed for a disbeliever (i.e. in Qisas), nor should one who has a covenant with the Muslims be killed while his covenant holds.' Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.
1206. Anas bin Malik (RAA) narrated that a girl was found with her head crushed between two stones. They asked her, 'Who did that to you? Is it so and so, or so and so?' The Messenger of Allah ordered that his head be crushed between two stones.' Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

1207. Imran bin Al-Husain (RAA) narrated that a slave of some poor people cut off the ear of another slave belonging to some rich people. They came to the Messenger of Allah but he appointed no compensation for them. Scholarly opinion is divided as to the reason for giving no compensation. Some say that it happened by accident, some say that maybe it was because his masters were poor so the Messenger of Allah gave him the compensation himself, some say that the boy was still immature and Allah knows best.

334: Scholars have different opinions as to the reason for giving no compensation. Some say that it happened by accident, some say that maybe it was because his masters were poor so the Messenger of Allah gave him the compensation himself, some say that the boy was still immature and Allah knows best.
1208. 'Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father, on the authority of his grandfather (RAA), that a man stabbed another man in his knee with a horn. So he came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said, 'Retaliate on my behalf.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to him, "Wait until your wound has healed." The man came again and said, 'O Messenger of Allāh! Retaliate on my behalf.' So, he allowed him to retaliate against the one who attacked him (by stabbing him the same way). Then he came again to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and said, 'O Messenger of Allāh! I have become lame.' The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to him, "I forbade you (to take retaliation until your wound was healed) but you disobeyed me, may Allāh keep you away from His mercy (for your disobedience), and as for your lameness you are not entitled to any compensation (as he retaliated before he discovered the lameness otherwise he would have been entitled half the Diyah)." Then Allāh's Messenger prohibited the following, 'No retaliation is to be made for a wound before the victim is totally recovered.' Related by Ahmad and Ad-Dāraquṭnī.

1209. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, 'Two woman of the tribe of Hudhail fought with each other and one of them threw a stone at the other. In this way she killed the woman and what was in her womb (as she was pregnant). Their dispute was presented to the Prophet ﷺ who ordained that the Diyah (blood money) of the unborn child, is a male or a female slave of the best quality. He also decided that the Diyah of the woman is to be paid by her relatives (the one who killed) on her father's side.\(^{335}\) The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ also ordained that her inheritance (of the woman who killed as she died later) be for her sons and husband (and not for her relatives who had to pay the Diyah). Hamal bin An-Nābīghah Al-Hudhaili then said, 'O Messenger of Allāh! Why should I pay the Diyah for one who neither drank nor ate nor spoke, nor cried (i.e. the dead fetus), such a creature is not entitled to blood money.'

The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then said, "This man is one of the brothers of the soothsayers," on account of the rhymed speech which he used, concerning the dead fetus.

1210. Abū Dawūd and An-Nāsā‘ī narrated on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbās that ‘Umar (RAA) asked about the judgment of the Prophet ﷺ concerning the Diyah of the dead fetus. Hamal bin An-Nābīghah Al-Hudhaili then got up and said, "I was between the two women. One of them struck the other with a stone, killing her and what was in her womb. So the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ ordained ...." (as above). Ibn Hibbān and al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

\(^{335}\) There was no Qigāq in this case, as the woman did not intend to kill her. She only used a small stone or the like.
Anas narrated that Ar-Rubai' bint An-Nadr (his aunt) broke the incisor teeth of a girl. The family of Ar-Rubai' asked the family of the girl to pardon her, but they refused. They then offered them Arsh, (as compensation) but they also refused. They came to the Messenger of Allah asking for Qisas, and he gave orders that they should take their Qisas from Ar-Rubai'. Anas bin An-Nadr then came to the Messenger of Allah and said, 'O Messenger of Allah! Will the incisor tooth of Ar-Rubai' be broken? No, by Him Who sent you with the truth, her incisor tooth will not be broken. The Messenger of Allah then said to him, "Anas! Allah's decree is equal retaliation." But the family of the girl agreed to pardon Ar-Rubai'. The Messenger of Allah then said, "Among Allah's servants are those who if they swear by Allah (for something), Allah will consent to their oath." Agreed upon, and the wording is from Al-Bukhari.

Ibn 'Abbás (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "If anyone is killed and his killer is not known, or it is not definitely known who killed him or how he was killed. In this case the other family must take an oath that they did not kill the victim, and if it is known who killed him (which group of people or which family) they would share his Diyah (for a death caused by mistake) Other-was killed with a stone, a whip or with a stick (i.e. killed by mistake but with a deliberate injury) his Diyah will be that of killing by mistake (manslaughter). As for whoever killed deliberately, retaliation is due (from the one who killed him). Anyone who tries to prevent taking Qisâs (from the killer) may Allah curse him.” Related by Abû Dawûd, An-Nasâ’î and Ibn Mâjah with a strong chain of narrators.

1213. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “If a man holds another man so that a third man can kill the seized one, then the one who killed is to be killed (in Qisâs) and the one who seized the killed one is to be imprisoned.” Related by Ad-Dâraqutnî. Ibn al-Qâtîn graded it as Sahih and its narrators are trustworthy.

338- A Mu’âhid is a non Muslim who is residing in an Islamic State with whom there is a covenant of peace and protection. The killing of such a person is murder.
1215. Ibn `Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘A young boy was murdered deceitfully. ‘Umar (RAA) thereupon said, ‘If all the people of San‘ā’ (in Yemen) participated in killing him, I would kill them all.’ Related by al-Bukhārī.

1217. A similar narration is transmitted by Al-Bukhārī and Muslim on the authority of Abū Hurairah.

Chapter II: Types of Diyah (Blood money)

339- The incident happened when a man traveled and left his wife with their child. The woman and her lover killed the child for fear that he may tell the husband about it when he returned. Those involved were the woman, her lover, her servant and another man. When Umar knew about it from Yalā bin Umaiyyah, his ruler in Yemen, he issued a decree that all of them must be killed as they killed him collectively.
1218. Abū Bakr bin Muhammad bin 'Amro bin Hazm narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of his grandfather (RAA) that 'The Messenger of Allah ﷺ wrote to the people of Yemen (mentioning the hadith which included), Whoever kills a believer deliberately for no reason or a crime that he committed, he should be killed (in retaliation), unless the family of the murdered person agrees to take Diyah (blood money). The Diyah for a life is a hundred camels. Full blood money (i.e. total Diyah of 100 camels) is paid for the total cut off of each of the following: the nose, the eyes, the tongue, the lips, the penis, the testicles and the backbone. For the cutting off of one leg; half a Diyah is paid (i.e. 50 camels). For a head injury a third of the Diyah is paid, for a stab which penetrates the body, one third of the Diyah, for a blow which breaks a bones or dislocates it, 15 camels. For each finger or toe, 10 camels are paid. For each tooth five camels are paid. For a wound which exposes a bone five camels are paid. A man is killed in Qisas for killing a woman. For those who possess gold, they should pay the equivalent of the 100 camels which is fixed as one thousand Dinars.' Related by Abū Dawūd in his book "al-Marāṣil", an-Nasaʿī, Ibn Khuzaimah, Ibn al-Gārūd, Ibn Hibbān and Ahmad, but they disagreed regarding its authenticity.

340- A full Diyah is due in this case, as each of these organs are either impaired (i.e. cannot be compensated), or the full pair is cut off (such as the ears, the lips etc.)
1219. Ibn Mas‘ud (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, "The Diyah for accidental killing is paid in five types of camel indemnity:

- 20 she-camels ‘hiqqah’ (in their fourth year),
- 20 she-camels ‘Jaz’ah’ (in their fifth year),
- 20 she-camels ‘bint makhād’ (in their second year),
- 20 she-camels ‘bint labūn’ (in their third year) and
- 20 he-camels ‘ibn labūn’ (in their third year).

Related by Ad-Daraqutni with a strong chain of narrators. The four Imāms reported it with this version, "twenty ibn makhād" (twenty male camels which had entered their second year), instead of "ibn labūn.

1220. Abū Dawūd and At-Tirmidhī transmitted on the authority of ’Amro bin Shu‘aib on his father’s authority, who reported from his grandfather (RAA), who reported that the Messenger of Allah said, "The Diyah (of intentional homicide) is paid in three different types of camels:

- 30 she-camels ‘hiqqah’ (in their fourth year),
- 30 she-camels ‘Jaz’ah’ (in their fifth year), and
- 40 pregnant she-camels.”

341. This Diyah is less severe in that its payment is deferred, and paid in five different types of camels. Some scholars say that it could be paid over a period of three years.

342. This Diyah is severe in that it is to be paid immediately and paid in three different good types of camels.
1221. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “Three types of people are most hated by Allah, the Almighty: whoever kills another in the Sacred area of Haram (Sanctuary), whoever kills anyone other than the one who killed him or whoever kills anyone in revenge as in times of Jahiliyah (pre-Islamic times).” Related by Ibn Hibban.

1222. Ibn Hibban graded it as Sahih.

1223. Ibn 'Abbas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “This and that are equal -meaning the little finger and the thumb.” Related by Al-Bukhari. Abu Dawud and At-Tirmidhi transmitted, “The diyah for the fingers and toes is the same, and that for the teeth is the same; the incisor and the molar tooth are the same.” Ibn Hibban narrated, “The diyah for the fingers and toes is the same; 10 camels for each.”
1224. 'Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father, on the authority of his grandfather (RAA) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Anyone who practices medicine but is not known as a practitioner, and kills a human being or inflicts harm on him, will be held responsible.” Related by Ad-Dāraqutni. Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih. Abū Dawūd, an-Nasā‘ī and others also narrated it, but its Mursal form is stronger than the connected one.

1225. ‘Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father, on the authority of his grandfather (RAA) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “For a wound which exposes a bone five camels are paid (in compensation).” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms. Ahmad added the following statement, “And the fingers and toes are all equal in Diyāh, ten camels.” Ibn Khuzaimah and Ibn al-Gārūd graded it as Sahih.

1226. ‘Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father, on the authority of his grandfather (RAA) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “The Diyah of the Dhimmi[^442^]{[^343^]} is half that of a Muslim.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imams. The narration of Abû Dawûd, “The Diyah of the Mu‘âhid (non Muslim with a covenant of protection) is half the Diyah of a free Muslim.” In the narration of An-Nasâ’î, “The Diyah of a woman is the same as the Diyah of a man up to the third of the value (if the due value exceeds the third then her Diyah is half that of the man).” Ibn Khuzaimah graded it as Sahih.

1227. ’Amro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father, on the authority of his grandfather (RAA) that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “The Diyah of the quasi-deliberate homicide is as severe as deliberate murder (in its being given in three types of camels), and the offender is not to be killed. This happens when the devil excites enmity between people causing them to shed blood but not due to hatred or carrying weapons in fighting.” Related by Ad-Dâraqutní and graded it as weak Hadith.

1228. Ibn ’Abbâs (RAA) narrated that, ‘A man killed another man during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ, so the decided that his Diyah would be 12 thousand (Dirhams).’ Related by the four Imams.

Chapter III: Claiming the Right to Qisas and Qasamah (taking an oath)

344. In another narration, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ asked him again, “Is it true that he is your son?” The man then said I bear witness to it. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ smiled because of the resemblance between the father and son and for the fact that the father took an oath on this matter.

345. Any action which entails Qisas or punishment.
1230. Sahl bin Abi Khaithamah (RAA) narrated on the authority of some honored men from his people that 'Abdullah bin Sahl and Muhaiysah bin Mas'ud, went out to Khaibar because of a hardship they were undergoing. Muhaiysah came and told them that 'Abdullah bin Sahl had been killed and thrown into a well. He came to the Jews and said to them, 'I swear by Allah that you have killed him.' They replied, 'We swear by Allah that we have not killed him.' Then Muhaiysah came along with his brother Huwaiysah and 'Abdur Rahman bin Sahl to the Prophet ﷺ and Muhaiysah started to talk. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to him, "Let an older one speak (take charge of this matter)." So Huwaiysah narrated what happened and then Muhaiysah spoke. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "Either they pay the Diyah of your companion or be ready for war." The Messenger of Allah ﷺ wrote to them about this and they wrote back saying, 'By Allah, we have not killed him.' The Messenger of Allah ﷺ then said to Huwaiysah, Muhaiysah and 'Abdur Rahmân bin Sahl, "Would you take an oath (that they killed him) and then you will be entitled to the Diyah of your companion." They answered, 'No (as they did not witness the crime).’ The Messenger of Allah ﷺ then said, "Then the Jews should take an oath (that they are innocent).” They said, 'They are not Muslims.' The Messenger of Allah ﷺ thereupon paid the Diyah of the victim himself and sent them 100 camels. Sahl commented, 'A red she-camel (of these 100 camels) kicked me.' Agreed upon.
1231. A man from the Ansâr narrated that the Messenger of Allah consented to the Qasâmah (taking an oath that they did not kill the victim), which was practiced during the time of Jâhiliyâh (pre-Islâm) and the Messenger of Allah made a judgment between some men from the Ansâr concerning a man who was killed and they claimed that the Jews had killed him.' Related by Muslim.

Chapter IV: Fighting Transgressors

The latter graded it as Sahîh but he was mistaken as Kawthar bin Hakîm (one of the narrators) is a rejected narrator.

1236. 'Arfagah bin Shuraih (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ say, “He who comes to you when you are united and wants to disunite your community, kill him.” Related by Muslim.

346- The one who is known as ‘Ibn Umm 'Abd’ is ‘Abdullâh bin Mas‘ûd, and may be Ibn 'Umar is narrating the hadith on his authority.
Chapter V: Fighting The Offender and Killing the Apostate

1237. 'Abdullāh bin Umar narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "He who is killed while defending his property is considered a martyr." Related by Abū Dawūd An-Nasā’ī and At-Tirmidhī who graded it as Sahih.

1238. Imrān bin Husain (RAA) narrated, Yālā bin Umaiyah fought with another man. One of them bit the other man's finger and the latter (whose finger was bit) pulled his hand out of the first man's mouth (who was biting) by force, causing his incisors teeth to be pulled out. They presented their dispute to the Prophet ﷺ who said, "One of you bit his brother as a male camel bites? Go and there is not Diyah for him (as a punishment for their foolishness).” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

1239. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Of course, we are not going to say anything against you. When you are in a battle, be careful and watch your back. May Allāh grant you safety and make you victorious."
Allah ﷺ said, “If anyone spies on you (tries to look at you) without your permission, and you thereupon throw a stone at him and because of it he lost his eye, you are not to be blamed.” Agreed upon. In another version by Ahmad and an-Nasā’ī and graded as Sahīh by Ibn Hibbān, “He has no right for Diyāh or Qīsās.”

1240. Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azib (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ ordained that the guarding of a garden is the responsibility of its owners during the day and the guarding of animals is the responsibility of their owners at night. However, the owners of the animals are responsible for any damage caused by their animals during the night (i.e. pay compensation for what they damaged of other’s property).’ Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms except At-Tirmidhi. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

1241. Mu‘ādh bin Jabal (RAA) narrated – concerning a man who embraced Islām and then turned to Judaism (i.e. apostated), ‘I shall not sit down until he is killed. That is the Command of Allah and His Messenger, and he gave an order that he must be killed and so he was.’ Agreed upon.

In a version by Abū Dawūd, ‘He was given a chance to repent and return to Islām but he refused.”

1242. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah
H said, "He who changes his religion (i.e. apostates) kill him." Related by Al-Bukhārī.

1243. Ibn Abbas (RAA) narrated, 'A blind man had a pregnant slave, who used to abuse the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and defame him. The blind man forbade her but she did not stop. One night she began to slander the Prophet ﷺ so he took an axe, placed it on her belly, pressed it and killed her. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ was told about it, and thereupon he said, "Oh people! Be witnesses that no Diyah is to be paid for her blood." Related by Abū Dawūd with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

347. Because she was slandering the Prophet ﷺ, so she is considered as a disbeliever and an apostate.
1244. Abū Hurairah and Zaid bin Khālid al-Juhanī (RAA) narrated that a Bedouin came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, 'O Messenger of Allah! I beseech you by Allah, that you judge between us according to Allah's Laws.' The man's opponent who was wiser than him got up and said, 'Yes, judge between us according to Allah's Law and kindly allow me (to speak).' The Prophet ﷺ said, "Speak." He said, 'My son was a laborer working for that man (the Bedouin) and he committed illegal sexual intercourse with his wife, and I was informed that my son deserved to be stoned to death (as punishment for this offence). I ransomed him with one hundred sheep and a slave girl. But when I asked the knowledgeable people they told me that my son should receive a hundred lashes and be exiled for a year, and the man’s wife should be stoned to death. The Messenger of Allāh replied, “By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, I shall judge between you according to the Law of Allāh (i.e. His Book). The slave girl and the sheep are to be returned to you. As for your son, he has to receive one hundred lashes and be exiled for a year. O Unais! Go to this man’s wife, and if she confesses, then stone her to death.” Agreed upon, and this is Muslim’s version.

1245. ‘Ubadah bin As-Sāmit (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, “Receive from me (this revelation), receive from me (this revelation). Allāh has ordained a way for those unmarried females who committed adultery. When an unmarried man, commits adultery with an unmarried woman, they should receive one hundred lashes and be exiled for a year. If they (fornicate while they) were married, they shall receive hundred lashes and be stoned to death. Reported by Muslim.

348. The Messenger of Allāh is referring to the verse (4:15) sūrat an-Nisā’, “...and if they testify, confine them (those women) to their houses until death, or (until) Allāh ordains for them some other way.”

349. Imām Mālik is of the opinion that a woman is not to be exiled as this will expose her to hardship, and she is not allowed to travel on her own anyway. She should only be flogged a hundred lashes, and the male is to be flogged and exiled. Other scholars say that if she is exiled she must be with a mahram.

350. Most scholars are of the opinion that there is no need for flogging and that stoning is sufficient for the (married) adulterer and the adulteress. Their evidence is that the Prophet did not combine flogging and stoning in the punishment of Māiz and only stoned him to death. This is also evident in this hadith as the Prophet did not order Unais to flog her.
1246. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, ‘A Muslim man\footnote{351} came to the Prophet while he was in the mosque, and called him saying, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! I have committed adultery.’ The Messenger of Allāh turned his face away from him, so the man came round (from the other side) towards his face and said, ‘O Messenger of Allāh! I have committed adultery.’ The Messenger of Allāh again turned his face away from him, but the man repeated his statement four times. When he testified four times that he did it, the Messenger of Allāh called him saying, ‘Are you insane?’ The man said, ‘No.’ The Messenger of Allāh then asked him, ‘Are you married?’ The man answered, ‘Yes.’ The Messenger of Allāh ‘Take him away and stone him (to death).’ Agreed upon.

1247. Ibn 'Abbas (RAA) narrated, ‘When Mā‘īz came to the Prophet (admitting that he had committed adultery), he said to him, “Perhaps you have just kissed, or touched or looked (at the woman).” Mā‘īz said, ‘No, O Messenger of Allāh.’ Related by Al-Bukhārī.

1248. ‘Umar bin al-Khattāb (RAA) narrated that he addressed the people and said, ‘Verily Allāh has sent Muhammad with the Truth and sent down the Book to him, and the verse of stoning was included in what Allāh sent down. We recited, memorized and comprehended it. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ accordingly (to what was in the verse) stoned to death (whoever committed adultery while being married), and we stoned after his death. But I am afraid that after a long time passes, someone may say, ‘We do not find the Verses of stoning in Allāh’s Book, and thus they may go astray by abandoning an obligation that Allāh has sent down. Verily, stoning is an obligation in the Book of Allāh to be inflicted on married men and women who commit adultery, when their crime is proven, evident by pregnancy, or through the confession (of the adulterer).’ Agreed upon.

352. A Qur’ānic verse was revealed prescribing the punishment of stoning, but according to the opinion of the majority of the companions and scholars, it was later abrogated, regarding its recitation in the Qur’ān, but its verdict still applies as proven by the Sunnah. The Prophet ﷺ and the companions after his death continued to apply this punishment for the married culprit.

353. The evidence required in this crime is: either four witnesses, confession by the one who committed it, or pregnancy which applies only to women. The majority of scholars are of the opinion that pregnancy by itself is not a sufficient sign to inflict the punishment unless it is accompanied 1249. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allah say, “When the slave-woman of one of you commits adultery and she is proven guilty (through witnesses or confession), he should flog her as prescribed (for the slave woman), but he should not admonish her. If she does this again, then she should be flogged again but he should not admonish her. If she commits it for the third time, and she is proven guilty, then he must sell her even if it was for a rope of hair.” Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

1250. ‘Alī (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, “Inflict the prescribed punishment on those whom you possess (i.e. your slaves).” Related by Abū Dawūd and Muslim (but only traced to the Companion).

with confession or witnesses. Mālik on the other hand believes that the pregnancy of an unmarried woman who was not forced to commit fornication, is sufficient to inflict punishment taking this hadith as evidence.

354. The Messenger of Allāh is referring to the verse, “And after they have been taken in wedlock, if they commit illegal sexual intercourse, their punishment is half that for free (unmarried) women.” (4:25). The punishment referred to in this verse is 50 lashes.
1251. Imrân bin Husain (RAA) narrated, ‘A woman from Juhaínah came to the Prophet while she was pregnant due to committing adultery, and said, ‘O Messenger of Allâh! I have done something for which a prescribed punishment is to be inflicted, so please inflict it on me. The Messenger of Allâh called her guardian and said, “Be good to her, and when she delivers bring her back to me.” Her guardian brought her back when she had delivered and the Messenger of Allâh gave his commands and her clothes were tied around her and then the Prophet gave his commands and she was stoned to death. The Messenger of Allâh offered funeral prayer for her, and thereupon 'Umar said, ‘O Messenger of Allâh! You offer funeral prayer for her even though she committed adultery?’ The Messenger of Allâh replied, “She has offered such a repentance (for her sin) that if it was divided between seventy of the inhabitants of Madînah, it would be sufficient for them. Have you found such repentance better than sacrificing her life for the sake of Allâh, the Almighty?” Related by Muslim.

1252. Jâbir bin 'Abdullâh (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh stoned a man from Aslam to death, a Jewish man and 355- No punishment is to be inflicted on the pregnant woman until she gives birth even if she was unmarried. In another narration concerning the same woman it was explained that she was not stoned until she weaned her child.

\(^\text{357}\) The woman from Juhainah whose story was told in the previous hadith.

\(^\text{358}\) Two Jewish people (a man and a woman) were brought to the Prophet as they committed adultery and they were both married. The Messenger of Allāh asked them about the legal penalty for such a crime in their Book (the Torah). They told him that their Rabbis have innovated a punishment of blackening the faces with charcoal. 'Abdullāh bin Salām said, 'O Messenger of Allāh! Tell them to bring the Torah.' When they brought the Torah, one of them found the verse of stoning to death with his hand and started reading the preceding verse and what followed. Ibn Salām then said to the Jews, 'Lift up your hand.' The verse was there under his hand and thereupon the Messenger of Allāh ordered that the two sinners be stoned to death.

\(^\text{359}\) People were afraid that he may die if he receives the full 100 lashes, so the Prophet out of mercy for him, ordered them to get this stalk, but still with 100 twigs (to fulfill the number of lashes), to flog him with.
by Ahmad, An-Nasâ’î and Ibn Mâjah with a good chain of narrators.

1255. Ibn ´Abbâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Whoever you find doing as the people of Lot did (i.e. homosexuality), kill the one who does it and the one to whom it is done, and if you find anyone having sexual intercourse with an animal, kill him and kill the animal.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

1256. Ibn ´Umar (RAA) narrated, The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ applied the punishment of flogging and also that of exile. Abû Bakr (RAA) applied the punishments of flogging and exile and also ´Umar applied them.” Related by At-Tirmidhî with a trustworthy chain of narrators, but scholars differed over its being traced back to the Prophet ﷺ or only to the companion.

1257. Ibn ´Abbâs (RAA) narrated, “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “Whoever you find doing as the people of Lot did (i.e. homosexuality), kill the one who does it and the one to whom it is done, and if you find anyone having sexual intercourse with an animal, kill him and kill the animal.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

360- As for killing the animal, some scholars say that the Fitrah (nature) of this animal has been spoiled, as it is not created for this. Others say that it is disliked to eat it or use it after such a disgraceful action.

1258. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ☦ said, "Avert the infliction of the prescribed punishments as long as you find a way out (i.e. to avoid their infliction)." Related by Ibn Mājah with a weak chain of narrators.

1259. At-Tirmidhī and Al-Hākim transmitted on the authority of ‘A’ishah (RAA) with the wording, ‘Allah’s Messenger ☦ said, "Avert the infliction of the prescribed punishment on Muslims as much as you can." It is also a weak hadith.

1260. Al-Baihaqī transmitted on the authority of ‘Ali (RAA) that he said, ‘Avert the prescribed punishments by rejecting doubtful evidence.’

1261. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ☦ said, “Avoid these filthy practices which Allah, the Almighty has prohibited. He who commits any of these, should conceal with Allah’s Most High Veil (i.e. should not speak about it), and should turn to Allâh, the Most High in repentance, for if anyone uncovers his hidden sins (to us), we shall inflict on him the punishment prescribed by Allâh, the Almighty." Related by Al-Hâkim and in Al-Muwatta’ but traced to its narrator Zaid bin Aslam as Hadith Mursal.

باب حجة الكذّب

Chapter II: Penalty for Qadhf (Accusing a Person of Adultery without Proof)

1262. A’ishah (RAA) narrated, ‘When my vindication was revealed, the Prophet mounted the pulpit and mentioned what happened and recited the verses of the Qur'an (which had been revealed). When he came down from the pulpit he ordered that two men and a woman should be given the prescribed flogging (for this false accusation of Aishah (RAA) which is eighty lashes).’ Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms. Al-Bukhârî referred to it.

1263. Anas bin Mâlik (RAA) narrated, ‘The first Li’ân that took place in Islâm was when Hilal bin Umayyah accused his wife of having committed adultery with Shuraik bin Sahmî. Thereupon the Messenger of Allâh said to him, “Either you produce evidence (for your claim) or you will receive punishment.

362- The two men are Miṣãh bin Athâthah and Hassân bin Thâbit and the woman is Hamnah bint Jahsh.
on your back (i.e. flogged for your accusation if it is false.” (refer to hadith no. 1138). Related by Abū Ya’lā with a trustworthy chain of narrators.

1264. Al-Bukhārī related a similar hadith on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbas (RAA).

1265. Abdullah bin ‘Amir bin Rabi’ah narrated, ‘I witnessed the time of Abu Bakr, ‘Umar and ‘Uthmān (RAA), and those who came after them. I never saw them flogging a slave for Qadhif (false accusation of adultery) except forty lashes.’ Related by Mālik, and Ath-Thawri in his book al-Jāmi’.

1266. Abu Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “He who accuses his slave of committing adultery (without proof) will be punished with the prescribed penalty on the Day of Resurrection unless it is (true) as he said.” Agreed upon.

باب حَدِّ السَّرَقَة

Chapter III: Penalty for Theft

1267. ‘Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: “If a slave steals a sheep, he should be punished as a thief.” Agreed upon.

363. This is evidence that the punishment of a male or female slave for this crime is half that prescribed for a free person, which would be 80 lashes.
1267. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated that Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “A thief's hand should not be cut off except for a quarter of a Dinár or more.” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

The version of Al-Bukhari reads, “The hand of a thief is to be cut off for a quarter of a Dinár or more.”

In a version by Ahmad, “Cut off a thief’s hand for a quarter of a Dinár, and do not cut it off for what is less than that.”

1268. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ cut off the hand of a thief for stealing a shield that was worth three Dirhams. Agreed upon.

1269. Abú Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “May Allah curse the thief who steals an egg for which his hand is cut off, or steals a rope for which his hand is to be cut off.” Agreed upon.

364. A thief’s right hand is to be cut off if he is caught stealing a quarter of a Dinár (almost 1.5 gm of gold) or goods worth that much at the time of the theft.

365. The consensus of the scholars is that stealing an egg or a rope does not call for someone’s hand to be cut off. The exaggeration in the hadith is meant to be a factor that urges anyone who thinks of stealing, to think twice, and see how mean this act is, as he would loose his precious right hand for something as worthless as an egg.
1270. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'Allah's Messenger ﷺ said (to Usamah bin Zaid), "Are you interceding with regards to one of Allah's prescribed penalties?" Then he got up and addressed the people saying, "O people! What destroyed the nations before you, was that when a noble person committed theft, they used to leave him (without punishment), but if a weak person among them committed theft, they would inflict the legal punishment on him." Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

Muslim has another version on the authority of 'A'ishah (RAA) who said, 'A woman used to borrow (people's) belongings and deny having taken them, so the Prophet ﷺ ordered that her hand be cut off.'

366. A lady known as Fāṭimah bint Aswad al-Makhzūmiyyah who came from a prominent family committed an act of theft. When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ commanded that her hand was to be cut off, people started to intercede to exempt her from punishment, and among them was Usamah bin Zaid, the son of his former servant Zaid bin Thabit. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ became very angry and said the statement mentioned in the hadith. The owner of the stolen goods however can intercede for the thief, for his hand not to be cut off as long as the case has not yet been taken to the judge. Once it has been brought to court, no one can seek pardon for the thief.
1271. Jābir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh Ḥ said, “There is no cutting of the hand for the treacherous, for snatching (like the one who snatches and runs away), or for forcible seizure (looting or robbery).” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms. At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīḥ.

1272. Rāfi’ bin Khudaij (RAA) narrated, ‘I heard the Messenger of Allāh Ḥ say, “There is no cutting off of a hand for taking fruit or the pith of a palm tree.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms. At-Tirmidhi and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīḥ.

1273. Abū Umaiyyah al-Makhzūmī (RAA) narrated, ‘A thief who has made a confession was brought to the Messenger of Allāh Ḥ, but no goods were found with him. Allāh’s Messenger Ḥ said to him, “I do not think you have stolen!” The man replied, ‘Yes I have.’ The Prophet Ḥ repeated it to him twice or thrice, so he gave his commands concerning him, and his hand was cut off. He was then brought to the Messenger of Allāh Ḥ who said to him, “Ask for the forgiveness of Allāh and turn to Him in repentance.” The man then said, ‘I ask Allāh’s forgiveness and turn to Him in repentance.’ The Messenger of Allāh Ḥ then said three times, “O Allāh! forgive him.” Related by Abū Dawūd, Ahmad and An-Nasā’ī with a trustworthy chain of narrators, and it is Abū Dawūd’s version.
1274. Al-Hākim transmitted the same hadith on the authority of Abū Hurairah (RAA) giving similar meaning. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “Take him away and cut off his hand and cauterize him.” Al-Bazzār transmitted the same hadith but commented that its chain of narrators is not sound.

1275. ʿAbdur Rahman bin Auf (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “A thief is not to be fined if the prescribed punishment has been inflicted on him.” Related by An-Nasāʾī who said that its chain of narrators is disconnected.

1276. ʿAbdullāh bin Amro bin al-ʿĀg (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ was asked about dates which are still hanging on the palm tree, he then said, ‘If a needy person eats some dates, but without taking a supply away in his garment, he is not to be blamed, but if anyone takes away any of it, he is to be fined and punished. And if anyone takes away any of it (the dates) after it has been put in the place where it is going to be dried, and it amounts to the price of a shield, he must have his hand cut off.” Related by Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā’i. Al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

1277. Safwān bin Umayyah (RAA) narrated, ‘When the Messenger of Allāh ἔ commanded that the thief who had stolen his cloak (i.e. Safwān’s) should have his hand cut off, Safwān wanted to intercede, for the thief’s hand not to be removed. Thereupon the Messenger of Allāh ἔ said to him, “Why didn’t you do so before bringing him to me?” Related by Ahmad, the four Imāms, and Al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

1278. Jābir (RAA) narrated, ‘A thief was brought to the Prophet ἔ and he said to them, “Kill him.” The people said, ‘He has just stolen O Messenger of Allāh!” He then said, “Cut off his hand.” He was brought to him the second time and the Messenger of Allāh ἔ also said, “Kill him.” They said the same and the Messenger of Allāh ἔ said to them, ‘Cut off his hand.” The same man was brought a third and a fourth time and same was said.367 When they brought him for the fifth time, the Messenger of Allāh ἔ said, “Kill him.” Related by Abū Dawūd and An-Nasā’i who regarded it as Munkar (a type of a weak hadith).

367- The first time a thief steals, his right hand is cut off. The second time his left foot is to be cut off, the third time his left hand and the fourth time his right foot.
1279. An-Nasa'i also reported a similar hadith on the authority of Al-Ḥārith bin Ḥātib. Ash-Shafī'i mentioned that the killing in the fifth time (of stealing) is abrogated.

Chapter IV: Penalty for Drinking and the Nature of Intoxicants

1280. Anas bin Malik (RAA) narrated, 'A man who had drunk wine was brought to the Prophet and he commanded that the man should be beaten (lashed). The man was given about forty lashes with two palm branches. Anas added, Abū Bakr (RAA) did the same, but when 'Umar (RAA) became the Caliph, he consulted the people and 'Abdur Rahman bin 'Auf said, 'The mildest punishment for drinking is eighty (lashes). ' So, 'Umar (RAA) gave his commands accordingly. Agreed upon.

1281. Muslim transmitted on the authority of 'Ali (RAA) concerning the story of al-Walid bin 'Uqbah\(^\text{368}\) that the Messenger of \(^{368}\) He was the brother of 'Uthmân bin 'Affân and he became a Muslim on the day of the Conquest of Makkah. He was appointed by 'Uthmân to Allāh inflicted forty lashes, Abū Bakr (RAA) forty lashes and Umar (RAA) eighty. All of them are in accordance with the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ but this one (the eighty lashes) is preferable to me. In this hadith also a man witnessed that he had seen him vomiting wine, Uthmān (RAA) said, 'He would not have vomited it, unless that he had drunk it.'

1282. Mu‘āwiyah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said regarding the one who drinks alcohol, 'If he drinks (for the first time) flog him, then if he drinks for the second time flog him, then if he drinks for the third time flog him then if he drinks for the fourth time you should kill him.' Related by Ahmad and the wording is his. It is also transmitted by the four Imāms; At-Tirmidhi mentioned what indicates that it is abrogated, but Abū Dawūd reported it clearly on the authority of Az-Zuhari.

1283. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "When one of you is flogging (while inflicting a prescribed punishment) he should avoid the face." Agreed upon.

govern al-Kūfah and was later ordered to retire by him for drinking alcohol.

369. It is preferable for him due to the daring attitude of the drunkards and not that what 'Umar (RAA) did was dearer to him than what the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ did.
1284. Ibn ‘Abbás (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Alläh said, "Prescribed punishments are not to be inflicted in mosques." Related by At-Tirmidhi and Al-Hākim.

1286. Umar (RAA) narrated, ‘When the prohibition of Khamr (alcoholic drinks) was revealed, it used to be made from: grapes, dates, honey, wheat and barley. Khamr is what shields one’s mind.” Agreed upon.

1287. Ibn ‘Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Alläh said, “Every intoxicant is Khamr, and every intoxicant is prohibited.” Related by Muslim.

1288. Jābir (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Alläh said, “If a large quantity of any beverage intoxicates, then a small amount of it is prohibited.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms. Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.
1289. Ibn ʿAbbās (RAA) narrated, ‘Raisins used to be soaked for the Messenger of Allāh in a water skin, and he would drink it that day, the next day and the following day. When it was the evening of the third day, he would drink it and give some to others. If anything was left from it, he would spill it.’ Related by Muslim.

1290. Umm Salamah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh said, “Allāh did not make your cure in what He made unlawful to you.” Related by Al-Baihaqī and graded as Sahīh by Ibn Hibbān.

1291. Wā’il Al-Hadrami narrated that Tāriq bin Suwaid asked the Messenger of Allāh about Khamr which he made only to be used as a medicine. The Prophet replied, “It is not a medicine, it is a disease.” Related by Muslim and Abū Dawūd.

Chapter V: Taʿzīr Discretionary punishment And Ordinances Regarding An Assailant
1292. Abū Burdah Al-Ansāri (RAA) narrated that he heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ say, “No more than ten lashes are to be given except when inflicting one of the Hudūd (prescribed punishments) of Allāh.” Agreed upon.

1293. ‘Ā’ishah (RAA) narrated that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Forgive the people with high moral values when they slip but not what calls for the infliction of Hudūd.” Related by Ahmad, Abū Dawūd, An-Nasā’ī and Al-Baihaqī.

1294. ‘Alī (RAA) narrated, ‘I would not blame myself for the death of a man when I inflicted prescribed punishment on him, with the exception of one who drunk Khamr, for if he were to die, I would pay diyah for him.’

1295. Sa‘īd bin Zaid (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Whoever is killed while protecting his property, he is a martyr.” Related by the four Imāms and At-Tirmidhī graded it as Sahih.

370. Imam Muslim transmitted a hadith on the authority of Abū Hurairah that a man came to the Prophet ﷺ asking about a man who is trying to take away his money, the Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Do not give it to him.” He then asked again, ‘What if he fights me?’ The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Fight him.” The man asked again, ‘What if he kills me?’ The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “You are then (considered) a martyr.” The man asked, ‘What if I kill him?’ The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “He is then

371. Plural of fitrat which means affliction, hardship trials etc.
1298. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "He who dies without having gone or thought of going out for Jihād in the Cause of Allāh, will die while being guilty of having one of the qualities of hypocrisy."
Related by Muslim.

1299. Anas (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Fight the disbelievers (polytheists) with your property, yourselves and your tongues." Related by Ahmad, An-Nasāʾī and Al-Hākim graded it as Sahih.

1300. Aʾishah (RAA) narrated, 'I said: 'O Messenger of Allāh! Is Jihād prescribed (also) for women?' Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, "Yes, a Jihād which is without fighting, it is Hajj and 'Umrah." Related by Ibn Mājah.
1301. 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar (RAA) narrated 'A man came to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ asking his permission to go out for Jihād. The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ asked him, “Are your parents alive?” He replied, ‘Yes.’ The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ then said to him, “Then your Jihād would be with them (i.e. in looking after them and being at their service.).” Agreed upon.

1302. Ahmad and Abū Dāwūd transmitted a similar hadith on the authority of Abū Sa'īd, and they added the extra statement, “Go back and ask for their permission. If they permit you to go, then go for Jihād otherwise, be good to them (look after them).”

1303. Jarīr (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Any Muslim who stays among the polytheists, does not belong to me.” Related by the three Imāms with a sound chain of narrators. Imām Al-Bukhārī considered it as Mursal (i.e. the companion is absent from the chain of narrators.)

1304. Ibn `Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Verily, the Prophet ﷺ said: ‘Whoever goes into a town, and the father or the mother says: ‘Go to the Prophet, he is better for you than me’ or ‘Go to the Prophet, he is better for you than me’ or ‘Go to the Prophet, he is better for you than me’, he is better for you than the one who says: ‘Go to the Prophet, he is better for you than me’ or ‘Go to the Prophet, he is better for you than me’ or ‘Go to the Prophet, he is better for you than me’.”

372 Scholars say that this hadith is evidence that asking the parent’s permission before going for Jihād is necessary. Also that Jihād is not compulsory when both parents or one of them is still alive (especially if they are elderly).
said, "There is no emigration (from Makkah to al-Madīnah) after the conquest of Makkah, but only Jihād (in the Cause of Allāh) and a good intention."

1306. ‘Abdullāh bin As-Saʿdī narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, "Emigration (to fight the enemy) will continue as long as an enemy is fought." Related by An-Nasāʿī, and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

1307. Nāfīʿ (RAA) narrated, 'The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ made an attack on Bani al-Muṣṭaliq when they were unaware. He killed the men who were fighting and took the women and children as captives.' ʿAbdullāh bin ʿUmar told me about it. Agreed upon.

373. The specific Ḥyrah (migration) from Makkah to Madinah is not compulsory anymore after the conquest of Makkah, but still Jihād remains and one could emigrate from his home for its sake. Also emigration with a good intention such as escaping from the land of the disbelievers, travelling to gain knowledge, escaping from Fitnah etc.

1308. Sulaimān bin Buraidah narrated on the authority of his father on the authority of ʿĀʾishah (RAA), 'Whenever Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ appointed a commander over an army or a Sariyah,375 he would instruct him to fear Allāh in his own behavior and consider the welfare of the Muslims who were with him. He then used to say ﷺ “Go out for Jihad in Allāh’s name, in the Cause of Allāh, and fight those who disbelieve in Allāh. Go out for Jihad and do not indulge in Ghulul376, or be treacherous or mutilate (dead bodies) or kill a child. When you meet your enemy, or the polytheists, invite them to three courses of action, and accept whichever of them they are willing to agree to, and withhold from doing anything else: Call them to Islām, and if they agree accept it from them. Then invite them to migrate from their land to the land of the Emigrants (i.e. al-Madīnah),\textsuperscript{377} if they refuse, then tell them they will be like the Muslim desert Arabs,\textsuperscript{378} thus they will have no right in the \textit{Ghanīmah}\textsuperscript{379} or \textit{Fai}\textsuperscript{380} unless they participate in \textit{Jihād} with the Muslims. If they refuse (to accept Islām) order them to pay the \textit{Jizyah}\textsuperscript{381} and if they agree, accept it from them. If they refuse, seek Allāh, the Most High’s help against them and fight them. When you besiege a fortress, and its people wish you to grant them the protection of Allāh and His Prophet ﷺ, grant them neither but grant them your protection, for it is less serious (a lesser guilt) to break your guarantee of protection than to break that of Allāh’s. And if they offer to capitulate under the condition that they are subjected to the judgment of Allāh, do not grant them this, but judge according to your own command, for you do not know whether or not you will be able to carry out Allāh, the Most High’s Judgment regarding them.” Related by Muslim.

\textsuperscript{377} Migration from Makkah to Madīnah used to be compulsory before the conquest of Makkah, as it was the land of Islām up until that time.

\textsuperscript{378} They are subjected to all the other commands of Allāh like other Muslims, i.e. performing prayer, paying \textit{Zakāh}, paying \textit{Diwān} etc., except that they do not get a share in war booty.

\textsuperscript{379} \textit{Ghanīmah} refers to the spoils of war that Muslims gain after fighting the disbelievers and defeating them. One fifth of the war booty is taken away and the rest is distributed among the ones who fought. This fifth is spent on the orphans, poor, needy, in the cause of Allāh etc.

\textsuperscript{380} This term refers to the war-booty which is acquired from the disbelievers without fighting them. No fifth is to be taken away and it is spent on the poor, the orphans etc.

1309. Ka'b bin Malik (RAA) narrated that whenever the Messenger of Allah ﷺ intended to go out on a battle, he would pretend to head in a different destination. Agreed upon.

1310. Ma'qil bin An-Nu'man bin Muqarrin (RAA) narrated, I witnessed (battles with) Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and if he did not start fighting at the beginning of the day, he delayed the fighting till the sun had passed the meridian, and the wind blew382 and victory descended from Allah.” Related by Ahmad and the three Imâms. Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahih.

382- If the Messenger of Allah ﷺ did not start the fighting at the break of day, he would defer it to the Dhûhr prayer time to meet the blessing of Allah which descended on the believers during the prayer time. As for the wind, scholars say that Muslims were granted victory at the battle of the Trench (al-Ahzâbi) by the blowing of the wind, by the will of Allah. Therefore, it is believed to be one of the factors which brings about victory, and the wind usually blows after the sun had passed the meridian.

1312. 'Aishah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said to a man who followed him on the day of the Battle of Badr, "Go back I will not seek help from a Mushrik (polytheist)."\textsuperscript{384} Reported by Muslim.

  \item \textsuperscript{384} This man who followed the Prophet ﷺ was a brave and strong man, but the Messenger of Allah wanted him to embrace Islam first as he could see that the man had a strong desire to become a Muslim. In another version of the hadith it says that when he became a Muslim the Messenger of Allah ﷺ gave him permission to fight with them. Some scholars say that this hadith is evidence that asking the assistance of a non-Muslim is not allowed in war, but other narrations prove that the Prophet sought the help of Safwān bin Umāyah on the Day of Hunain when he was still a polytheist, and he also asked the assistance of some other polytheists at the same battle hoping to bring their hearts closer to Islam, as he gave them a share of the war booty. That is why some scholars adopt the opinion that it was first prohibited to seek the help of polytheists during a war, but later on it was allowed (when the power of Islam became stronger). Ash-Shafī‘ī is of the opinion that if the polytheist has a good opinion concerning the tactics of war etc, it is allowed to seek his assistance, otherwise it is disliked.

386- When the Muslims confronted the Romans at Constantinople, a Muslim fighter attacked the lines of the Romans until he was in their midst, and then returned. People then cried, ‘He is throwing himself into destruction.’ Abû Aiyûb then told them that they are misinterpreting the verse which was revealed concerning the Angâr, when Allâh granted them victory they said to themselves secretly our property was lost, so why don’t we stay here to take care of our property and regain what we have lost (and leave Jihâd in the Cause of Allâh). Allâh, the Almighty then revealed this verse to show them that the real destruction occurs by staying back in their dwellings and not spending their wealth in the Cause of Allâh.

1319. `Auf bin Mâlik (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ judged that the belongings taken from the (non-Muslim enemy) killed soldier in a war, are to be given to the one who killed him.’ Related by Abû Dawûd. Muslim reported it as part of a long hadith.

387- This incident took place during the siege of Banû an-Nadîr in Madinah.
1320. ʿAbdur Rahmān bin ʿAuf (RAA) narrated regarding the story of the killing of Abū Jahl, they both hastened to him with their swords till they killed him. Afterwards, they went to the Prophet and informed him (of what they had done). The Messenger of Allāh asked them, “Which of you killed him? Have you wiped your swords?” They said: ‘No.’ The Prophet then looked at the swords and said, “Both of you killed him.” He then ordained that the belongings (weapons, shields etc.) of Abū Jahl should go to Muʿādh bin ʿAmr bin al-Jamāh. 389 Agreed upon.

Ibn Khattal then apostatized and murdered his Ansārī companion and fled to Makkah with the Zakāh money. He also had two slave women who used to sing slanderous songs about the Prophet ﷺ. After the conquest of Makkah Ibn Khattal tried to take refuge in the premises of the Ka'bah by hanging onto its curtains, but the Prophet ﷺ ordered his companions to kill him along with his slave women.

391- The three men were Tu‘aimah bin ‘Adi, An-Nadr bin al-Hārith and ‘Uqbah bin Abi Mu‘āil who threw the entrails of a she-camel on his back while he was performing his prayer by the Ka'bah and they all used to harm the Prophet ﷺ badly when he was still in Makkah.

1330. Abû Dawûd also reported, ‘He allotted three shares for a man and his horse, two for his horse and one for him.’

398- This was given as an additional reward for something special they did.

399- He means that they did not need to take the permission of those who are in charge of distributing the war booty as they are allowed to take the food which is usually eaten either for themselves or for their animals.

1339. Al-Bukhari and Muslim transmitted on the authority of 'Ali (RAA), 'The protection granted by one Muslim is like one given by them all, and this right is extended to the most humble of them.' The hadith refers to two men of her family to whom she gave protection on the conquest of Makkah and her brother 'Ali did not want to accept it, but the Messenger of Allâh accepted her protection.

If you find another dog with yours and the game has been killed, do not eat, for you do not know which of them killed the animal. When you shoot your arrow, mentions Allâh’s Name and if the game goes out of sight for a day and you find it without any marks except for that of your arrow, eat if you wish, but if you find it drowned in water do not eat it.” Agreed upon, and the wording is from Muslim.

The Mauqûdah is the animal killed by a violent blow with a stone or a stick and it is prohibited to eat it. This hadith clearly specifies that if the game is wounded with a sharp object and bleeds to death, then it is permissible to eat it but if it dies out of being hit by an object it is not lawful to eat in this case, as the body is not penetrated to bleed.

412. If the animal is found having drowned, it is forbidden to eat it, but if he found it still alive it must be slaughtered first. As stated previously, if he found his game with no other injury except for that of the arrow, then it is lawful to eat even if it is dead, as long as it is not rotten.
1378. Ibn ‘Abbās (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Do not take any living creature as a target.” Related by Muslim.

1379. Ka'b bin Mālik (RAA) narrated, ‘A woman slaughtered a sheep with a stone, so the Prophet ﷺ was asked about that and he ordered it to be eaten.’ Related by Muslim.

When someone is slaughtering an animal he should not move it around violently, neither draw it with force, nor slaughter it in the presence of another animal that may be watching it.

When the cow or the camel is slaughtered and a fetus is found inside, the fetus is lawful to eat if one wishes. That only applies if it was found dead, but if it was still alive, it must be slaughtered.

said, “A Muslim’s name is sufficient for him, so if he forgets to mention Allāh’s Name when he slaughters an animal, he should mention Allāh’s Name, then eat it.” Related by Ad-Dārāqutnī but there is a weak narrator in its chain. Also there is Muhammad bin Yazīd bin Sinān in its chain who is truthful but had a weak memory.

1385. ‘Abdur Razzāq transmitted it with a sound chain of narrators on the authority of Ibn ʿAbbas but it is not connected up to the Prophet.

1386. Abū Dawūd narrated a similar hadith that reads, “The slaughtering of any Muslim is Ḥalāl (lawful) whether or not he mentioned Allāh’s name over it.” Its narrators are reliable.

Chapter III: Sacrifices on ‘Īdul Ad-ḥā

1387 ـ عَنُ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكَ عَنِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُضْحَى بِكُبْسَتجِينَ أَوَّلَيْنِينَ، وَيُسْمَى، وَيَكُرُّ، وَيَضْحَى رَجَالُهُ عَلَى صَفَحَيْهِمَا، وَقَد لَفَظَ: "ذَبْحُهُمَا بَسَيْدَةً"، وَقَد لَفَظَ: "سَمِئَتَيْنِ"، وَأَبِي عُوْدَةَ فِي صَحِيحِهِ: "نِمَتَيْنِ

417. Most scholars are of the opinion that pronouncing the Tashbīr and Bismillāh is a Sunnah except for Abū Ḥanīfah. There is also a consensus among the scholars that if a Muslim deliberately does not mention Allāh’s name while slaughtering then the animal becomes unlawful to eat, but if he forgets then it is permissible to eat it and it is enough in this case to mention Allāh’s name before eating it.
and say the Takbîr (Allâh Akbar or Allâh is the Most Great), and place his foot on their sides.' In another version, 'He slaughtered them with his own hands.' Another version has, 'Two fat rams,' and another has, 'two precious rams.' Agreed upon. In a version by Muslim, 'and would say Bismillâh and Allâh Akbar.'

1388. Muslim has also reported on the authority of 'A'ishah (RAA), "Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered a horned ram with black legs, a black belly and black around its eyes, and it was brought for him to sacrifice and he said to 'A'ishah (RAA), ‘'A'ishah, get the knife.' Then he said, “Sharpen it with a stone.” When she had done so he took it, then taking it (the ram) he placed it on the ground and slaughtered it. He then said, “Bismillâh (In the name of Allâh), O Allâh, accept it from Muhammad, Muhammad’s family and from Muhammad’s Ummah (followers).” Then he sacrificed it.'

1389. Abû Hurairah (RAA) narrated that Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "He who can afford it but did not offer a sacrifice must not come near our place of prayer." Related by Ahmad and Ibn Mâjah. Al-Hâkim graded it as Sahîh. Other Imâms said that it is Mawqûf (i.e. it is not connected to the Prophet ﷺ.)

418- Offering a sacrifice is not obligatory, but it is a confirmed Sunnah which was always practiced by the Prophet ﷺ.
1390. Jundub bin Sufiān (RAA) narrated, 'I witnessed (the prayer of) Ḥadūl Ad-ḥā with the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ and when he finished his prayer with the people, he looked at a sheep which had been sacrificed, so he said, “Anyone who has sacrificed before the prayer must sacrifice another goat instead (of the one which he slaughtered before the prayer) and if anyone has not sacrificed he should do so in Allāh’s name.” Agreed upon.

1391. Al-Barā’ bin ʿĀzib (RAA) narrated Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ stood among us and said, “There are four types of sacrificial animals, which are not permitted: A one-eyed animal which has obviously lost the sight of one eye, a sick animal which is obviously sick, a lame animal which obviously limps, and an old animal which has no marrow.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imāms. At-Tirmidhī and Ibn Hibbān graded it as Sahīh.

1392. Jábir (RAA) narrated that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said,

419. This ḥadīth is evidence that if an animal is slaughtered before the ‘eid prayer, then it is not considered a sacrifice and will not get the reward as such, it is rather considered as a charity to be given to the poor. The proper sacrifice must be slaughtered after the prayer, which is why the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ told them to sacrifice another one.
“Sacrifice only a full-grown animal unless it is difficult for you, in which case you should sacrifice a (six to ten month old) sheep.” Reported by Muslim.

1394. ‘Alī bin Abī Talib (RAA) narrated, ‘The Messenger of Allah \( \text{رسول الله} \) appointed me to be in charge of his sacrificial animals, and commanded me to distribute all their meat, hides, and saddlery to the poor, and not to give anything from them to the butcher.’ Agreed upon 1395. Jábir (RAA) narrated, ‘In the year of Hudaibiyah (Reconciliation), we sacrificed a camel for each seven people along with Allah’s Messenger \( \text{رسول الله} \), and also a cow for seven.’ Related by Muslim.

\[ \text{footnote: It is prohibited to give the butcher his wages in the form of some meat of the sacrificed animal, unless he does not take it willingly.} \]
Chapter IV: 'Aqiqah

1396. Ibn 'Abbas (RAA) narrated, 'The messenger of Allâh ﷺ slaughtered a ram for both al-Hasan and al-Husain (at their birth).' Related by Abû Dawûd, Ibn Khuzaimah, Ibn al-Gârûd and 'Abdul Haqq graded it as Sahîh, but Abû Hâtim said that it is most probably Mursal.

1398. 'A'ishah (RAA) narrated, 'Allâh's Messenger ﷺ commanded them to slaughter two sheep equal (in age) for a boy and one for a girl at their birth.' Related by At-Tîrmîdhi and graded it as Sahîh.

421. This term is used for the animal which is slaughtered for the sake of a new-born baby whether male or female. The Sunnah is that the animal is to be slaughtered on the 7th day of the baby's birth, and also it is an act of the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ to slaughter one sheep for the female and two for the male.

422. They are the grandsons of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, and the sons of Ali bin Abî Talib and Fâţimah the Prophet's daughter. Al-Husain is one year younger than al-Hasan.
1399. Ahmad and the four Imâms transmitted a similar hadith on the authority of Umm Kurz al-Ka‘bîyah.

1400. Samurah (RAA) narrated that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Every boy is pawned\(^\text{423}\) against his ‘Aqîqah, to be slaughtered on his behalf on the seventh day of his birth, his head is to be shaved, and he must be given a name.” Related by Ahmad and the four Imâms. At-Tirmidhî graded it as \textit{Saḥîh}.

\(^{423}\) The Messenger of Allah ﷺ is drawing a similarity between an article, which is pawned and a child who is lying in a state of being pledged. If his parents do not do this ‘Aqîqah for him, he will not be able to intercede for them with Allah on the Day of Judgment, if he dies in his childhood before reaching the age of puberty; i.e. they will not benefit from his intercession to their welfare.

1406. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah said, “If anyone says: ‘If Allah wills’ when swearing an 424 This hadith is relevant to the intention of the claimant (whether he is a judge or otherwise). The claimant asks the defendant to administer an oath on a certain matter, which he claims to be truthful about. So, in this case the defendant makes an oath with his intention being related to this particular matter, which his rival claimed that he is guilty of. This is supported by the following hadith.

Its chain of narrators is Sahîh, but the scholars of hadîth said that it is not connected to the Prophet ☪ but it is only the narration of Ibn 'Abbâs.

modesty to another person in the afternoon (or after the Asr prayer) and swore to him by Allâh that he had bought it at such a price and he (the buyer) believed him yet that was not the case, and a man who pledged allegiance to the Imam but for the sake of worldly matters (i.e. not for Allâh's sake), if the Imam bestowed on him something out of worldly riches he adheres to his allegiance, and if he did not give him anything, he did not fulfill the allegiance." Agreed upon.

\textsuperscript{436} Zaid bin Hârithah the freed slave of the Prophet had a white complexion whereas Usâmah his son was rather dark. Usâmah’s mother Umm Aiman was also dark, but people started to talk about Usâmah’s lineage because he was dark while his father was white. Mujazziz Al-Mudlijî saw them lying down with their faces covered with linen, while their feet were bare. He then commented upon looking at their feet with the words mentioned in the hadith which pleased the Prophet.

Chapter II: Issues related to al-Mudabbar

١٤٧٤٠ - عَنْ جَابِرَ - رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ - أَنَّ رَجَالًا مِّنَ الْاَكْسَارِ أَعْطَى غَلَامًا لَهُ عَنْ دَبَّرَ، وَلَمْ يَكْنِ لَهُ مَالٌ غَيْرَهُ، فَبَلَغَ ذَلِكَ الْبَيْنِيَّ صُلَيْتَ اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ: "مَنْ يَشْرَكِيهِ مَنِي؟" فَأَشَرَّأْتُ عَلَى بْنِ عَبْدِاللَّهِ بِسُمَانَةٍ دَرُّهُمْ. مَتَفَقَّ عَلَيْهِ، وَفِي أَفْضِلِ الْسُجَّارِيَّةِ: فَاجْتَحَ، وَفِي رَوَايَةِ النَّسَائِيِّ: وَكَانَ عَلَيْهِ دَينٌ طَبَاعَهُ بِسُمَانَةٍ دَرُّهُمْ، فَأَجْتَهَمْ، وَقَالَ: "فَأَقَضِيْ دِينَكَ".

١٤٧٤١. Jábir bin ‘Abdullāh (RAA) narrated that a man from the Ansār declared that his slave lad would be free after his death (would be Mudabbar), yet he had no other property. When the Prophet (ﷺ) heard of that he said, "Who will buy him from me?"

In a narration by Al-Bukhārī: ‘The man became needy,’ (so the Prophet (ﷺ) took the slave and said...).

A version by An-Nasā‘ī says, ‘The man had a debt, so the Prophet (ﷺ) sold the slave for eight hundred Dirhams and gave him the money and said, “Pay off your debt.”

١٤٧٥١. ‘Anro bin Shu‘aib narrated on the authority of his father—

440. A slave who is told by his master that he will be free after his (the master’s) death.

441. A slave, who makes an agreement with his master to pay him a certain amount of money in return for gaining his freedom.

442. This literary means the mother of a child. She is the slave woman, who gives birth to her master’s children, who would be born free.
er, on the authority of his grandfather (RAA), that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “A slave who entered into an agreement to buy his freedom is still a slave as long as a Dirham of the agreed price remains to be paid.”\[443\] Related by Abû Dawûd with a good chain of narrators. The full hadith is related by Ahmâd and the three Imâms. Al-Hâkim graded it to be \textit{Sahîh}.\[1476\] Umm Salamah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “When a slave of one of your women has made an agreement to pay for his freedom (i.e. he is a Mukatib) and can pay the full price, she must veil herself from him.” Related by Ahmâd and the four Imâms. At-Tirmidhî graded it as \textit{Sahîh}.\[1477\] Ibn ‘Abbâs (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “The Diyah (Blood money) of a slave who had made an agreement to buy his freedom (Mukatib) and had been killed, is paid at the rate paid for a free man (as a Diyah) as much as he has paid of the amount agreed upon, and at the rate paid for a slave as the remainder is concerned.”\[444\] Related by Ahmâd, Abû Dawûd and An-Nasâ’î.

\[443\] This refers to al-Mukatib who remains under the same rulings, which are applicable to a slave until he pays the full amount. Agreed upon.

\[444\] This hadith seems to be contradictory to the hadith of ‘Amro bin Shu’âib (1461) that a slave ‘is still a slave as long as a Dirham of the agreed price remains to be paid.’ But most scholars are of the opinion that a Mukatib is still a slave regarding legal punishments and blood money as long as he still owes his owner one Dirham. Some scholars still believe 1478. 'Amro bin al-Hārith, the brother of Juwairiyah the mother of Believers (the wife of the Prophet ﷺ) narrated, 'When Allāh’s Messenger ῥ hakam died, he did not leave a Dīnār or a Dirham, a slave or a slave-woman, or anything but his white she-mule, his weapons and a piece of land which he appointed as Sadaqah.' Related by Al-Bukhārī.

1480. Sahl bin Hunaif (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ῥ hakam said, “He who assists a Mujāhid for Allāh’s sake, a debtor who is in distress (being unable to pay his debt) or a slave who had made an agreement to buy his freedom, Allāh will shade him, with His Shade, on the Day when there will be no shade but His.” Related by Ahmad and Al-Hākim graded it as Sahīh.

that that this is not the case, taking this hadith as their evidence, but some scholars said that it is abrogated and the first hadith is the more established one.
1481. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “A Muslim has six duties towards other Muslims: When you meet him, you should salute him; when he invites you, accept his invitation; when he asks for your advice, give it to him; when he sneezes and praises Allah, say ‘May Allah have mercy on you;’ when he is ill, visit him; and when he dies follow his funeral.” Related by Muslim.

1483. An-Nawwâs bin Sam‘ân (RAA) narrated, ‘I asked the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ about virtue and sin and he replied, “The essence of virtue is (manifested in) good morals (Akhâlq) whereas sinful conduct\textsuperscript{445} is that which turns in your heart (making you feel uncomfortable) and you dislike that it would be disclosed to other people.” Related by Muslim.

1484. Ibn Mas‘âd (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said, “When three of you get together in company, two of you must not talk privately while isolating the third, so as not to make him feel sad (that he is left out) till you mingle with other people (i.e. you are joined by others).” Agreed upon and the wording is from Muslim.

\textsuperscript{445} A sin could be that action, which should a person commit it, he would be subjected to punishment according to Islamic Shari‘ah. A sin in this hadith refers to that action, which a person does not feel comfortable about doing, even though it is not explicitly prohibited by the Shari‘ah, it is not definitely lawful or acceptable and one fears that Allâh will punish him for doing it, even if people cannot see him. It is better in this case to avoid it.

446. The reason for this is explained in another hadith as the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, "You never know which portion of your food is blessed (has Barakah)." It is not meant to be obligatory as most scholars say, rather it is just preferable or recommended for the intended good.

447. Greeting with Salam or responding to Salam (the Muslim greeting), is a collective duty, thus if one greets or answers the greeting then the obligation or duty is met on behalf of the rest.
1489. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Do not initiate the saluting of Jews and Christians (when you meet them), and if you meet any of them on the road, force him to go to the narrowest part of the road (i.e. do not give way for them to pass, but keep going).”^448 Related by Muslim.

1490. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “When one of you sneezes, he should say, ‘Alhamdu-lillāh (Praise is to Allāh) and his (Muslim) brother should say to him, ‘Yarhamuka Allāh (May Allāh have mercy on you). When he says this to him (the last phrase), he should reply, ‘Yahdikum Allāh (May Allāh guide you) and grant you well being.” Related by Al-Bukhārī.

1491. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “None of you should drink while standing.”^449 Related by Muslim.

^448- When the Jews used to meet the Prophet ﷺ in Madinah, they used to say to him ‘as-Sām ‘Alaykum’, instead of saying ‘As-Salamu ‘Alaykum’. The word as-Sām means death in Arabic, so the Jews instead of answering back the salutation of the Muslims, which is peace be upon you, they used to wish the Prophet death.

^449- It is not meant to be prohibited to drink water while standing, rather it is disliked as it is narrated by Ibn ‘Abbās that the Prophet ﷺ drank from the well of Zamzam while he was standing.
1492. Abú Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “When one of you puts on his shoes, he should put on the right one first and when he takes them off, he should take off the left one first, so that the right one should be the first to be put on and the last to be taken off.”

1494. Ibn Umar (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Allāh will not look on the Day of Judgment at him who lets his garment drag on the ground out of pride and arrogance.” Agreed upon.

450. Any honorable act in Islam is always done with the right hand or starts with the right side, such as salutation, eating, getting dressed, making ghusl, combing one's hair. On the other hand, acts like cleaning the private parts after going to the toilet is done with the left hand.

Ibn Mas’ūd (BAA) narrated, ‘I asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ: “Which sin is the most serious?” He replied, “To attribute a partner to Allah, though He Alone has created you.” I asked, “What next?” He said, “To kill your child, fearing that he will share your food with you.” I asked again, “What next?” He said, “To commit adultery with your neighbor’s wife.” Agreed upon.

1503. Abdullah bin ’Amro bin al-‘As (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “For a man to insult his parents, is one of the major sins.” It was asked, “Does a man insult his parents?” He replied, “Yes, he insulst the father of a man who in return insults his father, and he insults a man’s mother who in return insults his.” Agreed upon.

So he, who saves himself from these doubtful things, saves his religion and his honor (i.e. keeps them blameless). And he who indulges in these doubtful things is like a shepherd who pastures (his animals) near the Himā (private pasture) of someone else and at any moment he is liable to get in it. (O people!) Beware! Every king has a Himā and the Himā of Allah on the earth is what He declared unlawful (Harām). Beware! In the body there is a piece of flesh if it becomes sound and healthy, the whole body becomes sound and healthy but if it gets spoilt, the whole body gets spoilt and that is the heart.' Agreed upon.

455. Doubtful here means that it is not clear whether they are definitely Halāl or Harām.
1512. Abū Hurairah (RAA) narrated that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said, “Cursed is he, who is the slave of the Dinār, the slave of the Dirham, and the slave of the cloak bordered with silk. 457- The hadith is referring to imitating the disbelievers and those, who are disobedient in their actions, which go against the laws of Islām, and not simply imitating them, but actually loving these acts.
